Mrs. Samuel Elmore, president of the Woman's Club of Astoria, informs us that a box of books has been sent to Tillamook by that club, for a circulating library in this city. Mr. E. T. Haltom, at the department store, has charge of the books, and as a library is a long felt want in Tillamook, it is safe to say that the generosity of the Woman's Club of Astoria will be appreciated by the reading public of Tillamook, for whose benefit these books have been sent here, and will be replaced by others at some future date or when they have been read.

Remember it was Haltom that made prices cheaper and values better in Tillamook.
