

Cook Stoves, Heaters and Ranges.

Hardware, Tinware. Iron and Steel.

The Celebrated Buhl Milk Cans. Paints, Oils, Glass, Sash and Doors.
All Plumbing and Tin Work Promptly Attended to.
Wagons, Buggies, and AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.
Guns, Ammunition, Fishing Tackle, etc
R. L WADE,

$5,286.00. These Figures are the amount of the Stock of Goods of L. ROBINSON & CO., as per Invoice.

$3,286.00. These Figures represent the Amount paid for the Stock by TODD & CO.

$2,000.00 LESS THAN WHOLESALE PRICE.

This Stock of Goods consists of CLOTHING, HATS, Shoes, Furnishing Goods, etc.

We are selling this stock of Goods at Prices to suit every one. It must be closed out soon, and now is the chance for bargains.

Many are taking advantage of our low prices, and are laying in a supply for future use.

We are selling Hats at $2.00 that retail at $3.00 and $3.50 ; Shoes, $2.50 and $3.00 that sell elsewhere at $3.50 and $4.50 ; Logger's Shoes at $4.50 that always sell at $5.50, $6.00 and $6.50.

Underwear and Work Shirts,

Regular 50c., 60c. and 65c. goods, we sell at 45c.

Clothing,

Suits that Sell at $15.00, $16.50, $18.00 and $20.00, we Sell at $10.50, $12.00, $13.50 and $15.00.

Come and see the Stock, compare prices with other lines and we are sure you will be satisfied to buy from us.

Christmas

will soon be here and you wish to buy something for a present. Then come and pick out a Suit, Hat and Pair Shoes. Nothing more useful, will always be appreciated, and you will know you have not wasted your money.

TODD & COMPANY,

Tillamook, Ore.

CLOUGH'S CHRISTMAS DISPLAY.

Is now on. My assortment of Cilluloid and Leather Goods is the Largest in the City. Everyone knows my price is always the lowest. I want you to look at my line whether you buy or not.

CLOUGH, Don't Forget It.

TILLAMOOK JOTTINGS.

We do not know that our flour and feed is the cheapest in Tillamook, but we guarantee the quality to be good enough to please the hardest kicker.—Gangloff & Snuffer.

"C." Ben Riesland for a home.

Cooper & Botts, for abstracts.

All the latest style wrist bags at Clough's.

The latest in Perfume Atomizers at Clough's.

Farm loans at 6 per cent. Apply to B. L. Eddy.

Farm loans 7 per cent. Apply to C. & E. Thayer.

Big sale of ribbons and laces at half price at Cohn's.

A nice line of Christmas candy and nuts at Todd's.

S. C. Larsen, of Nehalem, was in the city on Friday.

Ice cream on Christmas eve and Christmas at Vogler's.

Go to Ralph Ackley's when you want Christmas presents.

Fresh bread, cakes and pies every day at Lottie Freeman's.

Fifteen head of thrifty calves for sale. Apply to F. R. Beals.

Wm. Riefenberg, of Bay City, has returned from California.

Frek Arthur, who has been in California, returned last week.

Our new stock of overcoats have just arrived at Cohn & Co.'s.

A few choice patterns in gent's pants just received at Todd's.

N. J. Myers is soliciting customers, as he will peddle milk again.

Presents for the babies as well as the ladies at C. F. Franklin's.

Clough's line of Leather goods should be seen to be appreciated.

The public school took a recess on Friday for the Christmas holiday.

The latest styles of Leather Chattelaine bags at Clough's. Popular prices.

The newest and latest things in the silver ware line at C. F. Franklin's.

Clough is selling Albums so cheap that people wonder where he got them.

Miss Grace Ford has closed a successful term of school in the Quick district.

Don't miss my watch line when looking for a Xmas present.—C. F. Franklin.

One of those rings at Franklin's is just the thing for your best girl's Xmas present.

The Pippins and the Athletics have postponed the football game to the new year.

Don't forget that we are selling the most popular hat in the city at $2.00.—At Cohn's.

See Mrs. Todd for bargains in millinery. All trimmed hats at twenty per cent discount.

Razor honing a specialty with Davis the barber, opposite the Allen house. Price 25 cents.

For sale, two or six lots, with barn and house with six rooms in it. Apply to J. S. Stephens.

It looked like winter in the mountains on Monday morning to see the trees covered with snow.

Ten cases of ladies' fine shoes, especially ordered for the holiday trade just received at Cohn's.

Finest candy in the city at the lowest price, quality taken into consideration, at Vogler's Bakery.

Christmas entertainments will take place in the churches of the city this (Wednesday) evening.

Peter's Diamond Brand Shoes are the Best—Haltom sells them.

Call on P. J. Sharp for first class, up-to-date dental work. Satisfaction guaranteed. Dr. Wise's office.

Attorney Carl Haberlack left on the stage Monday to spend Christmas with his relatives at Oregon City.

Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pens are admitted by experts to be the best pen made. Clough carries full line.

We carry the largest and best stock of clothing in town and are doing the business in the clothing line, at Cohn's.

For Sale, a fine bay horse, 1280 pounds, eight years old, broke, single, double or to ride.—Inquire M. M. Melvin.

Sollie Smith and Emmett Jenkins have bought out L. N. Barnes, and will take charge of the butcher shop in the new year.

Take a look at Clough's Holiday display before you buy. You are always welcome at his store, whether you buy or not.

Rev. S. S. White will preach at Bay City next Sunday morning and in the Presbyterian church of this city in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Walt. Smith are down from Wilson, and the latter will remain in the city while her children attends the academy.

Mr. J. S. Diehl has returned from Napa Cal., where he had gone for a change. He ran across several Tillamookers at that place.

Before buying elsewhere, call in and inspect our nice assortment of Christmas presents at Ralph Ackley's. You will save money.

From now and until after Christmas, Lottie Freeman will reduce the price of candies. A fine assortment of candies. Fresh every day.

The Oddfellows are having the lower part of their building fixed up, and when finished will make a nice room for socials and lodge suppers.

Mrs. E. H. Stone, formerly of Nestucca, died at Ashland Tuesday night, Dec. 11, of heart failure. She was 60 years of age.—Ocean Wave.

Miss Ruth Cooper returned home on Sunday for the Christmas holidays from Monmouth, where she is attending the State Normal College.

Todd's cheese factory has been sold to the new creamery company, of whom G. O. Nolan, G. W. Kiger and Oak Nolan are the incorporators.

After the first of the year lumber will go up at the Yellow Fir saw mill, when rough lumber will be $10 and dressed lumber $20 per thousand.

A new line of shoes just received from Buckingham & Hecht at Todd's, consisting of ladies' and gent's slippers, gent's dancing pumps and dress shoes.

When you want to know anything about the Oregon Fire Relief Association call upon or write J. S. Stephens, who is the agent for Tillamook county.

The Editor of the Headlight, in wishing one and all a Happy Christmas, does so with good will to friend or foe, trusting they will be merry and wise.

The band boys organized again last Thursday evening, with W. Trombley, leader; F. L. Sappington, president, and A. G. Reynolds, secretary and treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Adams and daughter returned to the city on Monday. They have been at Oakesdale, Wash., but had to return to Tillamook.

Banner Brand Clothing is Best for the frolicking school boy—Haltom sells it.

Buy Miller's all wool Clothing and get the best—Haltom sells it.

It certainly would be a great convenience, and one which would be appreciated, if the electric lights could be turned on in the evening before it gets nearly pitch dark.

Representative B. L. Eddy leaves next month to attend the state legislature, where he represents Tillamook and Yamhill counties. Mrs. Eddy and family will go with him and visit while outside.

Commencing Saturday, December 20, I will serve lunches any time during the day up to midnight. You can get a good cup of chocolate, coffee or beet-ten, sandwiches, pie or doughnuts, at A. C. Vogler's, Tillamook Bakery.

Assessor-elect A. M. Hare will take charge of the assessor's office next week. He has accustomed himself to the work the past few weeks by being in the office and doing some of the work. The present deputy assessor, Charles Johnson, will be Mr. Hare's deputy.

Though not a very fresh item, it will be news to most everybody that Harvey Walker has not been clerking for P. W. Todd at Tillamook for some time, but is on the road as an advertising solicitor for a publishing and printing house, and has latterly been in the State of Washington.—Reporter.

Sheriff Alderman sold the delinquent tax lists for 1895 and 1896 on Monday, and those for 1897 and 1898 the following day. But few pieces were bought in, the remainder being knocked down to the county. On Friday the sheriff sells the delinquent tax list for 1899 and on Saturday the 1900 list. The delinquent tax list for 1901 has to be published.

The Emersonian and Ciceronian Literary Societies of the Tillamook high school will give their first declamatory contest in the opera house next Monday evening. The societies will be assisted by local talent, and the society whose contestants win will be presented with a complete set of E. Bulwer Lytton's works by Chas. L. Clough. Admission will be 25c. for adults.

Mr. M. F. McNeil, who has been away from Tillamook for seven years, returned on Sunday on a visit. He has been mining in Southern Oregon, but is selling out his mining interests. As a souvenir, however, he is keeping a bottle filled with gold nuggets, ranging in value from $60 down, the whole being worth nearly one thousand dollars. The last year or so he has been dealing in timber in the state of Washington, where claims are selling for $5000.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Thompson, of Waverly, Wis., passed through town Monday enroute to Tillamook where they went to visit friends. They are making a tour of California, Oregon and Washington. On being told that they were visiting Oregon at the most unfavorable time of year, Mr. Thompson said his business prevented his visit at any other season. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson are people of very pleasant address.—N.Y. Record.

Died, in Tillamook City, on Thursday last, Mr. Aaron William Hall, aged 82 years. He was born in Washington county, N.Y., on July 10, 1820, and came to Oregon in 1872. Since that time he has made his home mostly in Tillamook, where he died on Dec. 18, 1902, and was buried the next day in the Oddfellows' cemetery in the presence of many sympathizing friends of the family. He served three years in the great cause of Union and Freedom in the sixties.

Continuation of jottings see last page.

Remember it was Haltom that made prices cheaper and values better in Tillamook.