Summons.

In the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Tillamook County.

Mary B. Rhodes, plaintiff, vs.

William Rieckberg, defendant.

To William Rieckberg, the defendant above named:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled Court and cause, on or before the last day of the time prescribed in the order of publication of this summons, to-wit: On or before the Third day of January, 1903, and if you fail to so appear and answer as aforesaid, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the order demanded in her complaint herein, to-wit: For a judgment against you in the sum of $66.75, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent. per annum from September 24, 1902, until paid, in the further sum of $25.00 as an attorney's fee, and for her costs and disbursements herein, and that the following described real property owned by you and situated in Tillamook County, Oregon, which has been heretofore attached in this action, to-wit: Lots numbered four, five, six, seven, sixteen, seventeen, eighteen, nineteen, twenty, twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-three, twenty-four, twenty-five, twenty-six, twenty-seven, in block numbered twenty in James M. Fuller's Amended Addition to Bay City, Tillamook County, Oregon, also lot numbered one of block numbered eight in Barview Addition to said Bay City, be sold upon execution and the proceeds of sale be applied in satisfaction of said judgment.

This summons is published in the Tillamook Headlight for six weeks, to-wit: On Thursday of each week, by order of Honorable W. W. Conder, Judge of the above entitled Court, made and dated the 25th day of November, 1902, the first publication of this summons being on the 25th day of November, 1902, and the last publication thereof being on the 1st day of January, 1903.

B. L. EDDY,

Attorney for Plaintiff.

WOMAN'S RELIEF

A really healthy woman has little pain or discomfort at the menstrual period. No woman needs to have any. Wine of Cardui will quickly relieve those smothering menstrual pains and the dragging head, back and side aches caused by falling of the womb and irregular menses.

WINE OF CARDUI

has brought permanent relief to 1,000,000 women who suffered every month. It makes the menstrual organs strong and healthy.
It is the provision made by Nature to give women relief from the terrible aches and pains which blight so many homes.

Glennwood, La., Oct. 24, 1899.
I have been very sick for some time.
I was taken with a severe pain in my side and could not get any relief until I tried a bottle of Wine of Cardui. Before I had taken all of it I was relieved I feel it my duty to say that you have a wonderful medicine.

WAGES IN FORMOSA.

The Highest Pay for Highest Labor Does Not Come Up to the Standard of a Day.

The people of Formosa have just become up to date enough to have a railroad of their own, and a detailed report of its construction has been forwarded to the stockholders, many of whom are Frenchmen and Englishmen, says a London paper.
The rails are English; the locomotives are English and American; the bridge works and girders are American; and the rolling stock is native built on American trucks. The labor employed was Formosan and Japanese, but the work was done under the direction of French, English and American engineers. The rate of wages paid per day to the machinists and laborers furnish an interesting contrast between the value put upon work in the occident and orient. The Jap. on an average received one-third more than the Formosan, and the day was of ten hours. Here is the schedule of the highest rates paid: Carpenters, 62 cents; sawyers, 64 cents; masons and plasterers, 80 cents; roofers, 66 cents; coolies, 37 cents; workmen on scaffolding, 53 cents; navvies, 47 cents; painters, 66 cents; blacksmiths, 79 cents.

THE RETIRED BURGLAR.

He Doesn't Get Himself Upon a Bench-on, and Draws a Lesson from Experience.

"No matter what business a man may be in," said the retired burglar, according to the New York Sun, "it is only by actual hard work and by constant keepin' at it that he will get on in it. No amount of dreamin' will put a man anywhere; but there ain't anywhere that a man can't get by steady, hard work."

He seen this illustrated in his own business; as a matter of fact, in his own experience.
"I've wasted many and many a night dreamin' of robbin' banks, makin' in my mind, a million dollars at a clip, but never actually makin' a cent, while some chap that I knew that didn't have half as lofty ideas about things as I did would be doin' very well, indeed, robbin' just small houses and places like that, just by waitin' down to business and stickin' to it; not waitin' his time dreamin'. My son—"

"Well, I dunno, considerin' my business, or what was my business, as I ought to set up as a teacher, but you can draw your own conclusions."

AS THEY SAY IN ENGLAND.

British Tourists in America Are Abstinent at Our Pronunciation of Names.

"Since arriving in the United States I have been greatly astonished at the way you pronounce proper names," said Mr. John H. Hanson, a tourist from Huddersfield, England, according to the Washington Post.

"For example, this very hotel at which I am stopping (the Raleigh) is given a pronunciation that sounds barbarous to my ears. You call it as though it were spelled 'Rahvey.' Now that is positively incorrect, for the great Englishman in whose honor it was no doubt named is known now and has always been known, with us, as though his name were spelled 'Rally.'

"I can't criticize your pronunciation of such words as 'Potomac,' but in England your beautiful river has ever been called the Pot-o-mac, with the accent on the last syllable. It is an Indian word, I believe, and you have the right to place the emphasis on any syllable you like, although it seems to me that our way of pronouncing it gives far more strength and dignity to the name."
