The Senatorial Contest.

The senatorial contest at Salem is not likely to be decided for some days, and, possibly some weeks. Fulton is leading Geer by some 12 votes. It will take 45 or 46 votes to elect He has 31 only votes. A combination of the Fulton-Geer factions would insure the election of either of those gentlemen. It is more than probable a Portland man will figure in the fight before many days, and with the delegation from Multnomah to back him, also a number of scattering votes, it is likely to put a different complection on the senatorial fight. Harvey Scott may capture the toga yet.
