Reasons for Supporting Herrmann.

[TO THE EDITOR TILLAMOOK HEADLIGHT]

The voters of Tillamook cannot be too forcibly reminded that their interests are at stake in the pending congressional campaign. The preliminary work having been done, and a new river and harbor bill being due at the coming session of congress, now is the time to strike hard for the improvement of Tillamook bar. This is the most critical stage of all our campaign for that work. If an appropriation be not included in the river and harbor bill to be framed during the coming winter, nothing can be done for two years. Our duty to ourselves, then, demands that we should vote for that man for representative in congress who can do the most for us. That man is the republican nominee, the Hon. Binger Hermann. There is a vacancy in the committee on rivers and harbors, and that vacancy will undoubtedly be filled by a republican. Even if Mr. Reames were elected he could never hope that he would receive that important appointment from a republican speaker. In addition, Mr. Hermann is an old-time friend of the coming speaker of the House, the Hon. Jos. Cannon, and there is every reason to believe that Mr. Cannon would appoint Mr. Hermann to the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Tongue. The members of the rivers and harbors committee will settle the fate of the various appropriations which will be demanded. Hence, the importance of having our representative on that committee. Mr. Reames cannot under any circumstances get that position, because it will go to a republican. Mr. Hermann has more than an even chance to get it. Everybody knows that his experience in Congress has been great and that he is a tireless worker. Will Tillamook vote for her own interests or against them? Men of all parties ought to be able to see where their interest lies, and vote accordingly for Mr. Hermann. Every good citizen ought to feel that he is a committee of one to see that his neighbors understand the situation, and that they get out and vote.

BOULDER CREEK.

Mrs. Maggie Nicklaus and her son John, went to Beaver last week.

Miss Lena Bays was a most welcome visitor among her Boulder Creek friends Thursday and Friday.

Elder R. V. Blalock preached at Brown school-house, to an interested audience. If the parties, who saw a queer looking craft on the river Sunday afternoon wish to test its speed, or get the particulars of its invention, call on Captain Gus.

Mr. Blalock ran out of brush to slash last week, so he slashed his ankle, and Mr. Myer's nearly amputated his toe with the buck-saw, being under the impression he was sawing wood for his wife.

C. V. Gethell, of "Cedar Creek," is working for C. A. Smith.

H. A. Chopard has slashed quite a large patch of brush and "still there's more to follow."

W. N. Bays took his daughter, Miss Bessie, to Willamina last week; she intends to spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. R. M. Dingess.

Mr. Dave Hess is out from Tillamook to work for Mr. Borba.

Mr. Bays son-in-law, Mr. Dingess, came home with him Sunday.

The cheese factory will run every day from this time on. Charles Saling, general factotum.

Mrs. W. D. Gladwell has been on the sick list, lately.

Boys, when you are out with your dogs and fluns, don't make a mistake and shoot a yearling calf. There are quite a band of them back on the hills on the north side of the river from "Boulderville."

"Now the bright morning star, Day's harbinger. Comes dancing from the East, and brings with her, The flowery May, who, from her green lap throws, The yellow cow-slip and the pale primrose."

SOUTH PRAIRIE.

The warm rains and sunshine have been very beneficial to the grass.

Fess Quick left for California last week.

There was one hundred and seventy thousand pounds of milk received at the South Prairie factory during the month of April. The tests ranged from 3 to 4.20 per cent.

Bell Johnson has been engaged the past few days in clearing off the ground for a large barn on Thos. Goyne's place.

An agent for the condensed milk factory to be established at Tillamook has been through this neighborhood soliciting patronage, but few, if any, have signed their contracts. The dairy men have been well pleased with their returns from the cheese factory, and are slow to sign away their cows on a five year's contract.

NETARTS.

The Misses Hallie and Wna Baker, of Salem, came over the Sheridan road and arrived at Netarts Saturday. Mr. Shortridge, of Dolph, brought them in. Miss Hallie teaches the school at the head of the Bay in the Morgan district and Miss Wna teaches in the O'Hara district. Both schools opened on the 4th inst.

Merrel Smith, of Tillamook, is making cheese for C. B. Wiley.

G. W. Bodyfelt, the county commissioner, came over to Netarts Monday, looking over the roads. Guess he found some mud.

There were several strangers on the Bay the first of the week.

Miss Ruth Easter, of Tillamook, came over Monday to attend the Netarts school this summer.

C. B. Wiley and Geo. W. Phelps went to the city Saturday.

Sam Reading, of South Prairie, is stopping with Geo. Hodgdon for a month or two.

Train Plunged Through Crowd.

DETROIT, Mich., May 3.—A day of merrymaking and celebration of 1500 Polish excursionists from Toledo was brought to a close by a frightful catastrophe at the corner of Canfield and Dequindre streets at 8:30 o'clock to-night, in which seven of the excursionists were killed.

The excursion was given by the Polish Lancers, of Toledo, over the Lake Shore Railroad. The excursionists left the train at the corner of Canfield and Dequindre streets this morning, and were greeted by a number of local Poles and Polish societies, who escorted the visitors to St. Joseph's Church. An entertainment was held later at Harmonia Hall. About 8 o'clock the visitors began to gather again at the corner of Canfield and Dequindre streets to take their train back to Toledo. Both the Lake Shore and Grand Trunk tracks run out from the Brush-street Station on Dequindre street.

Four policemen stood at the corner of Canfield street and endeavored to keep the excursionists from crowding through the gates onto the track. Despite their efforts, many got past the gates and were waiting on the tracks when the special arrived and stopped at the crossing. There was a rush for the car platforms, and the people crowded in from both sides of the train. The Grand Trunk track is only a few feet to the west of the Lake Shore rails, and it was crowded with the excursionists, who were boarding their train on that side.

Suddenly from out of the darkness came the Grand Trunk Chicago-New York express, known as the Pan-American Flyer. It plowed through the mass of people, throwing them to both sides of the track, bruised and maimed, and grinding a number of them under the wheels.

Patrolman Fred Schultz, John Synda, a prominent local Pole, and numbers of others who were at the crossing, assert that the flyer's whistle was not blown, nor was the bell rung. No statement could be secured on this subject at the local Grand Trunk office tonight.

The flyer was checked and stopped as quickly as possible and backed to the scene of the catastrophe, where for two blocks the track was covered with mangled and dying people.

EGGS! EGGS!! EGGS!!!

At Syracuse, N.Y., two young Canadian soldiers have discarded the British uniform to wear the Yankee blue. Their names are McIntyre and Rose, and both have seen long service in the British army. One of them wears the Victoria cross. They came from Kingston, Ont., where they had been stationed with Company B, Kingston Battery. At the clothing store where the change of costume took place the soldiers took off their red caps, saluted the caps and said solemnly, "Good bye, old cap, forever."

J. B. Marcum, of Jackson, Ky., a prominent attorney and a member of one side in the Cockrell-Hargis feud, was shot and killed as he was entering the courthouse, by an unknown man. Marcum was shot in the head by someone located in the hall further back. The assassin escaped. Great excitement prevails. Marcum, who has always been friendly to the Cockrell family and their friends, has often stated that efforts were being made to have him killed.

Women and men at Joliet, Ill., fought hand to hand with each other and then fought hand to hand against the police in the Slavonic Roman Catholic Church. The trouble was started by several women, as the collectors were circulating through the church. There were 2000 men, women and children in the church when the fight began. In spite of all the protests of Father Kollar and others the church members fought with fists and pieces of furniture, knocking each other right and left. Some one ran from the church and called on the police for help.

The Supreme Court of the United States decided the case of the Oregon and California Railway Company vs. the United States in a case involving certain lands in Oregon which were claimed by the railroad company under patents issued in 1871 under the Oregon donation act.

The decision was favorable to the company. The contention in behalf of the United States was that the patent had been issued by mistake, as the land in dispute had been located as early as 1853, but the court held that, as the land had not been reclaimed as required by law, the settlement of 1853 was not valid.

Under the present Administration, there need be no concern on the part of the sheepmen of Oregon that grazing will be prohibited in the Cascade forest reserve, notwithstanding reports that are put in circulation from time to time, to the effect that the number of sheep permitted in the reserve is to be gradually reduced, until all are eventually excluded.
