NETARTS.

Messrs. Hobson and Dabson and families, of McMinnville, are camping on the Beach and they believe in having a good time, if it does rain.

Campers are arriving every day and there is quite a crowd of McMinnville people on the beach.

The Steamer Geo. R. Vosburg spent Sunday out around Sea Lion Rocks. She seemed to have quite a crowd of excursionists aboard as they could be plainly seen from shore.

Quite a number of Netarts people spent the Fourth in Tillamook. They report a very pleasant time.

H. Bolhmat and Wm. Finley, of Portland, are still on the Beach rusticating and photographing every thing that comes in their way.

Mr. Patrick and wife left for their home at Salem Tuesday, where they will remain for two weeks and then will return to Netarts to spend the balance of the Summer.

Mr. Haming and family, of McMinnville, are camping on the beach.

Duel to the Death.

ARLINGTON, Or., July 6.—A shooting affray occurred on the street in Mitchell to-day which resulted in the death of two men and a serious wound to a third.

Martin Puett. son of the ex-Marshal of the town, had got drunk and was creating a great disturbance about 5:30 this afternoon. The Marshal, whose name could not be learned here, was about to arrest him when Milt Dehaven, a young man who had a rifle with him, volunteered to quiet Puett. Puett resented Dehaven's interference, and, drawing a revolver, shot Dehaven, inflicting a fatal wound. Puett stepped back a few paces, but Dehaven instantly took aim with the rifle and shot him with such aim that Puett died in five minutes. Dehaven also died within three-quarters of an hour.

A wild bullet fired by one of the men struck the Marshal in the leg, breaking the bone.

Pope's End Near.

ROME, July 9th.—The life of Pope Leo continues to hang by a thread, with the expectation that any moment may bring the final catastrophe. The wonderful vitality of the remarkable old man is combating a complication of diseases which would endanger a strong man in the prime of life. The corner of the palace which remained lighted the longest was the apartment of Cardinal Rampolla, where the lights were extinguished only a short time after those in the room where Monsignore Volponi, one of the pontiff's most intimate friends, is lying in a serious condition as a result of the attack of syncope that he suffered today Pope Leo, as though he had second sight, has asked several times why Monsignore Volponi has not been to see him. Naturally, the condition of Monsignore Volponi has been kept from the pope.
