In the matter of the report of John Hickey in regard to the practicability of a wagon road over Necarney mountain and over the Schollmeyer route, it was accepted and placed on file. In regard to the Necarney mountain route the report states that from the county line for about three miles it is all right and accessible to a good wagon road but farther it is very impracticable to build a wagon road over Necarney mountain on account of the steep grade and otherwise inaccessible country. In regard to the Schollmeyer route the report says it is a very inaccessible and impracticable.

Cook Stoves Heaters and Ranges.

Hardware, Tinware, Iron and Steel.

The Celebrated Buhl Milk Cans. Paints, Oils, Glass, Sash and Doors.

R. L. WADE.

Meeting Friday Night.

Prof. W. W. Bristow, of McMinnville, will address the citizens of our town next Friday evening in the Methodist Church. His theme is along the line of ethical education and is entitled "Fair Play." Prof. Bristow was for twelve years instructor in the Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis, and with his native wit we have reason to expect his address to be bright with humor and lofty in sentiment. The representatives of the local organization of the anti-Saloon League gladly extend the invitation to all. The address will be of peculiar interest to the young as the professor is especially familiar with the traits of young manhood and young womanhood. Music will be furnished by the union choir.

NEHALEM.

The Wheeler logging camp finished the Klein timber Friday and moved to Zimmerman's Saturday to log off that place.

The Vosburg went out Friday with 70 saw logs in tow for Astoria, eleven were lost in crossing the Nehalem bar. This is a new departure in the logging business. Commencing about 18 inches from the end on top of the log a hole is bored coming out at the center in the end of the log. A chain is run through this and made fast to a main chain running the full length of the raft, thus each log is independent of the rest and in case one breaks away will not loosen any of the others. Two logs abreast are hooked on the main chain.

Prof. Baker and daughter, of Salem, came in Saturday. Miss Baker will teach school in the Sandhill district commencing Monday.

The Mellis Brothers came down the South Fork from Mist Saturday in a rough plank boat on a hunting and fishing trip.

Rev. G. L. Tufts lectured at the Union Peak school-house Thursday evening and organized an anti-saloon league to meet Thursday evenings.

John Hickey, of Foley, in the employ of the county court, was looking over the Necarney mountain and Schollmeyer routes Friday and Saturday for a road to connect with Clatsop county.

A better way to dispose of the taxpayers' money would be to dump it all in one hole so that Pat Smith could find the treasure.

COULSONBURG.

N. Dye and family, H. Poland and wife, with several others started for the hop yards near Dallas Tuesday.

Misses Tessa and Lella Bixby were callers in the burg Sunday.

Rev. C. Mills and wife, of Tillamook, spent Saturday night at N. Coulson's.

Mr. Roy Brady passed through the burg Saturday.

Mr. Smith and wife, of Beaver, were at D. F. Coulson's one night last week.

Grandpa Patrick and wife, of Salem, and Mrs. Bixby, of Beaver, visited at Mr. Will Patrick's Sunday.

Mr. Booth and wife, of Blaine, passed through the burg Saturday.

Horse for Sale.

For sale or trade, a heavy work horse, 1400 pounds, in good condition. Can be drove single or double.—Apply to Paul Erickson, road supervisor of R.D. No. 6.

Bids Wanted.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN.—That the Common Council of Tillamook City, Oregon, will receive bids for graveling Fourth Avenue East from First street to Eighth street; Eighth street from Stillwell avenue to Fourth Avenue east; Fifth street from Fourth Avenue east to Miller Avenue; and Miller Avenue from the County Road to the South line of Block eight in Miller's addition to Tillamook, all in Tillamook City, Oregon. Said gravel to be laid in the center of said streets and to be eight feet wide and eight inches deep. Bids to be for all or any part of said graveling. Bids will be opened September 7th, 1903, at 8 o'clock p.m.

The Common Council reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Out of the Ordinary.

An inspector of the city scales' staff in Chicago reports that the scales of one ice peddler make a fifty-pound cake of ice appear to weigh eighty pounds. The man's scales had not been tested previously for four years.

Dr. C. M. Mills, creator of the Ohio State Archaeological village, has discovered a prehistoric village on the Gartner farm, a few miles south of Chillicothe, O. He has made excavations, which disclose many valuable relics of the country ages ago.

The county court of common pleas of Monmouth, N. J., has decided the case brought by a landlord against a tenant for rent which was unpaid because the tenant had to move, owing to bedbugs. The court favors the tenant. Few cases of the kind are on the court records.

The scheme formulated by Cornelius Van'erbilt for the establishment of an American Art school in Paris has fallen through, owing to the procrastination on the part of the owners of the Chateau de la Muette, who has been offered 15,000,000 francs for the property. The chateau was once the home of Marie Antoinette. The owners demanded 20,000,000 francs for the property.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Wayne, of Albany, N.Y., born the same day sixty-eight years ago, died on the 10th ult., within a few hours of each other and were buried together. The aged couple were devoted to each other during a long married life. The husband died first of apoplexy. When she realized that he was gone Mrs. Wayne took to her bed and shortly after died.

A curious place for swarming has been chosen by a hive of bees at Arcot Hall, near Newcastle, England. The bees had swarmed up an apple tree, and the gardener, on going up a ladder to examine, was startled by observing a green linnet fly out of the middle of the swarm. Closer investigation revealed its nest, with two eggs in it, the queen bee having settled on the nest with her attendant hosts, the green linnet meanwhile calmly sitting on her eggs. With great care the gardener cut off the bough of the apple tree—swarm, nest and all—and, after having smoked the bees off, he carefully stuck the bough up in now sitting on four eggs.

Chekib Bey, the Turkish minister to Washington, attended in Philadelphia the recent launching of the Turkish war ship Medjidia at the Cramps' ship yard, relates the New York Tribune.

During the luncheon following the launch, Chekib Bey inadvertently for a moment on the beggars of Philadelphia. "You have here," he said, "an enterprising and intelligent collection of beggars. One of them approached me this morning. He told a moving tale of misfortune; then he asked me for a little money.

"I put my hand in my pocket, to find that I was altogether out of change. "My man," I said, "I have nothing for you now, but in an hour I shall be passing this way again. Then I promise you, you shall get something from me." "All right, sir," said the beggar, "but all the same," he added fretfully, "you wouldn't believe the amount of credit I give in this way."
