MANY PEOPLE ACCEPT TIPS.

It is Not Alone the Waiter in the Restaurant That Receives Little "Remembrances."

"Am I," said the waiter, "the only man who takes tips? No, not at all. You, for instance, tell your friend Smith that in a few days Smith, the millionaire, will be in to see him—Smith was looking for a good dealer, and you recommended him to go there. Well, Smith goes there and leaves a heavy order. Hence you are not surprised when you receive a letter later a box of fine cigars, with your tobaccoist's compliments but if those cigars are not a tip, what are they?"

IS GROWING IN FAVOR.

Tendency Toward Disposition of Human Dead by Cremation Becoming More Popular.

The custom of cremation prevailed throughout the civilized world before the Christian era, excepting among the Egyptians, Chinese and Hebrews, and recent statistics show that there is a constant and growing tendency to return to the custom.

The disposition of the human dead by incineration has been meeting with more and more favor, that has in no wise been retarded since the first cremation society was formed in London in 1874. That same year a crematory was erected in Milan and two years afterward one was built in Lodi, Italy. In two years more there was one in Gotha, Germany, and afterward they began to appear in all lands.

PESTS OBJECT TO YELLOW.

Mosquitoes Will Avoid a Person Who Wears Clothing of That Color, It is Said.

Mosquitoes have their prejudices. One of these is a repugnance to yellow. For this reason residents in mosquito-infested parts are strongly recommended to wear as much yellow as they can, and to have as much yellow about them as possible. This advice comes from a French scientist who has been investigating the psychology of the little pest. One of the tests was as follows: He took a certain number of boxes and lined their interiors with cloth of different color, and different shades of the same color. Then he liberated in the room a large number of mosquitoes, believing that the colors in the box would attract them.

The Pacific Coast Steamship Company has been making most extensive preparations to carry on its fight against the lumber combinations of the Northwest having been compelled to take this step by the action of the lumbermen themselves. The millmen of the Northwest have built up a considerable business in carrying passengers on their lumber schooners between Puget Sound ports and San Francisco, to the material injury to the steamship company, which had a practical monopoly of the field. Runners big steamers with decreased passenger lists and in competition with shipowners are regarded that business as incidental to their trade of carrying lumber, compelled the Pacific Coast Steamship Company to retaliate.

The Kingdom of God.

To THE EDITOR OF TILLAMOOK HEADLIGHT.

Luke ix, 50-60.—And he said unto another, follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. Jesus said unto him, let the dead bury the dead; but go thou and preach the kingdom of God. John I, 6.—There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. Matt. iii, 12.—In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judea, and saying, Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. Mark i, 14-15.—Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God. And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent ye, and believe the gospel. Mark iii, 14.—And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach. Matt. x, 7.—And as he ye go, preach, saying, the kingdom of heaven is at hand. Luke vi, 29.—And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples and said, blessed be ye poor; for yours is the kingdom of God. Luke x, 1 to 11.—After these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place whither he himself would come and say unto them, the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

The whole Christian era owes its existence to the preaching of the gospel, the glad tidings, the good news of the kingdom of God. Acts xix, 8.—And he went into the synagogue and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God. Luke xxviii, 30 and 31.—And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him. I say that tipping runs clean through our social system, from top to bottom, and all of us, excepting only the elevator man, are taking tips of one sort or another all our lives."
