Married, on Sunday last, at South Prairie, Mr. Hull W. Johnson and Miss Francis I. Darby. The ceremony was performed by Justice G. B. Alley in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends and invited guests, who extended to the happy couple their congratulations and best wishes for their future happiness. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darby, of South Prairie, and a young woman of admirable traits of character, while the groom is a son of the late Curtis Johnson, and a young man well and favorably known throughout the county. After the ceremony Mrs. Curtis Johnson, mother of the groom, invited the guests to a sumptuous wedding feast, and which reflected much credit upon the hostess. Quite a number of useful presents were given to the young couple, who will make their home on the farm at South Prairie.
We have to announce in this issue, after a long and tedious sickness, the death of Joseph Freeman, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Freeman, aged 26 years, 4 months and 22 days. The end came on Friday at the home of the deceased's parents, where he had been confined to his bed for three months, waiting for the summons, but while thus patiently waiting he was joyous in the anticipation of the crown of life that was his. During his long sickness he was tenderly cared for by loving parents and sisters, who did everything in their power to make his last days as peaceful and pleasant as possible. Thus another of Tillamook's promising young men have passed away, a young man much respected and esteemed by all who knew him, and we sincerely regret to announce his death, but in doing so extend our sympathy to the bereaved family. The funeral took place on Sunday at the Oddfellows' Cemetery, and a large audience of sympathizing friends attended the religious service at the U. B. church, where the Rev. J. A. Hollingworth, pastor of the M. E. church, preached an excellent sermon.
Died at the home of his son, Judge H. P. Holden, at Fairview, on the 12th of March, Mr. Horace Holden, aged 93 years, 7 months and 19 days. Deceased was one of the early settlers of Marion County, where he had resided most of his life. He came to Tillamook county about two years ago. He was born in Hillsborough, New Hampshire, on July 24, 1810, and when a young man followed the sea for several years, undergoing quite an experience in being shipwrecked on the Pelaw islands where he lived quite a time with the savages. On his return to Boston he married Miss Mary Millan in 1836, which place he left two years later and came round Cape Horn for the Hawaii islands. He came to Oregon in 1844 and located near Salem. His wife died on the islands while he was in Oregon. There were five children by this marriage, three of whom are living, viz: Judge H. F. Holden, of Tillamook, Ore.; Eugene Holder, of Idaho; and Theodore Holden, of New Jersey. Deceased was married the second time, in 1858, to Miss Harriett Darling. The remains were taken out on the steamer Sue H. Elmore on Wednesday, to be buried in Marion county, accompanied by his son, Judge H. F. Holden and Miss Annie Holden.

Obituary Notice.
Mary Elizabeth Monroe, the subject of this sketch, and whose maiden name was Kane, was born in Fairfield county, Ohio, in the year 1837, and died March 9th, 1904, was, therefore, in her 68th year. She removed with her parents to Iowa in 1844, was married to John Monroe in 1860, came with her husband to Oregon in 1872, residing in Tillamook county since 1875 up to the date of her decease, surviving in life her husband four years, besides more distant relatives and many friends, she leaves three sisters, as follows: Mrs. Susan Monroe, of Schaller, Soe county, Iowa; Mrs. Ruphina Higgins, of Graceville, Minn.; and Mrs. Ellen McDaniel, of Anamosa, Iowa. Her father, Daniel Kane, in his lifetime, was a member of the 27th Iowa, the famous Graybeard regiment, serving faithfully four years in the war of the rebellion until honorably discharged at its close.
Mrs. Monroe was for many years a consistent member of the M. E. church, uniting with it under the pastorate of Rev. Mr. Shoreland, and leaves many evidences of her piety and loyalty to her church vows. Funeral services were held at the Bay City M. E. church, with which she had been so long connected, Rev. W. Smith officiating. Her weary body, in this life, was laid away, March 10th, to its quiet home alongside the remains of her husband, and was attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends, at the Vaughn cemetery.
"Aunt Mary," as she was familiarly known in the vicinity, is gone, to meet the just reward of a well meant life, bearing away with her to the fields of immortal bliss a record of an exemplary life indeed, but not too common a well-earned tribute in this world, that of relatives and many friends who so nobly and unselfishly provided for her welfare whilst in this life, and the writer extends, in behalf of those far away sisters, their sincere thanks to the people of Bay City for their untiring kindness in many ways to "Aunt Mary."
Card of Thanks.
We desire to express our thanks, through the columns of the Headlight, our sincere thanks for the many acts of kindness bestowed upon our departed son, Joseph, and for the tokens of sympathy that so many kind friends have expressed in our bereavement.
MR. AND MRS. L. G. FREEMAN.
Land Notes Must be Paid.
SALEM, Ore., March 8.—The State Land Board today ordered that all land-sale notes be paid by July 1, 1904. This order applies particularly to notes numbered from 7175 to 8900, as all earlier notes have heretofore been ordered to be paid by April 1 next. The notes affected by this order are already due, but the debtors have preferred to pay interest rather than pay up the principal. The latest note in the list is dated March 30, 1899.
April 1, 1899, the State Land Board abandoned the system of taking notes and sold land by certificates upon which payments of installments are indorsed, the certificate being subject to cancellation of payments are not made when required. The purpose of the board in calling for the payment of all the remaining notes is to eliminate that part of the business of the Land Office and have only one system in use.
