

BLAINE.

My son, forget not my law.
Remember the bark meeting, March 19th, at 2 p.m.

When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice.

Ralph Bundy is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Woods this week.

Rev. R. Y. Blalock will preach for us Sunday, March 20th, at 7.30 p.m. Come out.

The snow that fell here last Sunday covered up the wild flowers that were in bloom.

In the days of sunshine, peel bark. In the days of rain, grind axes.

March blowed in, and judging from present indications she blow out.

Little Mary Roland has been quite sick for a couple of weeks. We are pleased to report, however, she is much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Booth, of Cloverdale, are visiting their son, Wilbur Booth and family this week.

Charles Johnson, Bolder Creek's practical farmer, was the guest of Seth Moon this week. They are old time friends.

The Christian Endeavor continues regular with its Sunday evening meetings, with a very gratifying attendance. The Society is growing in number and its members in grace.

E. H. Newton visited friends down at Woolf Creek this week. Mr. N. is well pleased with Tillamook county. He intends to make this his future home.

Mark Curl made a business trip to Tillamook City last week. He was some delayed on account of the bad roads. Mr. Hess, with his team, assisted him home.

Robert Richards, our all around farmer, passed through Blaine Sunday en route for the Hub. We can never tell if Bob is going to the city on business, or is "just going calling."

Miss Fanny Smith, of Blaine, is progressing nicely with her school at Woolf Creek, giving perfect satisfaction.

P. A. Anderson, formerly of Ashland, Or., now of Beaver, visited Blaine this week. Mr. Anderson is looking for a couple of bark claims for some of his Eastern friends.

Frances Welch, while returning from the Hub last week, hung up on Kinnaman hill. It was an accident, however. One horse fell in such a shape that it could not extract its feet out of the mud and had to be hitched to and pulled out.

Neighbors! You must learn to consider, do unto others as you would have them do to you. Learn to give and take, and meet each other half way. Now try the wire foot bridge again.

The Blaine Young Men's Past Time Club was organized here last week, with the following officers: President, S. D. Moon; vice-president, Henry Smith; secretary, S. Moon; marshal, Clarence Colson. The members are working on their new building and expect to dedicate it soon.

The Blaine Sunday School continues to meet regular every Sunday regardless of the rain and snow. Bro. J. B. Creecy, our faithful superintendent, and assisted by Mrs. Wm. Smith keeps the school going these winter Sundays, when the attendance is usually light. People like Mr. Creecy and Mrs. Smith are a credit and a blessing to any community.

Fred and Henry Thun came over the Nestucca trail from Sheridan this week, making the trip in about eight hours; also Mr. McIntosh. Mr. Barber's cheese maker came over the trail Saturday. They report but very little snow on the divide. The U.S. mail could be brought over this route much easier, and never miss a trip, than it can over the North Yamhill or Grand Round routes.

Prof. G. B. Lamb is spoken quite favorably of here for clerk; likewise Mr. Hare for assessor. There are a good many other names mentioned for the different offices, but it would take a mind reader to tell what the voters think of them. Our Democratic neighbors informs us they will have a good chance to elect school superintendent, treasurer and sheriff. True will tell.

Mr. Tuttle will extend his telephone line from Kinnaman's to Blaine, under the following condition: We are to put up the poles, buy and string wire, in fact, complete the line. Mr. Tuttle will then buy the line, we getting our money back in rent. Six and a half miles of wire will cost $75; boxes, $15 each; transformers, brackets etc., $25. We have the poles. It has been suggested that we have a telephone meeting after the bark meeting, Saturday, March 19th.

The chittum bark meeting that was held here last Saturday was the largest gathering of men that ever congregated in the Blaine School House. Every man present was full of business. It was a very harmonious meeting. They all seemed to be of one mind, favoring peeling the bark. Rev. R. Y. Blalock was elected temporary chairman by acclamation, and R. O. Richards temporary secretary. After two hours discussing the question and different plans by which we could agree upon, a committee of three was then elected to draw up bye laws. The meeting then adjourned to meet again Saturday, March 19th, at 2 p.m.

The Blaine Literary Society continues to be quite a drawing card. The society varied somewhat from its usual program last Friday evening and conducted a mock trial. Forest Ayers was arrested by Marshal Ralph Bundy for stealing Johnnie Creecy's chickens. Francis Welch, attorney for the defence, put up a very good argument. But Attorney Will Ray, who, by-the-way, has all the requirements of a good lawyer, succeeded in prosecuting Mr. Ayers. Both attorneys put up a good fight. The house was crowded. People present from Woolf Creek, Beaver and Spruce. All seemed to have enjoyed the evening.

NEHALEM.

A necktie social given by the F. U. of A., March 3rd, was a social and financial success.

Herman Schollmeyer is circulating a petition for a post-office to be located at the forks of the river to be known as "Wist." Hope he may succeed.

Assessor Hare is "doing" Nehalem this week.

Rob Crawford went to Tillamook Thursday.

George Ludtke made a trip to Astoria and Portland this week.

Peter Hime, from California, is visiting his brother Fred.

Wm. Batterson is very sick at the hospital in Astoria.

H. Schollmeyer went to Tillamook Monday.

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved" writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound, and well." Everybody ought to know, it's the only sure cure for Coughs, Colds and all Lung diseases. Guaranteed by Chas. I. Clough, Druggist. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

I challenge any minister of this town to show that the gentile world was ever accountable to anything but the light of conscience.

The entire demands of God were satisfied, and the world was redeemed by Christ, before it was made possible to follow the dictates of conscience.

Just as God inspired the sons of Levi, as Christ did the disciples, so the Holy Ghost does the conscience now.

An American, without a conscience is like a runaway horse or an engine without a governor, our opportunities become self destruction.—J. C. GOVE.

BOULDER CREEK.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dye, of Wolfe Creek, came up Monday to visit their daughter, Mrs. O. W. Kinnaman.

G. W. Lucas who has been under the weather for some time went out to see Dr. Mills about it, last Friday, returning Sunday.

C. A. Smith, who went to Blaine on business Saturday, had a bad trip both ways. All the way up a biting east wind, fairly chilling the marrow, blew in his face and before he started home, the wind whipped around into the west, and the snow was blowing like a young blizzard, and again he was obliged to face the music.

Mrs. Lida Brady, our popular dressmaker, was down from her home on Upper Boulder, last Sunday and Monday visiting Mrs. Jennie Lucas.

Lee P. Grey, who has been working at his ranch on East Creek, this winter, was down last week after supplies and to see his family.

The directors have not yet secured a teacher to replace Miss Franklin, although the clerk, H. L., is in correspondence with several Valley school ma'ams.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Chopard, and son Norman spent Sunday very pleasantly at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Jensen.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Kinnaman, who went down to Beaver last Friday, came home Monday, having been detained by extremely bad weather.

We were overwhelmed with confusion when the Headlight appeared last week at the public way in which "Easterner" thanked us for our "warning" as he styles it. Somehow it savored of sarcasm. We beg him to believe that no impertinence was intended. It has not been many years since the correspondent was a "tenderfoot" and an Ohioan at that, so she is in a position to sympathize with "Easterner."

H. Plummer, the Cascara bark speculator, is in this county again, ostensibly buying horses, but—well, he has not purchased many yet.

Frank Dye, of Wolf Creek, was up at O. W. Kinnaman's the first of the week. He reports the loss of one cow and another one sick. Larkspur poisoning is thought to be the cause.

Miss Lillibel Bays visited her sister, Mrs. Della Jensen, from Wednesday till Monday.

Mrs. G. W. Lucas was calling on friends up Boulder a few days ago.

Mr. Grey had the misfortune to lose a cow last Monday, he is short of feed and is afraid of losing more stock.

We sent a budget of items to the Headlight, as usual, last Tuesday, and on Saturday back came the empty envelope, postmarked both at Sheridan and Tillamook, and addressed in what looked like the editor's hand writing. Not a word of explanation accompanied it and we are at a loss to know what it means. Will the editor explain, or does he know anything about it?

Mr. Blalock's brother has had enough of Tillamook already and is going out on the next boat, we learn. He got discouraged too soon.

R. Y. Blalock went to Cloverdale last Saturday to fill his appointment as usual, at that place.

These items reached us after we had gone to press last week, the letter having been missent to Sheridan:

Jensen and Gladwill are erecting a new wire fence between their ranches.

H. A. Chopard and G. W. Lucas went to Beaver on Saturday last, leaving their ladies to visit with Mrs. Jno. Borba until their return.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Kinnaman started for Wolfe Creek Saturday, and failing to find a boat here, they took the trail over the hill past E. L. Kinnaman's ranch to Wm. Patrick's, where they finally succeeded in getting safely over.

Mr. Blalock is enjoying a visit from his brother and wife of Seattle, Wash.

Mr. Norman Dye and wife, of Wolfe Creek, came up to the river Monday with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Kinnaman, but the locks of old Nestucca did not meet their approval and they would not attempt to cross.

Several of our citizens attended the meeting of the Blaine bark peelers last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Chopard and son spent Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lucas.

C. A. Smith and family entertained G. W. Lucas and wife, and H. A. Chopard, wife and son, on Sunday last.
