

Elmore to Handle Tillamook Travel.

ASTORIA, Or., April 30.—In spite of the reports to the contrary, it is practically certain that the owners of the steamer George B. Vosburg have sold their interest in the Tillamook passenger and freight traffic to the owner of the steamer Sue H. Elmore.

The owners also said that the Vosburg will be engaged exclusively in towing logs from Tillamook and Nehalem to Astoria.

Loll's License Suspended.

Inspectors Edward and Fuller on Friday announced their decision in the matter of the Vosburg-Elmore collision. They suspended for 30 days the license of Captain Ernest Loll, of the Vosburg, charging him with carelessness and unskillfulness in the management of his vessel.

The Geo. R. Vosburg and the Sue H. Elmore collided on Tillamook Slough on the afternoon of April 12. Both steamers were crossing out headed for Astoria. The Vosburg suffered most in the collision, having her stern masted in and being otherwise damaged to the total extent of about $500.

The Vosburg was taken to Portland for repairs, which have just been completed at Supple's boatyard.

Council Meeting.

Council met in regular session Monday night. C. E. Reynolds called the meeting to order, and the following Councilmen were present: W. O. Chase, Goran Munson and A. T. White.

The following business was transacted, minutes of the previous meeting read and approved; bills allowed: Thos. Coates, salary as recorder, $15.00; Clyde Clements, salary as marshal, $45.00; Tillamook Lumber Co., lights, $27.00; Tillamook water Co., $30.00; C. I. Clough, stationary, $37.00; R. L. Wade, lamps, $1.15; Carl Haberlach, attorney, $8.33; Eli Olds, gravel, $4.00.

Councilman Chase brought up the matter of lights for the 1st ward, which matter went into general discussion in regard to lights for several places where they are badly needed about the city. After consideration, it was ordered that eleven lights be installed about as follows, and under the direction of the marshal:

Two lights in the 1st ward; two on the water front at the wharf; two on Stillwell avenue; one in Thayer's addition; one near Academy grounds; one near T. B. Handley's; one near A. T. White's and one near G. B. Alley's.

BOULDER CREEK.

J. S. Myers and H. A. Chopard were down at Bisby's general merchandise "emporium," the first of the week.

Mr. L. Jensen, of Hebe, was up at his son's, H. L. Jensen, on Monday.

Elder R. Y. Blalock preached to a large and appreciative audience at Brown school-house, Sunday, May 1st, at 11 A.M., taking as his subject the third chapter of Paul's Epistle to Titus.

Mr. and Mrs. David Plumm, of Beaver, visited the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Lucas, a few days last week.

A nine pound baby girl arrived at the home of W. D. Gladwell, Friday, April 28, mother and little one doing nicely. Mr. Gladwell is to be congratulated; he is now the proud papa of five as fine little daughter, as one could wish to see, but oh, my! when a few years have rolled by and they begin to make demands on pater's purse, for ribbons and laces, fine dresses, hats, gloves, etc., Mr. Gladwell will be apt to wish that part of them were boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Kinnaman attended church at Beaver, last Sunday.

C. A. Smith and family visited at Mr. Blalock's last Sunday. Mrs. Rosa Borha with Mrs. Grace Chopard and J. S. Myers and family at H. L. Jensen's.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hughey, of Fairview, were out to their ranch Saturday.

R. Y. Blalock and family went to Beaver one day last week.

A bear killed two goats for Maurice Bays last week.

H. L. Jensen was a city visitor last Friday.

Some famous hunters went out after bear the other day. Being disappointed after a long search for bruin, and finding only his tracks, and being determined to get some kind of game, they shot the tracks and returned home victorious.

Sunday school at Brown school house every Sunday at 10 a.m. C. A. Smith, superintendent; R. Y. Blalock, assistant; Miss Ethel Ray, secretary. Every one come and bring your friends along.

John Borha went on his ranch, Monday, to begin slashing and cleaning up.

ON THREE SIDES.

Japanese Had Russians Well Cornered.

TOKIO, May 3.—As the details of Sunday's battle and the Japanese victory at arms, and maneuvers preceding, come to hand it is plain that the plans of the Japanese general staff were followed to the minutest detail. The main attack was made by the Japanese right wing, which consisted of the Twelfth division. It crossed the Yulu 13 miles above Wiju at the same point where the passage of the river was negotiated by the Japanese army of invasion in 1894.

The Guard's Division, constituting the center, and the Second Division, forming the left wing, crossed respectively to the islands above and below Wiju. These were feigned advances, designed to cover the main movement, and were to be continued in the event of the success of the contemplated advance. Opposite Sakuchin lies Hushan Island, in the center of which is an eminence called Tiger's Hill, which commands both sides of the river, the Twelfth Division, having effected lodgment on this island on April 29, drove the enemy from the banks, and crossed the main channel of the river the next day. Meanwhile, the Guards and the Second Division also crossed, their lines extending nearly to Antung, with the reserves in the center on the main road.

Thus, at dawn of May 1, the army had a front of 20 miles, with the left near Antung and the right opposite Mako. When the advance was ordered, the Twelfth Division, wading the river with water waist-deep, rushing the enemy's entrenchments, ultimately swinging around towards Chin Tien Cheng, while the Guards and the Second Division converged near the same point. Thereupon the Russians retired before the fierce Japanese attack, which was directed from the three points.

LONDON, May 2.—A dispatch of the Central News from Seoul says that after the Japanese charge which resulted in the occupation of the Russian lines at Chi Cheng, the Russians fell back in confusion. The Japanese, the dispatch continued, have now secured a firm hold on the Manchurian side of the Yalu.

Anti-Protestantism.

There are but two men recognized before the God of Abraham, one the Jew by circumcision, under law, and the other the Gentile by repentance, under grace. Protestantism is of men and has no claim on God. There is no such thing as a Protestant salvation. Protestantism does not imply any standard of faith or virtue. Protestantism is nothingness. Daniel v., 27. Thou art weighed in the balance and found wanting. Protestantism has been the prevailing religion of our nation and it belongs the credit or debit of our faith and virtue. If you send a boy to school and he comes out a bright and intellectual fellow you praise the school, but if he is stupid and ignorant you condemn the school. The faith and virtue of a nation reflect on its religion. There is such a thing as a pessimist who rides a hobby to death, then there is such a thing as telling the God's truth. It is useless to try to apply a remedy until we can locate the disease. Faith and virtue have always went hand in hand. To destroy one demoralizes the other. Whenev'er men have lost faith in God's providence, they have resorted to wasting their virtue, and when they have wasted their virtue, they have lost faith in God.

If you go south you will be impressed by an ill begotten race—either white or black, a more deplorable condition would be hard to find, children 15-16 white, raised in ignorance and poverty, with the devil only knows who is its father, who would hold up clean hands and declare himself a Protestant from away back. Then go into our large cities and see the number of fallen women, numbered by the hundreds of thousands with no hope either in this world or in the one to come, mere beasts for the destruction of the virtue of the man who claims a royal Protestantism. Now read Sinclair's Crowning Sin of the Age, and judge the sanctity of the Protestant home. Last, but not least, go into our asylums for the insane and see what befalls men for wasting their virtue like a monkey, who have been raised in the Protestant Sunday-school and church, who have never heard that God holds men accountable for their virtue. Prevention was the principle of Judaism, every man was circumcised. God's promise was to Abraham and his seed, and the law instructed how to perpetuate and develop the ablest type of men. Cure is the principle now. Christ is the great physician, his terms are repentance, there is no excuse for a fallen countenance or guilty conscience. Hell is too good for a man who shirks his accountability through a pretense of protestantism, or by belonging to a church that is just as rotten as he is.—J. C. GOVE.
