 Articles, incorporating the Wilson River Logging Company, were filed in the county clerk's office on Friday, with C. B. Hadley, C. E. Hadley and J. S.
 Stephens incorporators. The company is capitalized for $2,000 divided into 20 shares at $100 each. Should the company get the contract to furnish the saw mills with logs, it will log on the Hadley property on the Wilson river near Walt Smith's.
 Fire completely destroyed the new house, which was partly finished, and most of the furniture, belonging to John F. Reher, at the Wilson House on the Forest Grove road, on Wednesday evening. The fire originated in a flue, and before very much of the furniture could be removed the house was in flames.
 An organ and some bed clothes were saved. There is insurance of $500. Mr.
 Reher was away from home when the fire started, but returned in time to see the last of it and his wife and family without a home.
 This (Thursday) evening and to-morrow (Friday) evening, there will be given by the Edison Moving Picture and Illustrated Song Company one of the best entertainments in that line that has ever come to this city. On previous occasions this company has been in Tillamook and has pleased the public with its latest productions. New pictures are a feature on this occasion, the great train robbery and Chicago's appalling catastrophe are amongst them. Good songs are sung by Albert A. Richmond. Do not miss this opportunity of seeing something new at the opera house.

IS NOT A TURN-COAT!

Has been a Straight Republican for 38 Years.
 Beaver, Ore., May 18, 1904.
 Dear sir:—Will you allow me to say this through the columns of the Headlight: I am informed by responsible parties that the story is being circulated in the county that I am a Prohibitionist. That the story is being told for political effect. I wish to say is an unqualified lie. I have been a republican for 38 years, having cast my first vote for Grant and have never been a political turn-coat for the sake of office or notoriety.
 Respectfully yours,
 W. T. West.

Attention!

The pupils of St. Alphonsus Academy are rehearsing for a fine musical and literary entertainment, to be given at the academy hall on June 16th.
 Scenes from Shakespeare's grand comedy, "The Taming of the Shrew," will be rendered; new drills and tableaux from numbers of the varied program.
 Choice selections on the various instruments will be played by the best musical talent of Tillamook.
 Do not fail to attend, and by your presence give the pupils the encouragement they well merit.
 The net proceeds go toward defraying expenses of having the building repaired and painted.

Obituary Notice.

Edith Mills, the subject of this sketch, was born near Patten's Mills, Washington Co., Ohio, September 7, 1841, and departed this life, May 15, 1904, aged 62 years, 8mo. and 8 days.
 She was the daughter of Eli and Lydia Mills, early pioneers of Ohio.
 At an early age in life she united with the M. E. Church, remaining a member of that church until after her marriage to Noah Coulson on the 31st day of May, 1860, after which she, with her husband, united with the Protestant Methodist at Stockport, Morgan Co., Ohio, being one of the charter members at that place.
 In June, 1866 she removed with her husband to Beaver, Ore., where she has since made her home.
 In the year of 1896 she united with the U. B. Church at that place, remaining with that church until about the year 1899, when she withdrew from that church by letter and united with the Free Methodists, where she remained a faithful and consistent member until called up higher.
 During her illness, which was of about three weeks duration, her suffering was for the most of the time great, but she bore it with much fortitude and grace. On the morning previous to her death she prayed the Lord to give her strength to talk to her children, and she said everything was all right, that the Lord was with her.
 She passed peacefully away, and almost her last words were "praise the Lord." In Mother Coulson's death the husband loses a devoted companion, the children a kind, loving mother, and the community a kind christian, a neighbor always ready to lend a helping hand wherever needed.
 The funeral service was held at the United Brethern Church at Beaver, on the 16th inst. at three o'clock. A very large attendance was present.
 Rev. L. F. Smith officiating.

Something New.

The Edison moving picture and illustrated song company will entertain at the Opera House on Thursday and Friday evenings. No more flickering on the canvas, new machine new lenses latest songs of the day illustrated and sung by Albert A. Richmond.
 A scene of "The Great Train Robbery" the greatest and most expensive moving picture ever made, the master film of this scene alone cost the Edison company $50,000. This picture alone is worth the admission of 15 and 25 cents dont forget the dates Thursday and Friday nights this week. Over 50,000 pictures in one evening, a panorama of amusements. Thursday and Friday nights at the Opera House.

Notice.

The bird law of Oregon (signed by the Governor, February 24, 1903) protects at all times gulls, terns, song, weed-seed eating, insectivorous, and all other wild non-game birds, also their nests and eggs.

Penalty upon conviction, a fine of not less than five dollars or not more than one hundred dollars, and on default of the payment of the fine imposed, imprisonment at the rate of one dollar for each day of the fine imposed.

Exceptions: Birds not protected, English sparrows, horned owls, hawks, crows, blue jays, butcher birds and magpies.

Game birds can only be killed during the open season established by law.

Under the federal law a fine not exceeding $200 is also provided:

1—For the delivery of any birds killed in violation of the laws of Oregon to any express, railroad or steamboat company, or to any other common carrier, for shipment out of the State.

2—For the transportation of such birds by any common carrier out of the State.

3—For shipment out of the State of any package containing game, birds, or plumage, which does not bear the shipper's name and address, and a statement of the nature of the contents.

Railroad and Express agents are cautioned against forwarding any package of birds which is improperly marked or supposed to contain birds killed contrary to law.

Audubon Society, A. W. Anthony, President. Fish and Game Association, A. E. Gebhardt, Secretary.
 Portland, Ore.

J. W. Baker, Game and Forestry Warden, Cottage Grove.

The public is requested to report violations of the Game Law to either of the above Societies or to the Chief Warden.

NETARTS.

Miss Grace Spaulding and Miss Ruth Easter came over from Tillamook Sunday evening.

Frank Kutecher went to the city Saturday, returning the same day.

Marvin Cone is working for C. B.
 Wiley on the Sand spit.

Uncle George Randall of Fairview, came over to camp on the beach for a few days.

Ralph Ackley and wife were visiting with Mrs. Ackley's parents Sunday and Monday.

Two gentlemen, a Mr. Casey and a friend of his, arrived at Netarts Friday from San Francisco where they are in business. They walked over from Sheridan and spent one night on the bay and left for Cape Meares Light house, thence to Garibaldi and Tillamook, whence they will leave for their home in San Francisco. They were looking at the country and expect to return later.

NEHALEM.

While on his way from home to the Postoffice last Thursday morning, Fred Heims was accidentally drowned in the river near Ed Branesuther's place. No one knows how the accident happened, as he was alone. The body was found at low tide the same day.
 The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. W. Smith, of the M. E. Church, Saturday. Interment was in the F.
 U. of A. cemetery. Fred Heims was a native of Switzerland, forty seven years of age, was a member of the M.
 E. Church and had lived in Nehalem about fifteen years.

The schooner Gerald C. was in Wednesday, bringing freight for our merchants and supplies for the cheese factory.

The two bills, local option and direct primary nominating election laws, to be voted upon in June, in my opinion, is in keeping with the twentieth century progress and should be supported by every voter in the state.

What became of the Headlight for April 29th? It failed to show up.

The Vosburg came in Monday. She will take out a raft of logs when she goes.

Joe Duncan fell in the river at Boyakin's landing Sunday evening and would have drowned had it not been for the timely help of his wife and Mr.
 Boyakin. He had spent the day in lower town.

The Sandhill people are bringing their milk to the cheese factory, thanks to our energetic road supervisor. Let the good work go on.

Rev. W. J. Rohmer went to Portland Tuesday.

BEAVER.

Wilson river friends were calling on Mrs. Kirk and Mrs. Shortlidge the first of the week.

Rev. Rhoads has been holding meetings here.

Rev. Smith and wife are helping take care of Mr. Phillips of Pleasant Valley, who is low with consumption.

Sunday morning we received the sad news of the death of Mrs. Coulson, sr.
 The funeral was largely attended today.

Birdie Coulson, of Beaver, is very sick, but is slowly improving. Mrs.
 Ginn is also on the sick list.

Mr. Hyatt and family visited their daughter at Little Nestucca Sunday and returned Tuesday.
