Editorial Snap Shots.

"No attorney of any repute would attack the local option law," said an attorney the other day in this city. But—

W. N. Vaughn isn't stuck very much upon "Golden Cheddar" when he could not get the Golden Coin for his Golden Fluid.

It is strange how men will allow their little personal jealousies to control them in a city election. That should not cut much figure when there is a principle involved.

The Headlight man don't care one iota as to the personnel of the city council if it will enforce the law and put a stop to the rottenness and bribery that have been going on for years.

The saloons were closed up tight on Sunday. Probably they had better remain so unless the proprietors want a complaint filed against them for every Sunday they remain open when the grand jury is called again.

J. S. Dellinger assumed the management of the Astorian last week, with C. J. Curtis and Mr. Merrill, of Portland, on the editorial staff. Heaven pity their financial troubles if they haven't got Mr. Sam Elmore's bank behind them.

Fred Bens can be proud of this fact. He had the support of the best class of citizens, and it is more honor to go down to defeat with that at one's back than to victory with the support of gamblers, saloon keepers and their henchmen.

The architects and builders who came in to bid on a new court house saw the county court obtained a $1,000 worth of information at the expense of a lot of suckers. If that is the case, we must have a pretty smart county court, for it used to be that Tillamookers were the suckers when outsiders came in to canvass the county.

M. F. Lench allowed someone to get away with his better judgment. When he absorbed the other meat market, he told us that he was going to "cut out" politics and attend to business and try to please his customers. It would have been business sagacity had he done so, seeing he has a nice little monopoly in the meat business.

Attorney H. T. Botts must be somewhat of a favorite in the saloon ward when he can run almost neck and neck with a saloon candidate. He is evidently usurping Dad Hadley out of his political power in the second ward, which he is unable to hold. We suppose we'll have to take our hat off to Boss Botts, but we can't see how Boss Botts's clothes and methods are going to fit him unless he gets a few of Dad's political pups to fill them out.

The Headlight man thought, sure, that he would give up the ghost when he saw the saloon candidates falling all over themselves to get into the enforcement of the law band wagon, for we never expected to gain such an easy victory over them in that way. Now we've got them in the band wagon, where they should belong, why, we hope they'll take all the wind out of the Headlight's sails and won't give us another opportunity to roar about a wide open gambling town. But, are they sincere? Time will tell.

There was some good horse sense remarks at the opera house Monday evening if it was a burlesque. For instance, one of the dignified sisters made a statement something like this: "Give a woman $5.00 to do some trading and see the load she will bring home. Give a man $5.00 and send him down town and see the load he'll bring home!" We hope our dear sisters haven't seen their lords of creation loaded up after going to the city. No wonder the fair sex is in favor of local option.

The attorneys who are digging up all manner of silly technicalities for the purpose of defeating the local option law might object that on the day of election the moon changed its position and did not look the same color as Golden Cheddar cheese after the sun made its appearance the next morning in the East. It is to be hoped that neither Judge Burnett nor Judge Gallo way will allow a temporary injunction upon such trivial technicalities, for they are simply made to give the saloon keepers a new lease of life and to defeat the will of the people.

The fight for decency and the enforcement of the law may only be said to have just commenced in Tillamook City. No one need be surprised, for most every town undergoes the experience of a spring cleaning as a result of the rottenness in city politics. Nor need any surprise be felt that the women of Tillamook City are going to take an active part, for by doing so they know they are safeguarding their homes and families from the vices which are allowed to be carried on in a city where politics are "rotten." It is not our intention to divulge at present all that we have heard as the result of "wide open" gambling, for the weave of guilt is being woven around the guilty parties which may send them to the penitentiary. But it will require patience and perseverance on the part of the people of Tillamook City to overcome the fierce opposition there is to law and order, and this in the interest of those who want to run gambling joints.

City Council Meeting.

A meeting of the city council was held on Tuesday evening and it was decided to sell the site where the city hall recently stood to Cohn & Co. and A. K. Case for $210. The conditions of the sale are that Case is to apply that amount, with $50 additional that the hose company is to donate, in erecting a new steel bell tower for a fire alarm. Bills allowed were:

L. J. Barnard, sawing wood	$1 00
Emmett Quick, marshal	45 00
William R. Chase, salary for the month of November	500 00
W. A. Bibby, laying side walk	9 40
R. L. Wade	10 30
Thos Conates, salary	15 45
Printing	10 95
Tillamook Water Co.	29 00

Otto Heins	2 00
C. N. Drew	2 00
Julius Erickson, wood	4 10

Entertainment.

On Monday evening the ladies of the Eastern Star had a full house at the opera house for their entertainment. The feature of the evening was a burlesque, entitled "Female Masonry," and it caused considerable amusement, for the sisters poured "hot shot" into the lords of creation that brought forth loud applause. The burlesque was well carried out, and the sisters deserve credit for the manner in which they carried out their parts. The entertainment was a success. Following was the program:

Piano Solo.....Ruth Cooper.
Duet....."Only Three."
E. May Jones and Winifred Goyne.
Song, "We Don't Get Any Christmas Now."
Melva Wade, Allegra Mason, Ruth Eddy, Alice Todd, Gladys Quick.
Duet....."The Palms."
Kathryn Edwards and Clara Watt.
Quartet....."The Cuckoo."
E. May Jones, Winifred Goyne, Marie Tinnerstet, Kathryn Edwards.
Burlesque, "Female Masonry."
Umbrella song.

NOTICE.

Hallo, my old customers. I have just completed a trip to the Atlantic Coast publicly and lecturing about lands, saw mills, business opportunities, climate, etc. Did my very best to bring this county to a special notice to all prospective emigrants and they are coming, and take care and be sure you wish to sell any part of your holdings to have it listed for sale with C. Mills, office and residence at present in the Wm. Olson's residence. Letters of inquiry are constantly pouring in, telling me they are coming to Tillamook, where I insure them to show a parsnip 3ft. and 4 inches long, other root crops in proportion. I've got 'em. Nuff said.

C. Mills.

BOULDER CREEK.

W. N. Bays and R. M. Dingess went to Tillamook last Saturday on a business trip.

Several young people from this neighborhood attended the Endeavor at Blaine Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Kinnamen and Miss Zella Blackburn visited friends down the river Saturday and Sunday.

C. A. Smith went to Beaver one day last week.

Carl and Leslie Jensen spent Saturday and Sunday at Grandpa Bays.

Miss Blackburn and her school are planning an entertainment and Christmas tree the last day of school.

Jno. Borba, who has been under the doctor's care at Tillamook for nearly two weeks, was able to come home last Sunday.

Mr. Donald H. McIntyre and Mr. Ralph Bundy were promenading Boulder creek streets Sunday p.m.

H. A. Chopard is again logging. These frosty mornings are fine for the business.

G. W. Lucas came over the river last Friday to Mr. Gladwill's.

H. A. Chopard and family spent Sunday afternoon at H. L. Jensen's.

We learn that Mr. Charles Bays will occupy his nephew's house this winter.

W. D. Gladwill is hauling lumber for G. W. Lucas today (Monday).

WHAT HE DOES.

Rosy and smiling and dirty and tanned, Gazing up from his pile of sand—
"Tell me, my little man, I say,
How do you pass your time away?"
And gravely answers the dusty mite:
"I plays all day and I sleeps all night."
—Sydney Dayre.

TWO VIEWS.

Now Mabel counts her presents o'er,
And then she drops a silent tear,
And thinks it really is a shame
That Christmas comes but once a year.
But papa, meanwhile, grinds his teeth,
And pays the bills with inward tear,
And offers up his fervent thanks,
That Christmas comes but once a year.
—McLanburgh Wilson.

THAT WAS CLEAR.

"What this country needs is an elastic currency," declared Fosdick.
"That's what," assented Kiedick,
"I'd like to see a five dollar bill that would stretch, so as to cover about twenty Christmas presents."
—Hearthstone.

SOUTH PRAIRIE.

Jack frost visited on the Prairie the past few mornings.

John Maroff has moved into his new residence, which is an ornament to the Prairie.

George Johnson, of Tillamook, has taken the foremanship of the logging camp.

Frank Blazier, of Portland, brother of Joseph Blazier, has taken charge of Mr. Maroff's dairy ranch.

Charles Wells and family returned from Cottage Grove last week, being glad to see old Tillamook again.

Our school is progressing nicely under the instruction of Miss High.

BEAVER.

Mr. Coulson, sr., has bought a home in the suburbs of Tillamook City and has moved there.

Mrs. D. Coulson has moved from the Free Methodist parsonage to the U.B. parsonage, vacated by Mr. Coulson, sr.

Master Ellert Ginn is convalescent.

Mrs. W. T. West is on the sick list, though we hope not serious.

Mr. Lucas and Mr. Coulson, jr., are taking advantage of the fine weather by hauling goods from the city to the Bixby store.

Rumor says Beaver will have a Christmas tree held in the U.B. Church Christmas eve.

E. Gilbert and wife visited Mr. Will Gilbert and family, of Spruce, last Sunday.

The Beaver correspondent was the recipient of an invitation to and offer of a free ride to a wedding anniversary last Saturday, it being the 41st year of wedded life of Mr. and Mrs. Kinnaman. We wish them both many more happy returns.

NETARTS.

W. E. Catterlin went to the Miami for a load of his household goods Saturday, returning Sunday.

Ralph Ackley came over from Tillamook Saturday, returning Monday.

I. M. Morgan came in from Sheridan the last of the week, he had been out to Sheridan to spend a week with his family.

C. Austin went to Tillamook Saturday. Clyde Stanley, of Tillamook, was on the bay last Thursday taking in the sights.

M. J. Cone lost a valuable horse last Sunday.

FAIRVIEW.

Mr. Gus Kuntz has gone to Portland on business.

Mrs. Pinwell is home to stay.

A surprise party on Mrs. and Mr. Bolby at the Fairview creamery was a success. About 35 were present. Mr. Bolby cleared out one of the upstairs cheese rooms and dancing was the order of the evening. A good old fashioned lunch was served. All had a good time.

A pleasant time was spent at Fairview schoolhouse Saturday evening. A program was rendered by the pupils and several of the grown people. The "Pop Corn song" by the pupils was good. There was singing, dialogues, declamations and instrumental music. Mr. and Mrs. Buel are teaching a good school and getting every body, as well as the pupils, interested. In two weeks from last Saturday night another program will be given.

Next Saturday is "Grange day." Grange meets at 10 o'clock, a good program is being prepared by Mrs. Gibson Myrtle Vaughn, Ralph Moor, Henry Diehl and Ed Fishpocker. Who said turkey?

Card of Thanks.

Mrs. Ed Walker desires us to thank the many kind friends who sympathized with her in her late bereavement and who so kindly assisted her when her husband was sick.

For sale, or lease, a deposit of Shale, thought to be an excellent variety for the manufacture of a high grade brick.—Fred C. Skomp, Trask, Or.

Sewing machines for everybody. I have a fine lot of second hand machines, all in first class order, which I will sell cheap for cash, or will trade for other property.—W. E. Page.
