

When Looking for Bargains in Christmas Games and Toys, Call on RALPH ACKLEY.

I am going out of the Christmas Toy Business and will offer bargains that cannot be found elsewhere. Truly, RALPH.

TILLAMOOK JOTTINGS.

H. T. Botts, for abstracts. Buy your clothing at Todd's. Bibles of all kinds at Clough's. A fine line of Trunks at Todd's. Dr. Phelps will leave on the steamer. Gordon Hats—the best made—Todd's. Suit cases from $1.50 to $10.00 at Todd's. Crouse & Brandegee Clothing at Todd's. The city cows must be kept up after today. L. McFee was down from Nehalem on Friday. P. Kebbe, of Nehalem, was in the city on Tuesday. Born, on Friday, to the wife of Ralph Ackley, a son. Mayfield Woolen Mill, All wool Clothing at Todd's. Tillamook is having another siege of stormy weather. Have you tried Leach's pure lard? Do so. It is genuine. Everybody will attend the band boys' concert on Saturday. Celluloid Cases and Albums at almost any price at Clough's. Clough has a full line of Red Letter Bibles at reasonable prices. W. B. Smith, the political hermit of Nehalem, was in the city last week. Fure lard, guaranteed, at Leach's Meat Market. 5lb. can, 75c. 10lb., $1.35. Foreign and Domestic Perfumery in almost any odor you want at Clough's. Mrs. Goodman came down from her homestead on the Wilson river last week. Step into Clough's and look over his line of Books. You won't have to buy one. Perhaps he smokes? If so, Clough has cigars that will suit in boxes 12 to 100 each. Clough has a large line of the standard poets in different styles of leather binding. The passengers who are going out on the steamer will leave for Garibaldi this afternoon. The Season's Craze.—Sherlock Holmes, Wiggins, Trix, Plinch, Pit, etc., at Sturgeon's Drug Store. A look through Clough's collection of late books might help you to find a suitable present. Will and Clara Goeres came up from Neskonowin on Tuesday, the latter to attend the Academy. Fred Murphy will leave for Southern Oregon soon, going to Douglass county on a prospecting trip. If you buy a Waterman Fountain Pen, Clough guarantees it to give satisfaction or give your money back. Mr. and Mrs. C. McKillip left on Thursday for Lafayette to attend a reunion of Mrs. McKillip's family. Perfume atomizers makes a refined gift for any lady. Clough's line this year is larger and cheaper than ever. Clough has the largest and best assortment of pipes in the county, over 500 different styles to select from. Lost, between the Allen house and the Academy, a pair of glasses. Finder will please leave them at the Headlight office. Do not forget the entertainment at St. Alphonsus Academy this (Thursday) evening, when you can see the "Country Kid." A subscription was taken up to purchase a cow for Mrs. Spaulding, as she is in poor circumstances and as her cow had died. The steamer Sue H. Elmore left here on Saturday afternoon, and owing to the rough weather remains bar bound at Garibaldi.

The ladies of the Christian Church gave a bazaar on Thursday and Friday evenings at the opera house, which was well attended. C. E. Hadley and W. J. Stephens have found a new location and will leave this county and start into business at Bend, Crook county. E. D. Severance, who was deputy county clerk under Homer Mason, is now the Worshipful Mayor of Haines, Ore., obtaining every vote cast. Rev. J. N. Murphy, of Missouri, came on Wednesday and will preach at the Christian church on Sunday and will hold meetings in the county. When you want pure lard go to Leach's Meat Market. The genuine article 5lbs., 75c. 10 lbs., $1.35. Prime meat can always be obtained at Leach's. George Johnson, who is now foreman of the logging camp, has straightened out things at the logging camp so that logging can be carried on successfully. Mr. J. C. Mayo, general passenger and freight agent of the Astoria & Columbia Railroad, was in the city this week looking after the interest of his company. Tillamook Lumber Company will sell Rough Fir Lumber sawed to order for $7.00 per thousand in one thousand lots and up. Spruce at $6.00 at the same rate. Petitions are being circulated for the re-appointment of A. W. Severance for postmaster of Tillamook City. Arthur Stillwell is also an aspirant and is circulating a petition. Mrs. W. J. Stephens will leave on the steamer to join her husband at Bend, Ore. C. E. Hadley and wife will also leave on the boat for the same place, where they will locate. The band boys will give a vocal and instrumental concert at the opera house next Saturday evening, which, we hope, will be largely attended, for the boys are deserving of support. G. C. Vaughn had some experience last week with a wood saw. He almost lost the thumb on one hand and several fingers on the other hand, which he will have to nurse for some time. The Oregon Dairyman's Association will meet in Portland on December 20th and 21st, and Mr. P. McIntosh is on the program with a paper entitled, "Nine Years of Growth of the Tillamook Cheese Industry." Henry Crenshaw started on Monday to fix the telephone line going South, and as it was inclement weather, probably he would prefer having a telephone line to look after at Ashland than in Tillamook at this season of the year. A very pretty and quiet wedding occurred at the U. B. parsonage on Wednesday afternoon when Miss Alice Nelson became Mrs. James Kodad. Only a few of the friends of the bride and groom were present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. N. S. Hankins. They will be at home to their friends at their residence three miles north of Tillamook after the 20th of December. Nathaniel Jones writes: "Being I have been a reader of your paper for years, I am now in George Town, El Dorado Co., Cal., and would like for you to send me your paper, that is the Headlight. I have been here for five weeks and we are having lovely weather. It has only rained one little shower since I have been here. This is a great country. All the go here is the gold mines, and it is a very interesting country to be in. I like it first rate. This is the place you can see the gold mined out by the bushel, and it looks very nice to see it come out of the mines in chunks." Mr. Jones then goes on to say that he wants the editor to sell his place, which is in the south part of this county and leased to Harrison Booth. Anyone wanting to buy it can get it at reasonable figures.
