

THE GHOST OF GOWER

Deathbed Confession Reveals Perpetrator of Weird Jokes.

How the Missouri Town Was Terrified by the Pranks of a Mischievous Resident for a Number of Years.

When Thomas P. Ogden died a few days ago the ghosts at Gower, Mo., ceased terrifying the residents of that town. Ogden, on his deathbed, confessed that he had been the "ghosts" about Gower.

In the lively stable in Gower were box stalls for the horses. Posts were set in the ground between the stalls and planked up on each side.

There lived in the neighborhood a man who boasted that he was not afraid of "ghost or devil," and he was employed to locate the cause of the groans.

Ogden threw a white blanket down on the man at work in the stall, and he leaped out of the hole with a frightened yell, running toward the door with the blanket clinging to him.

On a hill near Gower stands an old mansion built in the style that planters affected before the war. It had been vacant a number of years when Ogden conceived the idea of giving it the reputation of being haunted.

Ogden contrived a network of wires in the cemetery near Gower, to which he attached balls of cotton soaked in kerosene. This unprecedented honor has been accorded to the city of Bonn and to the Borussia student corps.

When he realized that he was on his deathbed Ogden called in a number of his friends and made a confession. He expressed deep sorrow for having caused the death of a young man who ran against a tree in his fright.

BRINGS RARE CURIOS

Army Officer Must Pay Duty on His Treasures.

Lieut. Schoeffel Meets with Difficulty on Reaching San Francisco with Chinese Imperial Seals and Jade Tablets.

Five Chinese imperial seals and 12 jade tablets from the temple at Peking, which were brought home by Lieut. John B. Schoeffel, of the Ninth infantry, were seized at the transport dock at San Francisco by the customs officers the other day.

The imperial seals weigh about six pounds, are of rectangular shape, about six inches square and three inches in height. Carved dragons in crouching attitudes surmount the block, serving as handles. Chinese characters are carved in relief on the base of the seals, and a yellow tassel is knotted on one of them.

By virtue of an execution issued out of and under the seal of the above entitled court in the above entitled cause, to me directed, dated the 12th day of August, 1905, upon a judgment rendered in said court on the 14th day of November, 1904, in favor of said plaintiff and against said defendants and each of them, for the sum of $45.47, and the further sum of $25.00 attorneys' fee, and for the sum of $10.00 costs and disbursements, with interest on said sum of $45.47 from December 31, 1903, at the rate of six per cent. per annum, I did, on the 12th day of August, 1905, levy upon the following described real property situated in Tillamook County, Oregon, to-wit: The N.E. 1/4 of the N.E. 1/4 of sec. 27, in Tp. 1 South, of Range 10 West, W.M. and in pursuance of said judgment and execution I will, on Thursday the 28th day of September, 1905, at 10 o'clock a.m., at the Court House door in Tillamook City, in said County and State, sell the above described real property at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, to satisfy said judgment, execution, interest, costs and accrued costs.

At the kommers of the Borussia student corps, which was held at Bonn, Emperor William, who was present referred in a speech to the empress of Germany, who witnessed the kommers from the gallery of the building. Alluding to the presence of his wife, the emperor said:

"The chroniclers record that when our forefathers met in tournaments it was perfectly natural that a circle of illustrious ladies should witness their deeds, and with pride the victor received the wreath presented by a lovely hand. It was thus also at Wartburg, when they seized the harp and lyre and sang in competition.

"Never before, so long as the history of German universities has been written, has any university received such an honor as is conferred to-day upon that of Bonn. In company with the beauty of Bonn and surrounded by ladies of princely rank, her majesty, the empress, the first princess of the land, has appeared at a students' kommers. This unprecedented honor has been accorded to the city of Bonn and to the Borussia student corps. I hope and expect that all the young members of the Borussia corps upon whom the eye of the empress has rested to-day have received an inspiration for the rest of their lives. I call for a strong salamander for her majesty; hurrah!"

PLANS CONSUMPTION TEST.

Dr. Garnault, the Paris Physician Who Inoculated Himself with Virus, is Disappointed.

Dr. Garnault, the Paris physician who has inoculated himself with matter taken from a consumptive cow, in order to disprove Prof. Koch's theory that it is impossible for human beings to catch tuberculosis from cattle, is ready for a new experiment.

He does not propose that Dr. Theobald Smith, professor of comparative pathology at the medical school at Harvard university, shall treat him during the present experiment if tuberculosis declares itself. Should the experiment fail, however, then Dr. Garnault will place himself in communication with Dr. Smith and Prof. Baumgarten, of Tubingen, who, he says, "if they do not follow Koch completely, yet express doubts which impose on them grave obligations.

"I do not ask Dr. Smith or Prof. Baumgarten to imitate me," continues Dr. Garnault, "but if the experiment fails I ask them to assure, in concert with me, a new, decisive experiment, to be practiced on myself."

Dr. Garnault also says that he chooses Dr. Smith and Prof. Baumgarten because he is convinced of their scientific good faith, which he questions in Prof. Koch. The French physician is willing to go to Boston if necessary for the experiment.

Young Teddy Roosevelt has received a prize at Groton for punctuality. There is nothing more worthy of a prize than that same punctuality, says the Chicago Record-Herald, as any man who has ever agreed to meet his wife at a given time and place will admit.

Now that the American woman who can afford to go to the seashore and the mountains are in transit, each with from two to a dozen trunks, says the Chicago Record-Herald, the baggage smasher is naturally in a cheerful mood.
