Roasting for the Editor and Judge.

TO THE EDITOR TILLAMOOK HEADLIGHT.

BROTHER BAKER,—I noticed in your editorials of Nov. 9th the question: "Has the Oretown Grange returned into a political organization?"

I will quote you from the quarterly Grange Bulletin, the following:

"We emphatically and sincerely assert the oft repeated truth taught in our organic law that the Grange—national, state or subordinate—is not a political or party organization. No Grange, if true to its obligations, can discuss partisan or sectarian questions, nor call political conventions, nor nominate candidates, nor even discuss their merits in its meetings. Yet the principles we teach underlie all true politics, all true statesmanship, and, if properly carried out, will tend to purify the whole political atmosphere of our country. For we seek the greatest good to the greatest number. We must always bear in mind that no one, by becoming a Patron of Husbandry, gives up that inalienable right and duty which belongs to every American citizen to take a proper interest in the politics of his country. On the contrary, it is right for every member to do all in his power legitimately to influence for good the action of any political party to put down bribery, corruption and trickery, to see that none but competent, faithful and honest men, who will unflinchingly stand by our interests, are nominated for all positions of trust, and to have carried out the principal which should always characterize every patron, that 'The office should seek the man and not the man the office.' We acknowledge the broad principle that difference of opinion is no crime, and hold that 'progress toward truth is made by difference of opinion,' while 'the truth lies in bitterness of controversy.' We desire a proper equality, equity and fairness; protection for the weak, restraint upon the strong, in short justly distributed burdens and justly distributed power. These are American ideas, the very essence of American independence, and to advocate to the contrary is unworthy of the sons and daughters of the American Republic."

And now as to the County Judge, I will quote from the Headlight of Nov. 9:

"County Judge Conder told the board of commissioners last week that the biggest lot of knockers in the south part of the county were those whose farms were not worth today what they were fifteen years ago, for they had allowed the brush to grow up and were not making the money off their farms—they could if they would only turn in and work."

Truly we are surprised that a county judge should be so degrading as to slur the people in such a manner, who have helped to place him in the high position he now holds and has held. The degrading slur will fall more heavily on him than it does on the people of the south end, whether knockers or not.

We are surprised, Brother Baker, that you, a man that holds your head so high in journalism, should jump upon a newly organized Grange so roughly and so determined to pick flaws. Hope you will in the future give us a fair show and lend us a helping hand. Please assign me space in your paper for the above and oblige.

A. M. COMMONS.

[We fail to see how Brother Baker has

"jumped upon a newly organized Grange so roughly and so determined to pick flaws," by asking a simple question that no one should take offense at. All that Bro. Commons need have replied was "No" to the query, and that would have been satisfactory. We are perfectly aware that if the fundamental principles of the Grange were carried out some of the affairs of the county would not be in the shape they are today, and to express an opinion, we think there ought to be a vigilance committee of taxpayers to get the county out of the mess, some of the past and some of the present officials, have got the county into. That is plain talk and to the point, but we sincerely trust Bro. Commons won't roast us for that. As to Judge Conder, we fail to see wherein he slurred anyone if he can prove that the knockers are those who don't like work and allowed their farms to run down. We are sorry now that we did not mention the names of the parties the judge referred to at the time, for then it would have been a fight between the judge and the knockers, with no room for Bro. Commons to jump in and flay the editor, for we simply gave it as an item of news.—Ed.]

BOULDER CREEK.

Mr. R. Y. Blalock has been getting out timber at O. W. Kinnaman's to finish his barn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Borba visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bays Sunday.

Mr. Frank Dye and Miss Mary Tucker were up at O. W. Kinnaman's the first of the week.

Rev. C. Mills, of Tillamook, preached at Blaine school house last Sunday evening. He informs us of his intention to move back to his ranch at Beaver. Mrs. E. O. Mills accompanied him back to Tillamook.

K. M. Dingess took a trip to the metropolis last week. Mrs. Dingess visited her mother during his absence.

Three "Boulder belles" went out in search of adventure, one moonlight eve last week, and saw a "bona fide" ghost. "In deadly white it upward rose, and stood before them there, and stretched its glist'ry arms across to catch them by the hair.

After many thrilling accidents and hairbreadth escapes they finally reached home, having had enough excitement to satisfy most any one, for one evening at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred O. Foland and children, spent last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Foland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Nicklaus.

Mr. Ralph Moor was called to Tillamook last Wednesday by the death of his grandfather. He returned to his school duties Thursday.

Miss Clara Gray has gone to work for Mrs. Ida Alley, at Balm.

The Grange is preparing a program for Thanksgiving, also pumpkin pie.

We are informed that a doctor will come to Nehalem next week to vaccinate the school children. And still the barbaric customs of the dark ages cling to us.

Mrs. Ketchel, who has been staying with her sister, Mrs. Whitney, left her home at Grewell, Saturday.

SOUTH PRAIRIE.

Fine weather for Tillamook. Isaac Quick and family gave a party last Saturday evening to their many friends and neighbors, which was enjoyed by all, especially the fine refreshments.

Our school is progressing nicely under the instruction of Miss Snelling.

Jack Lattimer and Cliff Hiner, were out last week hunting with Charlie Wells and Ed Leach. Charlie thought they had struck a warm trail the way a large panther does up one of his dogs, while Jack's dog had not yet put in an appearance, supposed to be running yet.

W. B. Powell had one of his horse's feet cut on a barb wire last week.

Fred Christenson is making cheese every third day now.

Mr. Brooks has rented a dairy ranch near Nehalem.

Guy Vaughn is hauling cord wood to Tillamook.

Mrs. Green is visiting her mother, Mrs. Powell, this week.

Butler Eley spent last Sunday visiting Lloyd Powell.

Some of the horses on the prairie have been having the distemper which was caught in Tillamook.

Notice.

This is to give notice, that no hunting or trespassing is allowed on my farm at Sandlake. A. HEMBEER.

Card of Thanks.

Mrs. Margaret Campbell and children desire to express their heartfelt thanks to their neighbors and friends who so kindly helped in the care of their husband and father during his sickness and in laying him away to rest in the grave.

Kunze.

Tillamook county lost a good, upright citizen on Wednesday morning when death suddenly claimed Joseph Whiting as its victim. He was taken with fainting spells in Todd's store on Tuesday evening, when he almost collapsed, but managed to pull through and was feeling a great deal better on Wednesday. He went from Todd's store to his room at the back of Browne's store between ten and eleven o'clock, after which he was heard to groan. When assistance went to him and a doctor summoned he was pronounced dead. Whiting was 62 years of age, and came to his county in 1880 from California. He served in the war of the rebellion and was in receipt of a pension, being a member of the G. A. R. He had no relatives in this county, but has a brother living in Eastern Oregon. The cause of death was heart failure. The remains were buried in the Vaughn's cemetery on Thursday afternoon. The deceased was well liked by most everybody, and his sudden death was a great surprise to his friends.
