City Council Meeting.

A meeting of the city council was held on Monday evening, with Mayor H. T. Botts and Councilmen A. K. Case, J. P. Allen, G. Munson, W. C. King and A. T. White were present. A curlew ordinance was passed to its final reading, compel ling minors to be off the street at eight o'clock in the evening in the winter and nine o'clock in the summer. The question as the legality of some of the members holding their seats again come up, and Councilmen Allen said he was going to stay with his seat and nobody but the S. B. After a friendly discussion a compromise plan was suggested whereby the councilmea who were not qualified should re sign, and when they had qualified the council would appoint them for the ward which they had been elected to serve, so they took the matter under advisement Mayor Botts said he had been speaking with some of the members of the water commission, who said they could uot get along without the $72.50 per month David D. Jones to Nathaniel Jones, Q.C. for water for fire protection, and this would cause the city to get deeper into debt if this was paid. Councilman Allen said that Mr Whitehouse would make a proposition to the council whereby the present number of electric lights would not cost the city more than $28 per month. The assessment of the improvements to 3rd and 8th streets will be made at the next meeting of the council. George Baldwin, Q.C. and wife to Ham.
