Special music will be rendered at this service. In the evening after, the Christian Endeavor service the Christian Church will unite with the United Brethren Church in the revival now in progress there. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these services.

The "Mum" Social to be given Friday evening in Todd's hall by the C.E. of the Christian church, will consist of some numbers from "Mother Goose," "The Funny Page Brigade," and "As seen in Tillamook in a business way." After the program refreshments will be served. The audience will be expected to keep "mum" while the program is being rendered, and those making any audible sound will be subject to a fine of 10c. for the first offence only. There will be other forms of entertainment besides those given above. Come everybody and have a good time.

For the first time in a number of years the business men of Tillamook City have got together. They met in Cohn & Co.'s store Tuesday and decided that life was too short to spend fourteen hours a day in a store, and decided upon early closing. This is a good move, and we are glad that the business men have come together. The general public will govern itself accordingly, for the early closing movement will not cause any inconvenience. Having made a good start in getting together, let the good work proceed and let Tillamook City have a live, wide-awake business men's club.

ANOTHER VICTIM SUBS. Financial Troubles in Thayer's Robinson Cheese Company.

R. Robinson, plaintiff, vs. The R. Robinson Cheese Company (a corporation), defendant, is the title of a suit which was filed in the circuit court on Saturday, in which the plaintiff sues to recover the sum of $1,345.75. Claude Thayer, R. Robinson and others formed a company for the purpose of handling cheese and engaged R. Robinson as buyer and salesman for the company at a stipulated salary, part of which he has been unable to get, so brings suit to recover what is owing him. In his complaint Robinson sets out:

"That about January 15, 1905, the defendant employed plaintiff as buyer and salesman at the agreed salary of $150 per month and 30 per cent of the profits, until the share of the profits added not to exceed $600 upon plaintiff's salary during the year, and defendant was also to pay the expenses of plaintiff in working for the company.

"That under the agreement plaintiff worked for defendant 11 months, from and including January 15, 1905, to and including December 15, 1905, when the agreement was ended by mutual consent.

"That during the time the defendant made a profit of $2,400.

"That under the agreement plaintiff earned during the time the full sum of $2,250 and defendant has paid plaintiff on account thereof $1,004.25 and no more, and there was due and unpaid on the agreement Dec 15, 1905, $1,245.75 from defendant to plaintiff.

"That plaintiff has demanded payment thereof and payment has been refused; therefore, he prays for judgment against the defendant for $1,245.72."

Ralph R. Duniway, of Portland, is the attorney for Robinson.

The R. Robinson Cheese Company was organized in October, 1904, with capital stock placed at $10,000, with John R. Harter, R. Robinson and C. W. Talmage incorporators.

Haltom has just rec'd a big shipment of "Cutter" shoes and wooden sole shoes.

HOW FUNNY!

Another "Conspiracy" Punctured—Forgot the Golden Rule.

We wish to call the taxpayers attention to one thing, before the political pot begins to boil, that is interesting but yet inconsistent. We will place two facts of public record side by side so that the taxpayers can draw their own conclusions. It will be remembered that Judge Conder in his capacity of county judge authorized Handley & Thayer to sue Homer Mason to recover the land office fees, as they set forth that they belonged to the county. The case was thrown out of court on a technicality, and nothing further was done, which plainly goes to prove that the county has no jurisdiction over U.S. land office business and is not entitled to the fees for work performed by the county clerk. If the suit had been brought in good faith, it should have been proceeded, but as it was allowed to drop, it is proof enough now to every taxpayer that the suit was brought to cast a reflection upon the character of Mason and to ruin him politically, for he had obtained a reputation while serving the people for six years as county clerk which made him a formidable candidate for any office, and for fear that he might come up for county judge, there are a few persons who have been circulating a lot of dirty lies about him of late. Such, however, are the methods of those who conspired to besmirch Mason's character, and not strange to relate, the ear marks are that of some of those who are now under indictment, and Mason should have reported the matter to Mr. Heney. It should be done. Now the comparison. It will be noticed that the sheriff, who is a salaried officer, has been acting in the capacity of constable, and all the work he has done for the justice court he has put in a bill to the county court and Judge Conder has allowed it. Isn't it funny? The county brought suit to get money which did not come out of the taxpayers' pockets from Mason, now why not bring suit to recover money that did come out of the taxpayers' pockets? These are public matters and open to newspaper criticism, and, probably, deserve more criticism than we give it. We have given the facts, that is all, and every taxpayer is allowed to think what they like of such funny procedure.

NEHALEM.
 Enslaved, robbed, murdered and now disfranchised, all in free America. Ye gods, shake brother Russia.
 "Oh, what fools these mortals be."
 The Nehalem Telephone and Telegraph Co. met Saturday, elected officers and adopted by-laws.

 Mr. Frank Dye passed Boulderville Saturday, en route to Blaine with a load of lumber.
 Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. McIntyre visited at H. A. Chopard's last Sunday. Mrs. Mc remaining until Monday.
 There is a neighborhood prayer meeting Thursday evening at W. D. Glad-

To Our Subscribers.

Some of our subscribers are getting a little delinquent, and although we are pleased to send the newspaper to them, it takes money to make the mare go. We intend, in the next few months, to put all subscribers on a prepaid basis, and we shall be compelled to cut off a few who have enjoyed reading the Headlight for a long time but who have failed to bear their share of the cost of production. The Headlight is a factor in local affairs and is outspoken whenever there is occasion to champion the interests of the people. It stands for the strict enforcement of the law, and has molded public opinion in opposition to many "grafters" and vices which existed in Tillamook, and it was instrumental in bringing about a more satisfactory state of affairs. The price of a subscription to the Headlight is but a small sum every year, considering what it has done for Tillamook, and if the taxpayers want the good work to go on, all we ask is a continuation of their kindly support and patronage, and we assure our subscribers that the Headlight will be as outspoken and fearless as heretofore. But, as we said before, it takes money to make the mare go, no matter what business or cause a person is engaged in.

What One Article Accomplished.

Five years since the editor of this paper suggested to Hon. F. T. Wright, man, of this city, that he prepare an article on Indirect Taxation for our New Year's edition, and he did so. The article was printed and widely circulated. The result was the enactment of what is known as the Eddy corporation tax bill, and the inheritance tax bill that are putting over one hundred thousand dollars per year into the state treasury, and each year the money from the corporation license tax and the inheritance tax will increase. In the battle for a greater share of state revenues to be raised by indirect taxation there is no better literature to circulate than the article written by Wrightman five years ago. It has borne great results to the taxpayer and it will bear more fruit the oftener it is reiterated and extended into actual practice, and we have reprinted a part of the argument then made by the gentleman who was afterwards recognized by our state government as an authority on this subject, and has for a number of years been tax collector under the secretary of state, an office for which he has become a candidate this year.—Journal (Salem).
