The proceeds of the fireman's dance last Saturday amounted to $76, out of which $18 was paid for the orchestra, thus leaving a good balance to be applied for fire appliances.

There is no use getting excited about an electric light franchise. There is nothing before the city council yet. What is aiming to do is to get cheaper lights. That is all.

When selecting a bank with which to do business, inquire into the character and standing of its officers. More depends upon them than the amount of capital. Many a bank of $10,000 or $20,000 capital is stronger than some of the larger banks in the cities.

A report reached us Wednesday that someone is circulating a campaign lie that L. M. Alley and Henry Crenshaw had withdrawn. This is not the case, for both of them are in the race until the votes are counted, and then they are for the party nominee, whoever he may be.

Work is progressing smoothly at the oil well, with a night and day shift that is under the management of M. W. Storey, who is a practical and experienced hand in that kind of work. The well is down 700 feet, and those who are interested in the oil company are satisfied that they are going to strike oil, as the indications are good.

Republicans must be careful this year to have no weak spots in the State ticket. One point of danger is the office of State Printer, because it has been run so expensively. If Willis S. Dunaway is nominated, he will bring strength and not weakness to the ticket. He is able to go on the stump in any company and give his reasons for being a Republican.

Some of the boys of the city made a raid on Rollie W. Watson's barrel the other night and made the "blind pig" disgorge no less than 72 bottles of the stuff that is making "our man" gloriously ridiculous. The boys hid the bottles of beer under the side walks, and the "blind pig" squealing so loudly at the loss of his bosom friend, the boys returned some of the bottles which had not been tapped. This is not the first private "blind pig" that mysteriously disappeared, by any means, for the boys have "caught on."

Another fatal burning accident occurred in this city on Sunday to a child, this time by fire. The two year old son of Dolly Buttz was left in the room, and while putting paper in the cook stove its clothes caught fire. The child began to scream, but as it was thought he was doing that because he was left alone, no notice was taken of him, until another child went into the room and tried to remove the burning clothes, which it was unable to do. As the clothes burned it frizzled the flesh of the child, and so severely was it burned it died the same evening.

Ralph W. Hoyt, who is a candidate for nomination for state treasurer on the republican ticket, is a gentleman so well and favorably known in all parts of Oregon that he needs no introduction at the hands of the Press. It is no wonder, then, that his friends, who are called "Hoyt Boosters," are carrying on a lively campaign, as the candidates are all prominent citizens and it is a hard tussle as to who will win the nomination. Mr. Hoyt and his friends are in the race to win and are setting a fast pace. One thing can confidently be relied upon, there may be as good men for the position of state treasurer, but there are none better than Mr. Hoyt.

As John Kumm, whose home is at Beaver, while returning to Hadley's logging camp on the Wilson river on Sunday, he was attacked by a large panther and had a close call of being seriously injured or killed. In the struggle with the wild beast, Kumm had no weapon to heat off the panther until he took from his pocket a pocket knife, and with the blade of which he cut the animal across the eyes. This had the effect of stopping the panther's attack and which allowed Kumm to get within safe distance of the infuriated animal and who hurried to camp as quickly as possible. Kumm was scratched up some, and a party was at once organized to hunt for the panther, and with the aid of dogs it was soon located in the woods and shot.

A meeting of the city council was held on Monday evening, when Mayor H. T. Botts and Councilmen E. Hoag, J. P. Allen, M. Munson, A. T. White and W. C. King were present. There was very little business of any importance before the city dads, with the exception that E. Hoag and J. P. Allen had the prefix of "Councilman" placed to their names as representatives of the first and second wards. A. E. Lucy was appointed city marshal, and as well holds the position of special policeman, street commissioner, dog catcher, kid chaser, etc. W. Newcomb was appointed special policeman for a special occasion. The bills allowed were:

Grange Opposed to Toll Roads.

Oretown Grange, No. 354, Tillamook County, Ore., at its regular meeting last week, passed this resolution:

Whereas, the toll roads of Tillamook county are a menace to the well being and prosperity of the citizens of the county; and

Whereas, the County Court seem to be determined to go beyond their jurisdiction by leasing said roads on the eve of election; and

Whereas, we believe the people should be consulted who are directly interested; and

Whereas, we believe that it is the duty of Tillamook county to give us free roads as a matter of justice to the entire populace; therefore, be it

Resolved, that we are unqualifiedly opposed to the proposed lease of our roads;

Resolved, that we ask the people who love a free government and free institutions to join us in our struggle to get rid of this "graft."

Signed, F. C. Varner, D. J. Dunn and A. W. Fletcher, committee.

A. M. Commons, W. M.; Stella Christensen, secretary.

Candidates for Office.

The time for filing petitions by those who aspire to become the regular nominees in the republican and democratic parties, under the new primary nominating law, closed on Wednesday, and those who filed petitions will have their names placed on the official ballot, to be voted upon by the people, and the persons receiving the highest number of votes for offices for which they are running will become the nominees of their respective parties. The nominating election is on Friday, April 20, the polls opening at 12 o'clock and closing at 7. As far as we are aware the republicans who entered the race did so of their own accord, with perhaps the exception of H. F. Goodspeed, who was induced to run at the solicitation of a large number of republicans in Fairview, Bay and Hoquart precincts. As the new law makes it possible for anybody to get on the ticket, no one can complain that they were headed off or did not get a square deal. Their names are before the people and each of the aspirants will have to rely upon themselves and their merit, with the aid of their personal friends, to secure the nominations. Each of the aspirants are busy, and apart from the mud slinging of a few individuals who wanted to create a factional fight and who are now mud slinging one another, the canvass is being carried on in a friendly spirit amongst republicans.

The minstrel company comes well recommended and promises a good show, which includes the usual Christy Minstrel features and laughable sketches, songs and dances.

Do not forget the dates—Friday, April 6; Saturday, April 7; Monday, April 9 at the opera house.

McKanlass troupe of minstrels always gives a good performance.

Call For County Warrants.

All warrants endorsed prior to June 13, 1904 will be paid on presentation, interest ceases this 5th day of April 1906.

P. W. Todd, County Treasurer.

The State Treasurership.

Of the candidates for the office of State Treasurer there are three bankers—Messrs. Aitkin, Carter and Hoyt; of the others, Mr. Ryan is County Judge of Clackamas County, and has been for a number of years operating as a broker in county warrants, in which business he has been quite successful, as we understand, and has accumulated quite a comfortable competence. Mr. Steel, of Clackamas, was formerly in the street railway business in Portland, where he lived for more than thirty years. He was one of the parties in interest in the building of the Oregon City and Mt. Scott lines, but lost his interests in these properties in the crash of 1893-4-5, since which time he has devoted his energies to the improvement and cultivation of his farm in Clackamas County, where he has lived for the last ten years.

Mr. Aitkin is a banker at Huntington, in Baker County, where he is doing a successful business, and is well liked by his business associates, but, we understand, does not stand well with the labor element. Mr. Carter is a banker at Ashland, in Jackson County, and, we understand, is popular in his community. Mr. Hoyt is cashier of the Merchants' National Bank of this city, and is well known. Mr. Jennings does not seem to have been successful in making himself so well known as the other gentlemen who aspire to the office. He lives at Eugene, in Lane County, but we are not advised as to his business or occupation.

LONG PRAIRIE.

Mr. Albert Olds is tying boxes in the Hobsonville mill.

A. W. Phelps went to Netarts last week.

M. R. Hanenkratt, C. M. Hanenkratt, Mr. Storey and wife have returned from Portland and have resumed their drilling for oil on the former's place.

A. W. Phelps is doing some building this week; also clearing up his land.

Mr. Joseph Blazier has his new residence nearly completed and will soon move into the same. Joe, wife and child have been stopping at Mr. Jordy's for the past few days waiting for the completion of his house.

M. R. Hanenkratt. It is reported, brought a three-year-old and a yearling bull from Portland. Mr. H. states that they were quite sea sick en route from Astoria.

Ralph Ackley was in this neighborhood, listing property one day last week.

John Sheets came near getting killed one day last week, he stepped up onto a log which gave way with him, pitching forward, he struck his throat on a sharp knot, but fortunately nothing more serious happened than a good shaking up, with a scratch on the hand and a severe scratch on the throat. A very lucky escape.

John Drake spent Sunday with his parents at Tillamook.

Mrs. John Sheets, son Nicholas, and little three-year-old daughter spent Sunday with W. H. Owen's and family.

Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Bays spent Sunday on the prairie visiting.

T. J. Gregory, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Dighton, and his granddaughter, Mrs. Mark Bay's for the winter, has returned to the valley, going out with Mr. McNamer over the Wilson river route Sunday. He will make his future home in Roseburg.

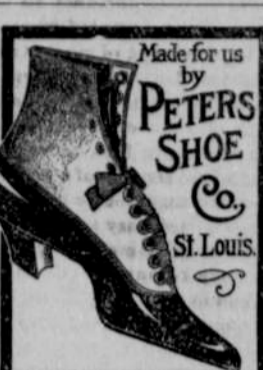

So far it is not thought that the cold snap did much damage to fruit in this section. Early plum and pear trees are now in full bloom.

Backward in School.

In nearly every school, especially the Primary Grades, are one or more pupils who do not advance as rapidly as the rest of the class and are accused of being dull or not inclined to study. There is no doubt that a great many of just such cases are caused by a lack of nervous force because of defective vision or eye strain.

When a pair of Perfectly Fitted Glasses will overcome such difficulty, why prevent your children's future because of defective vision.
