

To the Republican Voters of Tillamook County:

With reference to my candidacy for nomination in the office of County Judge, I am in favor of improvement in the road system throughout the county, and especially in districts that have been neglected so long, favor the immediate construction of those necessary roads and bridges, but have made no promises except those made publicly and will make none. I am willing to be a servant, but not a slave.

If you think I am deserving the trust, I will be pleased to have your support.

Respectfully,
H. F. GOODSPEED.

P. McIntosh vs. Alex. McNair was a suit filed in the circuit court in which the former sues the latter for $2,200, the value of stock in the McIntosh & McNair Co. The complaint sets out that the plaintiff had already received $7,000 in the transfer of the stock, and there was still due him $2,200, but there was no stated time when this should be paid. Ralph R. Duniway is the attorney for plaintiff.

Willis S. Duniway, candidate for State Printer, says: "I expected to be attacked by the State Printing Push when I came out on a platform pledging an economical and business-like administration, and of course the push are after me. But I expect to win, because the whole State is tired of the methods that have made the State Printing Office a source of scandal and boodling."

A school entertainment and social was given by the pupils of the Wilson river school last Friday, a large audience being present. The program was well selected and well prepared, and much credit should be given pupils and teachers in doing so well. The program was followed by an address by the county superintendent, Mr. Wiley, after which thirty or more well filled lunch baskets were auctioned and sold, from which $53.55 were received. The proceeds are to be used in purchasing a large bell for the school. Mrs. Amanda Haberlach and Miss Clara Watt are the teachers.

Judge George in the Circuit Court at Portland, decided the case of J. B. Wetherall against the Portland Coal & Development Company in favor of the plaintiff, who sued for $143, alleged to be due as payment for boring an oil well in Tillamook County. But the court held that this sum should be paid in stock of the company. An assigned claim against the company for $57 and held by Wetherall was allowed the holder of the claim. The case of E. F. McCoy against J. B. Wetherall for 2400 shares in the Portland Coal & Development Company was decided by Judge George in favor of the defendant.

The Oregon Coast & Eastern Railway Company, after preliminary work covering a period of two years, filed articles of incorporation in Portland on Tuesday for the building of approximately 1,200 miles of main line in the state of Oregon. The syndicate has for months had about 40 men at work on rights of way, and now has four-fifths of it secured for the coast line from Portland to Humboldt bay, California. Construction work will be fully under way within the next four months. This is the coast road which is to tap Tillamook County, the particulars of which have already appeared in this newspaper.

On Friday, April 20, the societies of the public and high schools will give their last entertainment of the year. It will be an evening of fun. The Papa's Convention will be one of the principal features. It is hoped with this last entertainment to make the last payment on the beautiful $400 piano that the pupils of the high school have nearly paid for by their efforts will be well patronized. The piano is a most valuable addition to our public school, and the teachers and pupils are deserving of a good deal of praise, and as this entertainment is to wipe out what is owing on the instrument, it is hoped that everybody will attend who possibly can do so.

Sheriff Woolfe and Marshal Lucy left today for McMinnville to bring in A. Hembree, who is charged with murdering his wife and family at Sandlake. It is expected that a motion will be made to have the case tried in Yamhill, but as to that it is hard to tell at the present time what the outcome will be. Court will meet on Monday, and it is Judge Galloway's turn to preside on the bench. We understand that District Attorney McNary will ask for a grand jury. The other cases of importance are the suit against the bondsmen of the late Sheriff Alderman and the injunction case to prevent Judge Conder from removing Mrs. Alderman as administratrix of the estate. There are quite a number of cases on the court docket for this term of court.

The directors of the Maple Leaf Creamery Association have declared a dividend of 8 per cent on stock subscription, which dividend has been paid. This factory is now receiving 13,000 lbs. of milk daily, and from present output will receive at least 20,000 lbs. per day during the best part of the season. The farmers and dairymen of this factory are working together in harmony, and the result will be that by the end of this year their factory will be paid for in full. It shows what can be attained by the entire community working together toward a desired end, and presents a far different view than is had of several other parts of this county which do not work together. Carl Haberlach was re-elected secretary of the corporation.

Easter exercises will be given at the Presbyterian church, for which an interesting program is prepared, and which is as follows:

Violin duet, Chester and Ruby McGhee; Easter chorus, "Christ Is Risen To-Day"; Scripture Reading, Ella Hays; Prayer; Chorus, "Heralds of Day," by S.S. Recitations, Myrtle Wallin and Donald Newman; Vocal Solo, Miss Hazel McNair; Easter Exercise, by five little girls; Song, "Trust Your Father," by young girls; Recitations, Burita Lynch and Theodore Finney; Vocal Solo, Miss Edna Alderman; Easter Exercise, by seven little girls; Recitations, Lela Drew and Howard Lamar; "Shout, Shout His Triumph," Solo with Chorus; Remarks, by Supt. W. W. Wiley; Violin duet, by Chester and Ruby McGhee.

Councilman J. P. Allen met with a serious accident last week, which came near ending fatally. It was past mid-night when he went to bed. Remembering that he had not placed a light on the landing at the head of the stairs in the hotel, he went to light the lamp. It was while attempting to do so in the darkness that he fell backwards down the stairs, which rendered him unconscious. The noise awoke Mrs. Allen, and finding her husband was not in bed obtained a light to see what was the cause of the noise, for she thought that someone had fallen down the stair. Seeing her husband was lying unconscious at the bottom of the stairs she gave an alarm and the doctors were sent for. It was some time before Mr. Allen regained consciousness, for in the fall he had injured the back of the skull in two places and was bruised up some about the body. He is improving as rapidly as possible.

Gertrude Burch, the 17-year-old daughter of Robert Burch, a timber speculator, appeared in Judge Webster's court in Portland and protested against the sale of a timber claim left her and her brother by her mother, who died in 1904. The land is located in Tillamook County and the administrator of the estate of Mary Burch, the mother of the contestant, threatened to sell to pay small claims. Several months ago Judge Webster appointed C. W. Miller guardian of Miss Burch to protect her interests. On the witness-stand, the girl denied that the money, $450, required to obtain the claim was advanced to her mother by her father, and that as a consideration for so doing her mother conveyed to Mr. Burch her share of a homestead in Minnesota. Burch is now in Minnesota, and he spent the winter at Hot Springs, Ark. Judge Webster took the case under advisement.

$20,000 Damage Suit.

An important suit was filed in the circuit court by Mrs. A. Roenicke, plaintiff, vs. Charles Nelson and Charles Ray, who are partners doing business under the firm name of the Cloverdale Telephone Company, defendants. This is a suit wherein Mrs. Roenicke sues the defendants for $10,000 damages as a result of an accident and runaway caused by the defendants' telephone wires. In the complaint the plaintiff sets forth that for many years there is a county road between Woods and Sandlake, and without acquiring any right, the defendants placed a telephone across the road, and that on the 1st October, 1905, the defendants negligently and carelessly permitted the telephone wire to become loose and sag down over the road; that on the 12th October the plaintiff and her son, William Roenicke, were carefully driving along the county road that evening, when the top of the buggy was caught by the telephone wire and Mrs. Roenicke and her son, and the top and the seat of the buggy, were all thrown violently to the ground, which scared the horses and they ran away, injuring the horses and damaging the buggy. In falling from the buggy plaintiff fractured a knee cap, sustained other injuries, the consequence of which she could not run her farm, had to pay doctor's bills, and is permanently injured. For these injuries and the damages caused by the defendants' telephone wire, plaintiff sues for $10,000. Ralph R. Duniway is the attorney for plaintiff.

An Explanation.

Understanding that it is being reported that I was practically forced to withdraw as a candidate for the nomination as Joint Representative by A. G. Beals and his friends, I wish to correct any misapprehension as to this matter, and so make this statement:

At the solicitation of a number of my friends I had consented to become a candidate for the nomination to the position mentioned. I shortly afterwards learned that Mr. Beals was being spoken of for the same place. I thereupon went to see Mr. Beals and he told me that if I wished to be a candidate he would not be in the field. He did not in any way try to induce me to withdraw. I then consulted further with a number of my friends in regard to the matter and met with very kind assurances of support from them, but after full consideration of the matter I concluded that, as the primary was so near at hand and as other candidates had quite thoroughly canvassed Yamhill County, and as I was unacquainted in that county, it would require that I should expend considerable time and some money to make a canvass of Yamhill county to put myself on an equal footing with the other candidates. As I am very busy improving my ranch I did not feel that I could spare the time or afford to expend the money necessary to secure the nomination for a position which does not pay a remunerative salary and, I thereupon refused to be a candidate. My withdrawal was wholly voluntary on my part, and for no other reason than as above stated.

GUSTAV KUNZ.

For Joint Representative.

I hereby announce my candidacy as Joint Representative for the 14th representative district and most respectfully solicit your support at the primary election to be held on the 20th day of April, 1906. Should I be nominated and elected I stand pledged to the strictest economy in all appropriations of the state funds and will oppose at all times everything that is the least suggestive of graft. I will support the people's choice for United States senator—your choice shall be mine.

Very sincerely,
A. G. BEALS.

Card of Thanks.
Mrs. M. J. Buttz desires to thank the many friends and neighbors who showed so much kindness and sympathy toward them in their sad bereavement.

Obituary Notice.

Nathaniel Jones, an old resident of this county, died at Spruce on Monday, and the remains were buried on Wednesday, the religious service being in the United Brethren church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Connor.

Mr. Nathaniel Jones was born in Hawkins county, Ohio, June 4, 1821. Shortly before the war he removed to Kansas, when the call came for men to defend the Union. He willingly answered the call, enlisting in Co. B 9th Reg., Kansas Cavalry. After three year's service he was honorably discharged at Leavenworth City on Nov. 19, 1864.

Deceased was married to Mrs. Betheny Hicklin, Sept. 18, 1873. In 1880, Mr. Jones moved his family to Oregon, settling near the quaint little village of Beaverton, Washington county, and in 1884 they removed to Tillamook. On July 12, 1891, his wife died, leaving him with a son and daughter.

In March, 1895, Mr. Jones married Mrs. Anna Peters, of Clinton, Mo.

Deceased answered the last roll call on April 9th. Death was caused by paralysis. He was a member of the United Brethren church, resting securely in the blessed hope, he was not afraid to die, but rather welcomed death as a glad release from pain, looking forward to that glad reunion on the other shore.

A wife and two children mourn his death, for Mr. Jones was a man who was respected by his neighbors. Of the children, Mrs. Charlotte Sturman is a resident of California and Mr. David D. Jones, of Tillamook. The latter was with him and cared for him during his last illness. Deceased was a member of Corinth Post, No. 35, G.A.R.

CRENSHAW'S PLATFORM.

Will "Make Good" What he Promises if Elected.

In announcing myself a candidate for nomination on the republican ticket for sheriff, I pledge the voters of Tillamook County that I will "make good" if nominated and elected the following pledge:

If I am nominated and elected I will, during my term of office, faithfully and impartially enforce all the laws of the state of Oregon so far as it is made the duty of the sheriff so to do.

Backward in School.

In nearly every school, especially the Primary Grades, are one or more pupils who do not advance as rapidly as the rest of the class and are accused of being dull or not inclined to study. There is no doubt that a great many of just such cases are caused by a lack of nervous force because of defective vision or eye strain.

When a pair of Perfectly Fitted Glasses will overcome such difficulty, why prevent your children's future because of defective vision.

A. G. BEALS FOR JOINT REPRESENTATIVE.

Is Deserving of Republican Support in the District.

We publish in this week's issue Mr. A. G. Beals' announcement as a candidate for nomination on the republican ticket for joint representative for Yamhill and Tillamook, and being a resident of this county since he was 18 years of age, it is not out of place to speak a good word in his behalf. It is well to relate that an effort was made some few weeks ago to get some of our prominent citizens to run, such as Mayor H. T. Botts, A. J. Cohn, Gus Kunze and others, all of whom refused on account of business and being unable to spare the time. Friends of Mr. Beals induced him to make the race, but he refrained from giving his consent until a week before the petition should be filed. Mr. Beals, like the aspirants for joint representative, comes before the people on his merits, and it is for them to decide which is most suited after looking at their political record and their private characters. There is much that can be said in behalf of Mr. Beals, that he came to Tillamook county 16 years ago, a near boy 18 years of age, commencing his business life in this county. All must admit that he is one of the substantial farmers of Tillamook, for having bought the Chance place at Fairview he immediately transformed that into one of the best dairy farms in the county, and his recent connection as manager of the Tillamook Lumbering Co.'s saw mill in this city is bringing him into still more prominence. His knowledge of the needs of the county, and this acquired by his long residence here, with his splendid business ability and a good character, are qualifications which should commend him to every republican voter in the district. He has a large number of friends in Tillamook county who place implicit confidence in him and who are confident that he will do the right thing by his constituents, giving every bill that is introduced in the state legislature his careful consideration and study, and will cast his vote for that which he thinks is for the best interest of the people. It is safe to say that Mr. Beals will become more prominently identified with the commercial and industrial growth of Tillamook, for having made a start in that direction, he is in the lumbering business to make a success of it. As Mr. Beals is clean and upright in his business transactions, and a good law abiding citizen and a good husband with a good home, he is certainly on the right track as a good citizen, and deserving of support at the primary election next week. He has always identified himself with the republican party and was never infatuated with populism or any other ism which lead a good many men astray politically a few years ago.

The State Treasury.

Now that the Primary campaign is about closed, it is pertinent to call the attention of voters to the situation so far as the nomination of State Treasurer is concerned.

Considering the fact that the bulk of the population of the State is located in Multnomah and adjoining counties, it must be apparent to any one that whoever gets the largest vote in that section, will surely have a great advantage in the race.

Most of the candidates, if not all, have been expecting to get their full share of support in Multnomah county, which, with what they could obtain in the interior counties, would pull them ahead of their competitors.

There is no question whatever but what the bulk of the vote in that part of the State will be divided between Steel, of Clackamas County, and Hoyt, a banker of Multnomah. The lines now drawn between these two candidates is practically "The Banks vs. the People." It appears that the banking combination is making a determined effort to get control of the treasury; while the masses are lined up against that proposition.

The candidates from the remote parts of the state, will probably get a good support at home, but the vote at the best is small compared with that in the northern counties, and they will find that it will mostly go to Steel and Hoyt, thus easily putting them in the lead. Under such circumstances the public can take its choice between the two candidates, unless it does not care who wins, and throws its vote away by casting it for friends, regardless of the result.

It would, therefore, seem advisable to vote for one or the other of these two men, if the voters wish to make their vote count.
