PROTECTION OF THE HOME. Harvey K. Brown Stands for Those Which Tend to Elevate Citizenship.

The following extract from the editorial columns of the Boise (Idaho) Daily Statesman, one of the really great newspapers of the Northwest, shows how observant editors are in neighboring states regard the political situation in Oregon. The Statesman says:

"Over in Oregon there is an interesting contest in progress for the republican nomination for the governorship. There is at least one candidate in the field, Harvey K. Brown, of Baker City, who stands for all that good citizens should desire; and a great many people outside of the state who are watching the contest, will hope that the republican voters of Oregon will have the wisdom to nominate him. He has made a record as an official in Baker that commends him to all who believe in sterling honesty, in the enforcement of the laws, and, generally, in decent discharge of duty by men occupying public positions. He is a man of marked ability and great force of character, and he is unwaveringly in favor of those things which tend to strengthen the commonwealth and elevate citizenship."

The women of Oregon should take an especial interest in his candidacy, for he not only favors equal suffrage, but stands also for those things which protect the home.

Oregon made a mistake in its last republican nomination for governor; it may make another, but it will not fall into error if it select this sterling man."

A STONG ENDORSEMENT. City Council of Huntington Unanimously Passes Resolutions of Confidence in Hon. H. Aitkin.

As an evidence of the personal regard and esteem in which Hon. John H. Aitkin is held by the people of Huntington, among whom he has resided for the past 18 years, the following resolutions, passed unanimously by the city council last Monday night, are most significant and speak in unmistakable terms of their utmost confidence in his ability and integrity.

Resolutions of Confidence. Whereas, our esteemed fellow townsman, Hon. John H. Aitkin, a resident of this city for the past eighteen years, has been urged by his friends to become a candidate on the Republican ticket for the important office of State Treasurer of Oregon, we, his fellow citizens and neighbors, desire to place ourselves on record as favoring his nomination and election. He has been Mayor of this city and its treasurer five consecutive terms. He is prominent in financial circles and has been the leading merchant of this city all these years. He is one of our most honest and upright citizens; has always taken great interest in our public schools, and at present is one of our trusted directors. We are confident that his name will add great strength to the Republican State Ticket, therefore, be it Resolved, That we, the city of Huntington, do most heartily recommend Hon. John H. Aitkin to the Republicans of Oregon for the office of State Treasurer, having complete confidence in him, and earnestly endorse his candidacy, fully convinced that no aspirant now before the voters of the State is better equipped or more fully qualified to fill this most important position, his business career in this city during the eighteen years being unimpeachable; one of strict honesty and integrity.

(Signed), R. W. FRAME, Mayor. T. J. HUSTON, Recorder. JAS. CUNNINGHAM, Councilman. J. HARTLE, Councilman. ARCHIE JOHNSTON, Councilman. G. ALM, Councilman. WM. G. SPENCER, Councilman. A. W. SUTHERLAND, Treasurer. JOHN F. HANSON, Marshal.

Socialists Put Out a Ticket. The Socialists County Convention met in Tillamook City, on Saturday, when S. Scovill was chosen chairman, and E. C. Wolfe, secretary. The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the present competitive system has filled its mission in the solution of industry; and whereas the captains of industry have proven, by their immense combine, that the theories of the socialists are sound;

Therefore, be it resolved by the socialists in convention assembled, that we heartily endorse the platform and constitution of the national and state organizations of the socialist party.

On motion, the following committee was appointed on order of business: W. C. Wolfe, F. C. Varner and C. J. Blanchard.

The following report was made and adopted: It is the sense of your committee: 1st, that a full county ticket be nominated; 2nd, that a local quorum of three be elected to look after the party business; 3rd, that an organizer be placed in the field, to complete the organization of the county.

The following nominations were then made: Joint Representative, Stephen Scovill, of Nehalem; County Judge, C. J. Blanchard, of Spruce; County Clerk, Frank Allender, of Tillamook; Sheriff, W. C. Wolfe, of Tillamook; Treasurer, G. A. Cobler, Surveyor, S. C. Woods, of Blaine; Commissioner, Wm. Morris, Little Nastacks; Coroner, John Paquet, Fairview; Justice of the Peace, 1st dist., E. K. Scovill; 2nd dist., F. F.

Huntsinger; 3rd dist., A. T. Baine, Constables, 1st dist., Jas. Thompson; 2nd dist., D. F. Trowbridge; 3rd dist., F. Lowell.

The following quorum was elected to serve for 1 year, subject to the referendum of the membership: W. C. Wolfe, Frank Allender and Lem Hiner. On motion, C. F. Varner and W. C. Wolfe were elected to provide an organizer, or to act in that capacity.

A Scheme Thin as Some Milk. WANTED—To learn the name of the bona fide writer of an article of some three thousand words, under caption of "Holstein Freshen Cattle," which is evidently acceptable to a number of more or less responsible country papers. We have been sent one copy of this article from an Oregon paper signed "S. A. Saling, Beaver, Oregon," and another from an Ohio paper signed "J. F. Armstrong, Austintown." If there are any other claimants to the honor we should like to get their names all together, then request Secretary Houghton of the Holstein Association to name the real author, as there are several things in the article that he is entitled to credit for thinking about. For power of invention and perversion he is really a genius, duplicates of which would not probably develop simultaneously in various parts of the country.

The first clipping of this article came to us from Mr. J. F. Martin, Tillamook, Oregon, who writes: "Here is a bluff of the Holstein folks which is going the rounds of our western papers. You will see that this writer makes some very exaggerated statements."

The second copy of the same article came from Mr. F. O. Butler, Andover, Ohio, with this comment: "Mr. Armstrong evidently thinks there is no cow on earth like the spotted Holstein, in spite of the proof given at St. Louis, Chicago, etc., that she is not in the lead."

Now if any other readers of The Jersey Bulletin have seen this article with any signature other than the above-named, they will oblige us by furnishing the information, which will be considered confidential if desired. All we want is to see that the real author gets proper credit, even if it should turn out to be our old-time friend whose initials are Malcolm H. G. "Syndicate articles" are his forte.—Jersey Bulletin.
