Mrs. Augusta Hunt and family, of Burton, Wash., writes: "We have just learned that the graves of our loved dead in Tillamook cemetery have received loving care from friends there, and that on Memorial Day they were banked with flowers. We desire in this way to express our sincere gratitude for the kind attention shown and for the assurance that the dear ones will not be forgotten."

At a meeting of the city council Monday evening, Marshal Lucy handed in his resignation, which was accepted, and E. A. Edwards was appointed to fill the vacancy. Bills allowed were: Water, $147.50; Albert Lucy, marshal, $66; Allen House, meals for prisoners, $2.10; J. C. Holden, recorder, .15; electric lights, $72. The only other business before the city council was street and sidewalk improvements.

The Portland market report on Saturday had this to say in regard to Tillamook cheese: "A somewhat firmer tone is noted in Tillamook market, as the supply at Tillamook promises to be diverted elsewhere. A message from that place yesterday stated that Seattle buyers were in the field taking everything in sight. On the strength of this, one of the largest handlers of Tillamook cheese advanced his price half a cent. June cheese is the proper kind for storing, and any improvement in the demand for this purpose would probably cause an advance. There has been no change in the price of the product of other sections than Tillamook, as the supply is ample for requirements. Eastern cheese is being offered freely and quotations as low as 10 1/2 cents are said to have been made."

Dr. J. P. Tamiesie, of Hillsboro, Ore., writing to Councilman W. C. King, of this city, in regard to the railroad prospect, says: "I have positive knowledge that $5,200,000 is the contract bond issue and that a mortgage has been filed here at the court house as security covering the property and equipment of the P. K. & N. Co. The rails are laid to Banks and the grading to Buxton is about done, and the rails are piled up at Banks. The permanent location is made to a point just above Vernonia, and there are two crews on the Salmonberry trying to find the best grade and curvature to Tillamook. Mr. E. E. Lytle, president of the P. R. & N. Co., said to me that it is his plans to have the shortest route to the Coast of any line, and that he is after the summer vacation and Coast traffic and that he will build and is building to the Coast as fast as men and material can be secured. I wish to say that Mr. Lytle is a builder, not a promoter of railroads, and that you will see no engineers and get no talk until you see the men at work doing something. You have had talk enough."

The Academy Dramatic Club on Monday evening gave another fine evening's entertainment to a full house. The play was a comedy drama in three acts, and entitled "The Yagabonds," with twelve characters, all of whom acquitted themselves well, especially Ephraim, the coon (John Sander), who caused a good deal of laughter. Misses Tillie Elsen, Veronica Melchoir, Mary Fitzpatrick and Sadie Guphill sustained their parts well, especially the latter, who was all right as Peggy, only a girl. The other parts of the play were taken by Herman Sander, Henry Plasker, Ben Sander, Nick Melchoir, Leo Sander, Henry Sander, John Plasker and John Sander, who likewise did exceedingly well, and all are entitled
