What should we run into in Kansas on the Santa Fe.

For fifty miles between Newton and Emporia there is a succession of wash outs caused by the rapid rise of the Cottonwood river, along whose sides the railroad extends. At Florence the water rose so rapidly that many of the people had to be rescued from their houses in boats, scores of wooden buildings were carried away bodily by the force of the rushing waves, all the lower portion of the town was covered with from three to eight feet of water, and the torrents carried away a confused mass of furniture, hay stacks, floating lumber, corn cribs and chicken coops, while hundreds of horses and cattle perished in the inundation. In places, the railroad was twisted, unjointed, and even carried away, and new temporary lines had to be constructed. For miles the train ran on rails that were far below the surface, and the view from the window as the rushing torrent swept across the track, appeared like that from a steam boat stemming the great current of the rapids in the St. Lawrence. We passed hundreds of half submerged houses in which the terror stricken inmates had taken refuge in the upper stories. On the hill sides were to be seen whole families gathered around the few articles of furniture which they had hastily rescued as they were compelled to leave their crumbling houses. In this respect it somewhat resembled the sad scenes of San Francisco, California.

ABOUT FARM MACHINERY.

McCormick's and Osborne's are the Best and Cheapest.

You don't want a rake that is weak in the head and weak in the joints or that has faulty teeth do you? Well, better buy a McCormick or Osborne and take no chances.

A telephone connection with all the world's wheat fields would enable one to hear McCormic and Osborne machines at work continously from January 1st to December 31st.

A McCormick knife grinder will charpen any thing from a pair of scissors to a mower knife.

A fool and his money are soon parted. Buy a McCormick and don't part with your money for repairs on your mower.

A successful farmer is a practical one who thinks out his work and then works out his thoughts.

McCormack and Osborne machines might well be indorsed by the humane society—they are so easy on the horses

McCormack and Osborne machines have been tested through seventy-four harvests aad have grown in favor through each one.

McCormick levers are always within reach; a fact which every farmer appreciates.

McCormick's and Osborne's world-wide reputation is not the result of accident—it is the reward of merit.

Like the town cries of old, the farmers sing out the praises of McCormick and Osborne machines until they are known wherever grain is grown.

Now is the time to get your machine oil and extras.—B. O. SNUFFER, Agent.

The Best Guaranty of Merit Is Open Publicity.

Every bottle of Dr. Pierce's world-famed medicines leaving the great laboratory at Buffalo, N. Y., has printed upon its wrapper all the ingredients entering into its composition. This fact alone places Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines in a class all by themselves. They cannot be classed with patent or secret medicines because they are neither. This is why so many unprejudiced physicians prescribe them and recommend them to their patients. They know what they are composed of, and that the ingredients are those endorsed by the most eminent medical authorities.

The further fact that neither Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the great stomach tonic, liver invigorator, heart regulator and blood purifier, nor his "Favorite Prescription" for weak, overworked, broken-down, nervous women, contains any alcohol, also entitles them to a place all by themselves.

Many years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that chemically pure glycerine, of proper strength, is a better solvent and preservative of the medicinal principles residing in our indigenous, or native, medicinal plants than is alcohol; and, furthermore, that it possesses valuable medicinal properties of its own, being demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic, and a most efficient antiferment.

Neither of the above medicines contains alcohol, or any harmful, habit-forming drug, as will be seen from a glance at the formula printed on each bottle wrapper. They are safe to use and potent to cure.

Not only do physicians prescribe the above, non-secret medicines largely, but the most intelligent people employ them—people who would not think of using the ordinary patent, or secret medicines. Every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines has the strongest kind of an endorsement from leading medical writers of the several schools of practice. No other medicines put up for like purposes has any such professional endorsement.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. One "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Druggists sell them, and nothing is "just as good." Easy to take as candy.
