Caring for the insane came high. Out of the democratic wreck in this county last month, P. W. Todd managed to save himself.

"We're going to commence building in six months!" Rats. How many times have we heard that before?

It will be noticed that the proposed coast road promoters have tied up the strategic point getting to the beach at Garibaldi.

Oak might now demand a recount in Hoquarton precinct, for it might add or take from the eight votes he got in that precinct with Rollic, the booster-buster, behind him.

Tillamookers appear to be wanting to scrap. Is it the language or the atmosphere or the scandals that are responsible? Anyhow, it gives the newly elected justice and constable something to do.

By way of a suggestion, we think it would be a good plan to exhibit as much of the exhibits at the county fair as possible at the state fair at Salem in September. If we're going to advertise the county, don't stop at a county fair.

So the judges and clerks of election counted P. W. Todd out in counting the votes, not that we believe any of them did so intentionally. But don't let it happen again, gentlemen. Take more time in counting the votes in future and the mistakes will be few and far between.

Here is an item of news we wish to refer to the gentlemen of the Tillamook Development League. There are 90 less children of school age in the county than a time last year. Establish a few more toll roads and there will be another decrease.

The county court has appointed, at a salary of $39 a month, a janitor for the new court house. It ought to have been stipulated also that he act as deputy sheriff about court time, and in that way cut off some of the expenses of deputy sheriffs.

Charley Reynolds is the slickest politician of the whole crowd. W. E. Southwick was elected coroner and his bond was approved on Thursday. Next day he got cold feet and resigned, and Reynolds was re-appointed coroner. Own up, Charley, and tell how you managed it.

There is one thing very noticeable in counting the votes after an election, and that is the number of persons who vote only the first column on the ballot and fail to vote for any of the candidates in the second column. The ballots should in future be printed in one column or a blank space about an inch wide should divide the two columns. This, we believe, would be an improvement in the ballot.

To encourage an infant industry, we move that a baby show be held in connection with the fair, conducted by these gentlemen: H. T. Botts, Carl Haberlach, Charley Clough, Carl Patzaf, George B. Lamb, F. R. Beals and Henry Crenshaw, who ought to know something about the industry by this time. There's no telling what might happen them after a baby show.

Of course the newspaper men of the county don't know anything about advertising, and probably that is the reason they have not been consulted and passed over about advertising the fair, not that the newspaper men want to butt in now. Oh no. Not much. But we are vain enough to think that the newspaper men of the county ought to know how to advertised the fair to better advantage than anyone else, had a little courtesy been shown them.

President Roosevelt has pardoned Judge A. H. Tanner, who pleaded guilty last year to an indictment returned by the federal grand jury charging him with perjury in connection with his partnership agreement with Senator Mitchell. His confession created quite a sensation when made in open court, which was responsible for the conviction of the senator. The pardon shows one thing, that the government is inclined to be lenient with those who have erred and have the courage to admit it, and even Francis J. Heney appears to be possessed of a good deal of sympathy for those who want to get square. This ought to be a hint to those who are under indictment, and we have always thought that the easiest and most honorable way out of the trouble is to own up. This is proved in the case of Judge Tanner.

The county court had the troublesome question of the location of the bridge across the south fork of the Nehalem up again on Saturday, although a contract is already let. It was Commissioner Loerpel who wanted the location to be changed, who only consented to it present location for fear of not getting a bridge, but Commissioner Bodyfelt objected to making any change unless the county judge went up there and examined the situation and agreed to order the change. As a change of location would be liable to cause litigation at this stage and hold up the construction of the bridge, it seems to us that it would be taking too many chances. Commissioner Loerpel wanted the location of the bridge left to a vote of the people of Nehalem, and the Headlight wanted the toll road question left to a vote of the people of the county, and as this was not done, two matters of importance have not been settled as they might have been.

Carl Haberlach has done the wisest thing in not prolonging the fight over the office of county treasurer. It was no fault of his that the mistakes were made and which deprived him of the office he thought he was elected to. He has taken his defeat cheerfully and Mr. Todd is to be congratulated. We may say this for Mr. Haberlach, that he is still a republican and loyal to the republican party, and if those who claim to be republicans had been true to their party he would have had a plurality of 400 votes. However that may be, Mr. Haberlach will, no doubt, be a candidate for the same office two years hence, for his action is commendable in not quibbling and prolonging the contest, which came to a sudden end and before it was completed, as soon as he was convinced he did not have a majority of the votes. He could have prolonged the contest for several months, but it would not have been right to have done so. Mr. Haberlach is a cheerful loser, and belongs to that faction of the republican party in Tillamook county, no matter whether they win out or lose in an election, they are republican standpatters. For that reason Mr. Haberlach isn't a quitter, neither will he become a republican sore-head because he was not elected, like some of the brethren did who failed in the primary election.

We have a job we want to do, not that there is any intrinsic value in it. It will do for some of the political sore-heads, but we don't want them to all speak at once for the job. It is the office of political scapegoat that we want to get shot of, for we don't know how we came into possession of it. No sooner is an election over in Tillamook when the defeated office seekers and pennant politicians want to vent their spleen, and it is upon the defenceless head of the Headlight man that everything is laid after they have unbosomed themselves. If a person fails to get a nomination, and we are accused of defeating him; if we purposely refrain from even mentioning the name of an aspirant, we're called a contemptible cuss; if we happen to boost a candidate, the one who is defeated gives us shades and wants to do us up in business; if we happen to roast public officials, we are called the biggest "knocker" and grafter in the county; if we open fire and expose grafters, or want to open up the county, we're accused of injuring the county; and because we won't be run by the old time rule or ruin faction, we're the biggest rascal in the county. In the late election, again have we been made the political scapegoat, but as we don't want to pack all the political sins after every election, we will raise no kick if someone else would prefer carrying the load.

Notice. Notice is hereby given that the county court of Tillamook county will receive bids for 50 cords of Fir Wood for the courthouse. Wood to be cut in four foot lengths and delivered and placed in the cellar of the courthouse. Wood to be delivered not later than September 1st, 1906. All bids must be filed with the County Clerk on or before August 1st, 1906, at 10 o'clock a.m.

You do not pay a cent until you have examined and found them strictly as represented. FULL CASH WITH ORDER and enclose this advertisement making the price $4.85 per pair (if you send plated brass hand pump and metal pressure closers on full paid orders (these metal pressure closers to be used in case of intentional knife cuts or heavy gashes). Ask your Postmaster for these tires, you will find that they will ride easier, run faster, wear better, last longer and look finer than any tire you have ever used or seen at any price. We know that you will be so well pleased that when you want a bicycle you will give us your order. We want you to send us a small trial order at once, hence this remarkable offer. James C.
