I. C. Bewley has Timber, Farm and Tide Lands to sell; also all kinds of Bay City property on easy terms. Houses to rent. Agent for the Farmers' Mutual Fire Relief Association, Portland, Ore. The south mail carrier has been ordered to travel the Long Prairie road on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, both ways, between Spruce and Tillamook City, via the residences of Thos. Lyster, Henry Rogers, M. Hannekratt and others. Married, at the M.E. parsonage, in this city, on the 28th, by the pastor, Rev. C. A. Stockwell, Mr. Lester Landingham and Miss Rosalind Coffey. The happy couple are from the south part of the county, where they are well known and highly respected. From what we can learn, A. J. Hembree, who was convicted of murdering his daughter, and is now confined in the county jail, made no move Wednesday to obtain a new trial, which was to have been argued at Oregon City, and that Judge McBride will be in on the 12th of September to pass sentence. Owing to our printing press being in a crippled condition we were late in getting to press this week, so, under the circumstances, have done our best to get out a day late, although we have had to hold back a page of matter we had intended publishing, hence the blank page to the extra sheet. Messrs. L. A. Brown, W. W. Curtis, Chas. Stinchfield, jr., Wells Gilbert, P. S. Brumby and F. R. Olin, representing the timber interests, registered at the Larsen house on Thursday. They went to Astoria on Tuesday to come in on the Sue H. Elmore, but found she was going to make a trip to Grays Harbor, so had to come in over the mountains. Dr. R. T. Boals has located in this city and opened up offices in the Olsen building. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon, and was president of Multnomah County hospital one year, and was in the St. Vincent hospital also for one year, and spent several months in the Harbor View Sanatorium at San Francisco. His residence in the city is with Mrs. Walker. W. D. Robede, the genial merchant of Woods, was in the city on Monday, and we heartily agree with Dick that the county court ought to give the Woods people a better road. Quite a few persons from there have been in town lately wanting to know whether some long delayed road improvements could be made and as this is a proper and just request, we hope it will meet with the sanction of the court. Hon. W. T. West, of Tillamook county, came over with John Dunstan last week and closed a trade for the Dunstan place east of town, now occupied by E. H. Weatherhead. It is understood that he expects to move out with his family before the fall rains set in and take possession of the place. Mr. West is reputed to be an enterprising upright citizen and Tillamook's loss will be our gain. In the land trade the Dunstons get a stock range on the Big Nestucca between Cloverdale and Tillamook.—Newberg Graphic. The sacred opera, "Queen Esther," by local talent, under the direction of Prof. M. E. Robinson, was given at the opera house on Monday and Tuesday evenings, but did not receive the patronage that it deserved. Mr. Robinson had worked hard to make it a good entertainment, and he succeeded in doing so, for all those who took part did well and are entitled to a good deal of credit, their voices being in fine condition and the acting of the parts was good, so also were the choruses. W. A. Farrand sang his solos well and clear, as also did Mrs. Lee M. Travis and Misses Hazel McNair, Edna Alderman and Aileen Petseys and others, in fact, all did well. It was a mistake that the opera was not put on during the fair, for it would have been a credit to it had it been and an entertainment of much more merit than some of the attractions at the fair. Notice. All persons who have purchased property from B. P. Hutchins' estate communicate with the undersigned and save expense. B. P. HUTCHINS, JR., 725 Hawthorne Avenue, Portland, Ore. Astoria Tillamook It was well that the best and most progressive of the business life of Astoria should be present at the Tillamook County Fair and Carnival this week, in order that the ice may be broken between the commercial forces of the two cities and the preliminaries laid for the interchange of traffic and business on the completion of the Hammond extension to the latter city. There is no time to lose in this venture. The claim of Astoria to the first handling of the Tillamook exports is paramount, and it is the duty of the Astoria merchants to get in any lay the predicate upon which the united energies of the two counties and cities may operate to the assured success of both. The determination of the Hammond system to force the road to an early finish is plainly apparent and leaves but little time for concerted effort; there are others who will not wait a moment of it, in camping on the trail of the immense business that will develop; Portland, San Francisco, Seattle, and other places will have their agents in there at once, and if Astoria sits idly by and lets this valuable trade go by her doors, she will be wilfully and woefully negligent.—Astorian.

Editorial Snap Shots.

Call again, Senator Fulton, we all enjoyed your visit. That was a regular Honkey noise the Tillamook Fair Scouts kicked up on Saturday afternoon. Let's hope the noise isn't infectious. Honk!

W. F. Matthews and his niece, Miss Burckhardt, are spending their Summer at Garibaldi, Or., an ideally picturesque as well as quiet place on Tillamook Bay, which affords excellent hunting and fishing, besides having the advantages of the beach.—Portland paper.

Ha, ha! Is this the Matthews, the politician, who was removed from office, after his moral and political character had been investigated? It must be. But it is time there was a law to imprison men, especially married men, who alienate the affections of married women and wreck other men's happy homes by so doing. Jack Matthews, the dethroned politician and office holder, won't bear investigation. Wasn't Miss Burckhardt the wife of another man and who had a good husband until Jack commenced to write to her and make dates. Then followed a divorce, in which the whole Burckhardt family felt disgraced. But Jack did not care. He has a wife but is not living with her. According to the Portland newspapers he is at Garibaldi with the wife of the man whose home he wrecked, and it is true, it is a law to put the bank wrecker in the penitentiary, then there ought to be a law to put the home wreckers into the penitentiary as well. Ha, ha! No wonder President Roosevelt didn't think he was a fit and proper person to hold office, and the sooner such men are run out of office and run out of town into a penitentiary better it will be for the community.

During the whole of the fair last week, and notwithstanding that the city was crowded and with some hilks from the outside, there was no drunkenness, no rowdiness and no profanity on the streets. Everybody who are interested in the city have reason to feel proud of this, for it would be hard to find a more respectable and orderly crowd anywhere. Right here is another object lesson that calls for comment, for it knocks the argument from under those who say that the local option law does no good. Suppose, for instance, the city was "wet" and the White Corner and joints of a similar character were allowed to run like they used to, there would have been drunkenness, gambling and carousing, or as one business man said, "It would have been fierce." People have now gone to their homes satisfied that Tillamook City is a law-abiding town, where people can have a good time and do their trading without being annoyed any longer by a lawless, rowdy element. A quiet, respectable city to do their trading in is what the rural districts voted for when they voted for local option, and to their satisfaction they saw last week a respectable, orderly and law-abiding condition of affairs which they had been instrumental in bringing about themselves. It was a long, hard fight against saloon rule, but the people is on top, where we hope they will remain, with county and city officials with sand and backbone stiff enough not to bow down and worship law breakers, political bosses, gamblers or big-bellied, arrogant saloon keepers. But, then, what's the Headlight jumping in here for, anyway, for the big crowd saw for itself three days last week what good effect local option had upon a city like Tillamook even during a fair extending over several days.

Broke the Gate.

Last Friday morning a party of three men and three women who were fogged to be from over about Newberg came to the Lee toll gate beyond Gales Creek and when passage was refused them unless they paid, one of the men broke the gate open and they passed through. A description of the party was telephoned in to the sheriff at Hillsboro and Constable Baldwin of this city was directed to arrest them on sight. He was just preparing to start out with a team in search of them when they drove along by his house in South Park. He stepped out into the street and told them he would have to detain them. They let on to be innocent at first but the one described as having broken the gate and who acknowledged his name to be Fred Hufford finally owned up. The constable was inclined to be lenient and give Hufford some liberty, but he was rather insolent, so County Attorney Tongue and the sheriff were notified and Mr. Baldwin was requested to hold the prisoner and they would send for him. A deputy sheriff with a warrant then came up and Mr. Hufford was taken to Hillsboro and lodged in jail where he spent the night. The next day he secured bail and was released to appear yesterday for trial. Constable Baldwin says he never before had a fugitive come right up to his gate in this way to be arrested, and he thinks it a pretty good joke on the parties as they seemed to be trying to slip through town on the side streets when caught. The case was tried before Justice Bagley yesterday, the defense being a technical one that the county court had not acted legally in awarding the contract to McNamer. The justice took it under advisement and will decide later.—Forest Grove Times.

Over Seventy-five Thousand pairs sold last year. DESCRIPTION: Made in all sizes. It is lively and easy riding, very durable and lined inside with a special quality of rubber, which never becomes porous and which closes up small punctures without allowing the air to escape. We have hundreds of letters from satisfied customers stating that their tires have only been pumped up once or twice in a whole season. They weigh no more than an ordinary tire, the puncture resisting qualities being given by several layers of this, specially prepared fabric on the tread. That "Holding Back" sensation commonly felt when riding on asphalt or soft roads is overcome by the patent "Basket Weave" tread which prevents all air from being squeezed out between the tire and the road thus overcoming all suction. The regular price of these tires is $6.50 per pair, but for advertising purposes we are making a special price for the rider of only $4.80 per pair. All orders shipped same day letter received. We ship C.O.D. on approval. You do not pay a cent until you have examined and found them strictly as represented. We will allow a cash discount of 5 per cent (thereby making the price $4.55 per pair) if you send FULL CASH WITH ORDER and enclose this advertisement. We will also send one nickel plated brass hand pump and two Sampson metal puncture closers on full paid orders (these metal puncture closers to be used in case of intentional knife cuts or heavy gashes). Tires to be returned at OUR expense if for any reason they are not satisfactory on examination. We are perfectly reliable and money sent to us is as safe as in a bank. Ask your Postmaster, Banker, Express or Freight Agent or the Editor of this paper about us. If you order a pair of these tires, you will find that they will ride easier, run faster, wear better, last longer and look four times as fine as you have ever used or seen at any price. We know that you will be so well pleased that when you want a bicycle you will give us your order. We want you to send us a small trial order at once, hence this remarkable tire offer.
