

Ralph Ackley about this Big Bargain.

—Buys 28 acres of Wilson river bottom land, all cleared and in grass. Good new house and barn with 10 cows, 3 heifers, 40 chickens and one wagon with set of double harness. This is considered the best buy on Wilson river for the money. Place is well worth $5500. This is the Pete Brown place.

TILLAMOOK JOTTINGS.

Eighteen pound milk can, regular size, $2.50 each; new stock of Buhl cans, $3.00 each; twenty two pound Jersey cans $3.00 each. King & Smith.

It is expected that death will claim Mr. W. N. Vaughn in a few hours, who is at death's door at his home in this county, having been suffering with gall stones.

Cohn & Co., who have sold their store buildings and stock of groceries and feed to Mr. G. A. Edmunds, will move their dry goods to the store opposite the Allen house.

R. Robinson bought for the Oregon Cheese Company the output of seven factories this week, the price being around 14c. l.o.b. Tillamook. He is in the field to buy cheese, but the stock must be first class.

Died, on Monday morning in this city, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sanders, being 12 months old the day of its death. The parents desire to thank their neighbors and friends for the kindness shown them.

The steamer Sue H. Elmore came in on Sunday, her passengers being Mrs. Mary Bullet, Mrs. Howard and daughter, J. Kellock, Mr. Bingham, W. H. Moon, Mrs. Nielson, M. A. Tiel, L. Green, F. Gilbert, E. King, Miss H. Fawc.

Sheriff Crenshaw and Wm. Bodyfelt returned from Salem on Saturday, where they had taken J. L. Arstall to the state penitentiary, where they saw Ab. Hembree, who was looking fat and well, also "Briektop," who appeared to be happy and industrious.

This is a crackerjack for big figures for butter fat for March: Maple Leaf, 35 1/2c. per pound; Clover Leaf, 35.2c.; Pleasant Valley, 35c.; Tillamook Creamery, 37 1/2c. How's that for profitable dairying? This is the highest price paid for butter fat in Tillamook.

Petitions have been generally signed asking the District Boundary Board to arrange for the consolidation of School District No. 32, 45, and 50, above Beaver. If the districts are consolidated, a new modern school building will be built at Boulder Bridge.

Tillamook is to have a cold storage plant, to be installed in the old factory on Hoquartion slough, to be known as the Tillamook Cold Storage Company, which was incorporated with $5,000 capital stock, the incorporators being L. Ziemer, R. Robinson, M. F. Leach and H. T. Botts.

The steamer Sue H. Elmore left Wednesday with the following passengers: Mrs. Heimiller, P. F. Browne, L. W. Buckman, Al. Wilks, E. W. Dingman, F. G. Whitehall, Mrs. J. W. Bowers, M. A. Feal, G. A. Bernard, J. H. Talbot, F. H. Mielhorn, J. W. Brown, E. W. Morris and Wells Gilbert.

Geo. F. Wittmer, of Portland, came in to look over the county with a view of putting in a saw mill and a veneer and door factory. He was greatly pleased with Tillamook, and sees a great future for this county. Mr. Wittmer thinks this is a splendid location for box factories, etc., for the demand for fruit boxes and berry crates are always in good demand in California.

T. E. Epplett, who has located in this city and bought the west half of the C. E. Reynolds property, is the representative of the J. R. Watkins Medical Co. and any of those remedies can be obtained from him here. He has been over some parts of the country and a good many persons who have tried the Watkins' remedies are recommending them.

Fire completely destroyed the house belonging to Mrs. Foster near the southeast corner of the city on Saturday, and with it a new addition which was nearly completed. The fire originated in a fire, and although the hose company promptly responded, it could do no good, for the nearest hydrant was quite a distance from the fire and there was not enough hose to reach it, so nothing could be done to save the building, although plenty of willing hands arrived too late to stop the ravages of the fire fiend. Most of the furniture downstairs was saved. There was no insurance, so a subscription was taken up and $200 raised. As Mrs. Foster's son, Leon Berry, works at the saw mill, the Tillamook Lumbering Co. gave the logs and the mill crew gave the time to cut them up into lumber so that Mrs. Foster could have a new house built.

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows will celebrate the anniversary of that order to-morrow (Friday) in this city and a big time is expected. Dinner will be served at noon, and at one o'clock all Odd Fellows and Rebebs will march from their hall to the opera house where addresses will be made by Rev. A. E. Wingert, Judge W. Galloway, Mayor Botts and Claude Thayer, and in the evening there will be a dance at the opera house.

CIRCUIT COURT DOINGS.

Verdict for $750 for Mrs. Roenicke—The Alleged Libel Suit.

Judge W. Galloway is still presiding at the April term of the Circuit Court and the jury is still held in this city to try cases, but will, no doubt, be discharged in a day or so, as only one or two jury cases remain on the docket. The Roenicke case occupied three and a half days and the alleged libel suit against the editor of the Headlight one day. Today (Thursday) a jury is trying the Ryan vs. Watson libel suit. Cases which have been disposed of and still on the docket we give below:

Anna Roenicke vs Charles P. Nelson and Charles Ray. R. R. Duniway and Carl Haberlach for plaintiff. Damages, Talmage and Johnson for defendants. This was the case in which Mrs. Roenicke claimed $10,000 for damages for injuries received caused by the telephone line belonging to the defendants being down, which caused a runaway, in which Mrs. Roenicke was thrown out of her buggy and received bodily injuries of a permanent nature. This case was tried at the last term of the circuit court and the jury was unable to agree as to the amount that should be paid Mrs. Roenicke, so the case came up for trial again at this term of the circuit court. The case was carefully fought by the attorneys on both sides and the jury brought in a verdict for the plaintiff for $750.

B. J. Stephens vs Tillamook City, a Municipal Corporation, Damages, Talmage & Johnson for plaintiff, Carl Haberlach and H. T. Botts for defendant. This was a case where the plaintiff fenced up the road in front of his property because the city would not pay him for the land, which was torn down by the authorities. For this damage Stephens claimed $500 compensation. A legal point was raised as to its being used for a street for a number of years. The jury brought in a verdict for the plaintiff for $100. The defendant has moved for a new trial and the case may go to the supreme court.

Sim Earl vs Fred C. Baker. Libel, Talmage & Johnson for plaintiff, H. T. Botts for defendants. This was an alleged libel suit brought by Sim Earl against the defendant, who is the editor of the Tillamook Headlight, who made a mistake in printing the name of "Sim Earl" in the place of the name of "Jesse Earl." The defendant corrected the mistake in a subsequent issue and apologized to the plaintiff. When the case came to trial on Wednesday the defendant's counsel took the position that the cause of action did not constitute a libel, which was over ruled by Judge Galloway. The plaintiff went on the stand and did not testify that he had been damaged in any manner whatever, and the defendant having testified that it was simply a mistake he had committed, the judge instructed the jury to bring in a verdict for the plaintiff with nominal damages, which it did, placing the damages at $1.00. As the defendant had offered to allow the plaintiff to take judgment against him for $2.50 damages, which was refused, the cost of the case will fall upon Earl, amounting to probably over $25.

P. McIntosh vs Alex McNair. Action for money. R. R. Duniway and T. H. Govne for plaintiff, H. T. Botts for defendant.

Pacific Railway & Navigation Company, a corporation, vs Ralph Glover, et al. Condemnation. Wallace McCamant, C. B. Sternberg, C. Thayer and W. H. Holmes for plaintiff. Settled and dismissed.

K. G. Staples vs W. H. West, action for money. C. M. Ideman for plaintiff and A. W. Severance and H. T. Botts for defendant. Ordered that attachment proceedings be quashed.

Pacific Railway & Navigation Company vs Herbert W. Cardwell, et al, condemnation. Snow and McCamant for plaintiff. Dismissed as to Herbert Cardwell. Default of Abbie M. Cardwell and Helen R. Cardwell. Helen R. Cardwell appointed guardian.

Wm. Ryan vs Rollie W. Watson, libel, R. R. Duniway for plaintiff, Talmage & Johnson for defendant. Demurrer overruled. Trial set for Thursday.

Pacific Railway & Navigation Company, a corporation, vs Joseph Kodak, et al, condemnation. H. T. Botts, Wallace McCamant, C. Thayer and C. B. Sternberg for plaintiff.

Pacific Railway & Navigation Company, a corporation, vs Charles A. Elliott, et al, condemnation. H. T. Botts, Wallace McCamant, C. Thayer and C. B. Sternberg for plaintiff.
