What a contrast in two ministers of the Presbyterian church in this city. Dr. A. K. Baird was a scholarly, Christian gentleman. Rev. A. E. Wingert was a fraud, a deceiver and a dead beat. * * *

We've heard a good deal over here in this neck of the woods about the Salem hog. We have had two of the shoats in Tillamook the past few weeks imposing upon the people with a cheap jack map.

Young men who do not know enough to behave themselves, and who act ungentlemerly and uncivilized at public meetings, ought to be given a good stiff fine. If anything will teach them manners that ought to.
