

FOR SALE.

Wilson River Bottom Ranch.

We are now offering a place on the Wilson river for sale at a bargain. This place has 60 acres, about 55 acres of river bottom land, with house and barn and a full list of farm implements, also 23 head of good dairy cows, 5 head of young stock, good young team with wagon and harness. This place has about 20 acres in meadow and balance is all slashed off and in grass. Only a mile from Tillamook City. This is a place that will pay for itself in a few years. We now offer it for sale at $8500 on very easy terms. The personal property alone is worth $1500, which would make the land be selling at about $116 an acre. Where can you do better? Call and see me at once.

 We are sorry to announce the death of Mrs. Ella Ross Hays, widow of the late Robert Hays, which occurred on Thursday in Portland, after a lingering illness, the cause of death being due to cancer, from which she had been suffering for a number of years. The remains will be brought to Tillamook for burial. Obituary notice next week.
 John Branch, an old soldier 83 years old, brought to the Soldier's Home from Tillamook last week, was operated on yesterday afternoon at the home hospital by Dr. E. V. Hoover, assisted by Dr. W. S. Hamilton, of this city, and Dr. C. J. Hoover, of Myrtle Creek. The patient was suffering from gangrene of the right foot and it was necessary to have the right limb amputated a few inches below the knee. The operation was a most successful one, and considering the old gentleman's age he stood it well and is reported as resting quite easy today. The left limb of the patient was taken off some years ago at the same place as the last operation occurred.—Umpqua Valley News.
 Dairymen received over 12c. more per pound for butter fat for May than for the corresponding month last year, and to prove this we give below the figures just paid to the dairymen for May, being the highest in the history of the county for that month: Maple Leaf, 35c.; Clover Leaf, 35 1/2c.; Pleasant Valley, 33.5c.; Three Rivers, 35 1/2c.; Tillamook Creamery, 35.7c.; Alder Vale (Beals' factory at Nehalem), 34c.; Fair view, 34c.; Long Prairie, 34.5c.; Red Clover, 34.7c. For the month of May, Carl Haberlach, who is secretary for eight creameries, two of which, however, are only small, sold the cheese made at these factories at the rate of $1,000 a day, bringing $30,000 for the month. It took 2,082,000 pounds of milk and this made 215,000 pounds of cheese, the output of eight factories for one month.

 We have to announce the death of Mrs. Mary Larsen, wife of Mr. M. H. Larsen, which took place in this city on Thursday morning. She was 72 years old, and had been sick for about a month. Deceased was born in Quebec, Canada, her maiden name being Mrs. Alice Yale. She was first married to Mr. Hush, who with his wife, were washed out from their home on the Wilson river, and when found he was dead besides a log and his wife was nearly so. About 19 years ago she married Mr. M. H. Larsen, who survives her. Mrs. Larsen was a good and industrious woman, kindly disposed and her friends will be sorry to hear of her death. The funeral service will take place in the parlor of the Larsen house, conducted by Rev. D. L. Shrode, pastor of the M. E., at two o'clock on Saturday afternoon and the interment in the Odd-fellows' cemetery.

 The M. E. parsonage was the scene of a pretty wedding Tuesday evening, when Mr. Robert Donaldson and Miss Virginia Woodward were united in marriage by Rev. L. F. Belknap. A few school mates and friends from Forest Grove and Hillsboro were present and the Misses Olive and Barbara Naley, cousins of the bride, from Portland, were present. Miss Maud Hollinger was bridesmaid, Mr. Harry Weitzel was best man and Miss Lorena Belknap maid of honor. The wedding march was played by Miss Pearl Grear. The bride was dressed in white silk and carried white roses. The bride's home is in Wardner, Idaho, and is a friend of the Belknap family, having made her home with them while attending Pacific University, Forest Grove. Mr. Donaldson is a highly respected and prosperous young man of Tillamook. They left Wednesday for Tillamook.—Hillsboro Independent.

 Died, on the 19th inst., Pansy Blossom, the beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Hobson, after a short illness, aged 8 years. The funeral service was at the house and the interment in the Bay View cemetery. She was an affectionate, kind and loving child, the delight of fond parents, and the sunshine of a once happy home is gone. No longer will her merry laugh reach through the home. No longer will her smiling face dispel the gloom of winter's night. She is gone, gone from us for ever; gone to that happy home above, gone to join the angels, singing round the throne of Him who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, for of such is the kingdom of God." May the blessing of Him who rules the destinies of all be with the stricken parents in this sad hour of their bereavement, and lead them in that blessed way till they meet their daughter in that heavenly home where there will be no parting. Not dead, but sleeping.—C. J. Astoria papers please copy.

WALKER CHARGES CONSPIRACY.

Promoter Attacks Hereinan About Tillamook Railroad Deal.

NEW YORK, June 24.—A suit was started today in the United States Circuit Court by Henry M. Walker, a resident of New Jersey, against Edward H. Harriman and other defendants, alleging breach of contract and conspiracy to prevent construction of the Portland, Nehalem & Tillamook Railway, in Oregon. In his complaint Mr. Walker places two monetary damages at $500,000. Two corporate defendants and 29 other individuals have not been served, and for this reason their names have been withheld by the court.

Mr. Walker says he was employed in 1905 by the officials of the Portland, Nehalem & Tillamook Railway to float its bonds in London and make arrangements with a California corporation, also named as one of the defendants, to advance $500,000 to be used in constructing the railway, the security to be bonds of the railway company. An issue of $3,000,000 of bonds was to be disposed of by him, for which he was to receive a commission of 15 per cent, 2400 shares of stock and $45,000 in cash. The issue of bonds was to be delivered to him in London, where he entered into an agreement with the London Share & Debiture Company, which was to advance the sum of $2,400,000 on the bonds.

Walker said the bonds were not delivered to him, and on his return to the United States he found that the president of the corporation, and its board of directors had refused to sign the bonds. Mr. Walker also asserts that he found "that by trick and device the charter and property of the railway had been transferred to Elmer E. Lytle, an agent of E. H. Harriman, and all the capital stock of the road has been rendered practically worthless through the influence of Mr. Harriman." He says also, that Mr. Harriman and associates brought about the insolvency of the California company, which had contracted to loan the money to the railway for construction purposes. The complaint of Mr. Walker says that Mr. Harriman and his associates are bitterly opposed to the construction of this railway, or any other in that vicinity, fearing it would interfere with their ownership and monopoly in that part of the state.

Mr. Walker asks that a receiver be appointed for the property, that officers of the company be ordered to sign the issue of bonds, account to him for 2400 shares of stock they have wrongfully withheld from and pay $35,000 legally due him. He further asks the cancellation of all transfers made by Mr. Harriman or the latter's agents, and that the road be restored its franchise by the state of Oregon.

Mr. Walker's story has been heard here before, but the man and his con-

Small as well as Accounts

Large ones are welcome here. "I do not have enough money to pay to trouble you with it," is the reason given by many for not opening a bank account. Two or three hundred accounts of $25.00 or $50.00 each, however, make the bank a far better business than would one account as large as the two or three hundred put together.
