We suppose that Charley's Tillamook Guards will run in anyone who may misconduct themselves at the Fair.

To make the annual Tillamook County Fair an Street Carnival a success it is necessary for everybody interested, especially the committees, to get busy at once.

The strike mania appears to have started in earnest, the telegraphers having gone out this week. We would suggest that the Oregon editors go on strike for eight hours work, eight hours sleep, eight hours recreation and eight dollars a day.

Those who think that 50¢ an inch per month for business ads. is too high have a poor opinion as to the cost of running a newspaper. The Tillamook newspapers are doing this work too cheap, for it ought to be 75¢ per inch, and $1 would be somewhere near what it is worth.

There are quite a number who are desirous of wearing the senatorial togas, but Charley Fulton is good enough and there is no need to make a change. But it is the same old plan. No sooner does a person get into office, when others, to get into office themselves, make plans to defeat them. Oregon will gain nothing by keep changing the delegation at Washington.

Last year a large number of dairymen and others appeared to regret that they had not entered their stock in the stock show and exhibited their products, for it was their opinion that they would have carried off the premium had they done so. Those who have stock or any farm products worth exhibiting should send it in, for there ought to be a fine display of farm products at the county fair.

Those who take interest in improving the breed of their dairy and other stock should make a point of exhibiting a few animals at the County Fair next week. By doing so it will not only give people an opportunity of seeing what they are doing, but it will make a good show. Most every dairyman has a cow or horse that is worth exhibiting, or other stock, and it is to be hoped that they will enter them for the fair.

The Bogey Men who predicted that if Lane county went "dry" Eugene would be dead and the business would drop out of that classic city. From all accounts Eugene is putting on metropolitan airs quite rapidly, growing faster and doing more business than any valley town. We are inclined to ask whether Eugene's Bogey Men have gone on a summer's vacation, to avoid the rush of business and the live corpse which is making things hum in Lane county.

The year 1907 will be the banner year for profitable dairying in Tillamook county, and although previous years have been highly profitable, the prevailing high prices for butter fat will cap the climax, fully demonstrating again that Tillamook is an ideal county for successful dairying. One important feature about dairying in this county is the fact that dairymen raise their own feed, and as to crop failures, cyclones, blizzards, excessive heat or intense cold, this is a matter which does not concern the people of Tillamook county, for they are unknown here. With the cheese market again on the jump, and with the assurance that the price of cheese will continue high for the remainder of the year, it is plain to see that this is going to be the banner year for high prices, and if this county could have produced twice the amount of cheese there would still be the great demand for the famous Tillamook cheese, which is at a premium on the markets. We give below the price of butter fat at several of the factories for the first six months of this year, and it is no uncommon thing for dairymen to receive from $12 to $14 per month for each cow in their dairy herds. These figures are furnished by Mr. Carl Haberlach, who is the secretary to factories:

Meadow Leaf Creamery—January, 32.2c.; February, 34c.; March, 35.5c.; April, 34.6c.; May, 35c.; June, 33c.

Obituary Notice.

Mrs. Lizzie Beals, mother of Mr. F. R. Beals and Representative A. G. Beals, who died on the 5th August in Portland, had been ailing for several years, and as a last alternative a surgical operation was resorted to, which resulted in her death at the Good Samaritan hospital, where she had been taken from here two weeks previous. The remains were brought back and laid to rest in the Odd-fellows' cemetery on Thursday of last week, a number of friends attending the funeral in token of respect with the bereaved relatives. For Mrs. Beals was a woman who was much respected by all who knew her. Deceased was born in Canada in 1845, her maiden name being Miss Lizzie Loveland. Her parents removed to Pennsylvania when she was quite young, where she resided until coming to Tillamook three years ago. She was married to Mr. Horace Beals in 1861. Of the marriage two children were born, F. R. and A. G. Beals. Mrs. Beals began a Christian life and united with the Christian church when but a child. She always took an active part in Christian work and was for years Sabbath school superintendent. She established a flourishing Sabbath school at Fairview, in this county, but was obliged to give up the work because of declining health. In the East, where she resided, she was respected and loved by all who knew her. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in the loss of a loving and affectionate mother.

FATAL SAW MILL ACCIDENT E. M. Porter Caught in Machinery and Whirled Over Flywheel.

A fatal accident happened on Saturday afternoon at the Mission Lumber Company's saw mill at Holstonville, when E. M. Porter, who has worked in the mill for a number of years, being employed as oiler, was caught by the shaft and thrown onto the flywheel, making a complete revolution between the belt and wheel. He was lubricating the machinery at the time when his clothes caught, and as soon as the accident was discovered the machinery was stopped. Drs. R. T. Beals, of this city, and Dr. W. C. Hawk, of Bay City, were called and found that the unfortunate man's left shoulder was mangled, the left arm broken in several places, the top of the lung crushed, and the head badly cut and bruised, but little hope was entertained as to his recovery, for the amount of hemorrhage made this almost impossible. He died at two o'clock on Sunday morning, having retained consciousness long enough to tell how the accident happened. The remains were buried on Monday in the Oddfellows' cemetery.

Deceased was a native of this state, and was born at Forest Grove, Washington County, August 29th, 1853. His age at the time of his death was 53 years, 11 months, 13 days.

He was the eldest of three children born to Robert M. and Caroline Porter, and is survived by but one member of the family, a sister, Tabitha J. Cooper, wife of Deputy District Attorney W. H. Cooper, who resides in Tillamook City.

His parents were Oregon pioneers, and his grand-parents crossed the plains in the early 40's, the grandfather on his mother's side having come to Oregon with his mother, Tabitha Brown, who was one of the founders of the Pacific University at Forest Grove.

In 1885, Mr. Porter came to Tillamook county, where he lived to the time of his death.

He was an upright, conscientious citizen and a believer in Christianity, having been for many years a church adherent. In disposition he was gentle and retiring, always having had a few close friends; and above all, was ever found faithful in the performance of whatever duties lay before him.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period, that determines its duration, seem to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this juncture, then being strongly urged, carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by Chas. I. Clough, druggist, 50c.

Endorsed by the County.

"The most popular remedy in Otsego County, and the best friend of my family," writes Wm. M. Diez, editor and publisher of the Otsego Journal, Gilbertsville, N.Y., "is Dr. King's New Discovery. It has proved to be an infallible cure for coughs and colds, making short work of the worst of them. We always keep a bottle in our house. I believe it to be the most valuable prescription known for Lung and Throat diseases." Guaranteed to never disappoint the taker, by Chas. I. Clough's Drug store. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, Better Than Three Doctors.

"Three years ago we had three doctors with our little boy and everything that they could do seemed in vain. At last when all hope seemed to be gone we began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and in a few hours he began to improve. Today he is as healthy a child as parents could wish for."—Mrs. B. J. JOHNSTON, Linton, Miss. For sale by Clough's Drug Store.
