THE TILLAMOOK LIARS.

Effort to Injure the Tillamook County Bank.

HARRISON DEFENDS BANK.

Calls the Prevaricators of the South a Band of Cut Throats.

EDITOR TILLAMOOK HEADLIGHT.

In consideration of the fact that certain unprincipled persons are circulating malicious and unfounded stories in regard to the affairs of the Tillamook County Bank, I take this method of stating the facts in regard to their falsehoods.

It has been reported to me at various places that we were making large and repeated loans to Fred Beals. That Beals has carried out from the bank thousands of dollars to float his real estate deals. We have at this time four loans that have been taken at the solicitation of Mr. Beals to the total amount of $10,000. These are all amply secured, and if any depositor wishes to know the names of them I will be pleased to show them. He will call at the bank. We have also been criticized in regard to a loan made in connection with Cohn & Co.'s sale. This loan has been fully repaid and no longer appears on our books.

At the time the saw mill burned it was common talk among a certain class that we were heavy creditors and would sustain a great loss on account of loans to the Tillamook Lumbering Company. Our enterprising president paid it at $15,000.00. We wish to state that their indebtedness to us has been largely reduced since the fire and the balance is secured by more than twice the amount of the loan. If any depositor wishes to know anything in regard to this loan I will be pleased to have him call at the bank.

It has also been stated repeatedly that we loaned G. F. Zimmerman $4,000.00 on a timber claim. We have loaned to Mr. Zimmerman on one timber claim and house with four lots in Tillamook, $1,500.00. He has since sold the house with one lot for $700.00, and six hundred of this was paid on the mortgage, leaving a balance of $650.00, secured by timber claim and three vacant lots in Turner's addition to Tillamook. We also loaned Mr. Zimmerman $1,400.00 on another timber claim and a one-half interest in thirty-five lots in the new addition laid off from the Hays tract. Part of this has been paid, so that in reality these mortgages amount to $1,500.00, secured by two timber claims, three lots in Turner's addition and half interest in the Sunny Mead addition, or Hays tract.

We have also been criticized for making a loan to Mason Bros. This loan was for $2,500, secured by mortgage on the lot and building now occupied by them. The notes were signed by Homer and wife and Albert Mason and secured by their full personal responsibility, in consideration of the fact that they have $13,000.00 of their money invested and that they are prudent and capable business men. I consider this note gilt edged.

It has also been stated that I, or the bank, have $4,000.00 invested in "that" meaning the excavation for the new building. I am a subscriber to the stock in the building company for eight hundred dollars worth of stock. There have been assessed and paid on this stock $466.66. This is my total investment in "the hole," up to the present time.

Tillamook County Bank has not, nor has had at any time one cent invested with the Tillamook Building Company. If this band of cut-throats wish to make any further false statement, I am ready to answer them, and will be pleased to have anyone inform me of what they say. M. W. HARRISON.

A Guarantee.

Tillamook, Or., Nov. 21st., 1907.
TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

In view of certain false and malicious reports which have been and are still being circulated by unprincipled parties, to the effect that the Tillamook County Bank is in an unsound condition and that its depositors are in danger of losing their money, the undersigned, in order to give additional assurance to any who might be inclined to be uneasy by reason of such reports, hereby guarantee to each and all of the depositors of said bank that so long as said bank is under our management they shall not lose one cent of their money deposited therein.

M. W. HARRISON.
H. T. BOTTS.
CARL HABERLACH.

Another Stab at Tillamook County Bank.

The Tillamook County Bank has deeded the corner where G. A. Edmunds' store is for $2,900. The records show that this property was conveyed not so long ago to the bank for $3,500.—Tillamook Herald.

The above article was evidently written to cause people to believe that the Tillamook County Bank had lost six hundred dollars on the Cohn Building. The facts are as follows and are well known to the person who wrote the article.

We furnished the money, $3,500.00, to buy the Cohn Building, and took a note, secured by a trust deed, to the Cohn Building and eighty acres of timber land, with a personal guarantee by one of Tillamook's leading business men.

There has been paid up to this time six hundred dollars and interest on the note. We then sold the note to George Cohn and transferred the security to him for the balance due, $2,900.00, on the note.

If the man who writes articles for the Herald wishes to cast any more reflections on our business let him go ahead as he is welcome to all profits derived from that source.
