The STORE that MAKES GOOD!

TODD & CO.,

The Clothiers and Furnishers.

We are still doing business at the old stand. We are not making any sensational sales or clearance sales.

We never mark our goods up in order to make reductions.

We sell at a fair profit, not at cost. We make one price to all, and that as low as possible for a successful business.

We appreciate your patronage, and shall treat you in the future as we have in the past.

We will take CLEARANCE HOUSE CERTIFICATES in trade on your account or note.

We believe they are perfectly good, and should be taken by every one without hesitation. They are backed by the very best securities to the amount of one and one half times the face of each certificate, and will be redeemed February 1st, 1908.

Anyone telling you that these certificates are not good is either ignorant or has no good motive in view.

All those owing accounts of over 30 days, call and settle, we want the money because it is due us.

In conclusion let us state that we are headquarters for everything that men wear.

We are the oldest firm doing business in Tillamook City. Call and see us at the old stand.

TODD & CO.,

TILLAMOOK,

OREGON.

When you want Hams, Bacon and Lard, go to the J. D. Jones Packing Company, who supplies the wholesale and retail trade with the best home cured meats. You will save money by trading with this company.

As the voters on Monday were terribly confused in voting for or against prohibiting poultry and stock running at large, petitions are being circulated in each of the wards to ascertain how each of the voters intended to cast their ballots.

Below we give the assessment of taxable property in the six road districts of Tillamook County, compiled from the tax roll by County Clerk G. B. Lamb:

No. 1	$1,977,596
No. 2	1,665,735
No. 3	2,252,070
No. 4	1,316,600
No. 5	516,441
No. 6	457,330
Total	$8,186,472

THE CITY ELECTION.

Cows and Chicken are to be Kept Up Within the City.

The city election on Monday passed off quietly, with a little more interest in the result, as the large number of votes cast plainly show, there being 222 votes cast. There was no opposition to Sidney S. Johnson for mayor and J. S. Stephens, but J. C. Holden met with slight opposition in the voting, friends of Thos. Coates getting together and casting their ballot for him, who polled 60 votes. The principal fight centered on city marshal, G. F. Zimmerman being the caucus nominee. Zimmerman is a prohibitionist, and strange as it may appear, he was supported for that office by what is known as the "wet" faction, probably for the reason that they thought they could elect him and not one of their own crowd. E. A. Edwards, who made a good street commissioner, was nominated by petition, but Zimmerman beat him by 21 votes. The only two caucus nominees who were defeated were R. W. Watson, the voters "discriminating" against the ex-editor in favor of G. B. Lamb, but what caused some surprise was the defeat of S. A. Brodhead by Carl Haberlach for water commissioner from the third ward. Mr. Brodhead is the president of the commission and one of its most active members, and whether drawing out so large amounts of money and depriving the city of funds to help out the water commission had anything to do with his defeat we do not know. Although he declined the nomination for water commissioner at large, Carl A. Patzlaf was elected, defeating Fred Christensen, who had been nominated by petition on account of Mr. Patzlaf announcing that he would not accept, and did not want his name placed on the ballot. Mr. Patzlaf is a good man for the place, and one of those who believe there was a "graft" when the system was put in. E. Hong ran against W. O. Chase in the first ward, but the latter controlled the ward. J. W. Hill was the "dark horse" in the fourth ward, but it failed to work. There was some fiction during the day between Mr. Zimmerman and the members of the city council, the bone of contention being the cause of Zimmerman's dismissal as special policeman and night watchman, the city councilmen issuing the following notice, with their signatures attached:

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

Owing to the fact that G. F. Zimmerman is reporting around that he was dismissed from his position as special policeman and night watchman for political purposes, we wish to state to the public that such is not the case, but that he was dismissed for neglect of duty, and that we did not feel justified in paying out public money for services that were not rendered.

W. C. KING,
A. T. WHITE,
G. MUSHROE,
J. P. ALLEN,
Members of the City Council.

The result was as follows:
Mayor—Sidney S. Johnson.
Recorder—J. C. Holden.
Treasurer—J. S. Stephens.
Marshal—G. F. Zimmerman.
Councilmen:
1st ward—W. O. Chase.

2nd ward—G. P. Wilt.
3rd ward—Ralph Ackley.
4th ward—C. Van Patten.
5th ward—G. B. Lamb.
Water Commissioners:
At large—Carl A. Patzlaf.
2nd ward—M. F. Leach.
3rd ward—Carl Haberlach.

In the vote to prohibit the running of stock and poultry at large, this was carried by a vote of 97 for "Yes" and 92 for "No." There appeared to be a good deal of misunderstanding how to vote on this question. A number of voters who wanted stock and poultry kept up voted to have them run at large, while on the other hand quite a number who were opposed to keeping the stock up, voted to do so, and on that account it is plainly seen that the voters did not vote intelligently and it is hard to tell which side really won until another vote is taken. There was one voter who did not vote for any of the candidates, but voted to have the stock and poultry run at large.

Mr. Sidney S. Johnson, who was elected mayor of this city on Monday without opposition, is a young attorney who came to Tillamook about two years ago to practice law, and he is gradually rising in his profession, and on that account it is generally thought that he will make a good mayor and give the city a good administration, with laws enforced and the peace and dignity of the city well looked after. Mr. Johnson is a native of Texas, and he entered the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis in 1885, as midshipman, resigning in 1887. He spent two years as observer in U.S. Weather Bureau in 1888-80, during which time he studied law at Iowa College of Law, Des Moines, Iowa, and was admitted to practice in Supreme Court of Texas in 1890, and practiced law in Tyler, Texas, until 1897. He went to the State of Washington in that year and engaged in mining for four years, except four months and three days during the Spanish-American war, which were spent as a corporal in the 16th U.S. Infantry. In 1901 he enlisted in the 28th regular Infantry and went to the Philippines, where he took part in the last campaign in Luzon against the Philippine General Malvar. Following this, he went with his regiment to the Island of Mindanao, P.I., and saw one year's service in Major R. G. Bullard's expedition against the Moros of Mindanao. He was honorably discharged from the army in September, 1903, and was appointed a government clerk, but soon after began the practice of law in Manila. His health failed him in March, 1904, when he went to China and then returned to the United States. He came to Tillamook in November, 1905, where he has since practiced law, first forming a law firm with Claude Thayer for several months, and later with C. W. Talmage.
