Quite a number of business men and others who wanted N. J. Myers for night watchman have agreed to pay him $25 a month in addition to the regular salary paid by the city. As Mayor Johnson is opposed to Myers he has served notice on him and some of the councilmen are of the opinion that he will not sign the warrants for his pay. As they do not want to part with Myers at the oil well, he has not decided whether he will take the job,

Captain Robert Jones took command at Astoria of the gasoline schooner Evie, succeeding Captain Thos. Latham. She was towed to Astoria last week from Nehalem, where she had been bound for six weeks. The Vosburg will go out of commission for the balance of the winter.

The Ladies' Guild of the Presbyterian church wishes to express its thanks to the late president (Mrs. Sarchet) for her very capable and faithful work during the past year, and to all the friends of the Guild who have helped in so many kind ways in the past.

Prof. Rutherford received a letter last week from Prin. Garman, of the Astoria High School announcing that the Astoria debating team, consisting of Miss Birdie Wise, Miss Jennie Jeffries, and Mr. Carl Thomas will be here about Jan. 16. The home team has been doing hard work since the selection about a month ago, and will be well prepared for the debate.

Be sure to hear the debate between Tillamook and Astoria High Schools about Jan. 16. This is the first time that a Tillamook County School has had an opportunity to participate in in-terscholastic contests of the state and should be of interest to all Tillamook people. Posters will be sent out announcing the exact date, as soon as it is known.

Her sleep disturbed by nightmare, in which she thought some cruel person was pulling her hair, Mrs. J. N. Young, 38 years of age, who arrived at Los Angeles from Tillamook, Or., sprang screaming from her bed in an apartment house on Elm avenue, Long Beach, Cal., shortly after midnight and leaped through a window of heavy glass to the ground five feet below. Here she was seized and awakened. The woman's feet were gashed by the glass and the knuckles of her hands were lacerated.
She bled profusely until her wounds were dressed by Dr. Seth C. Felt, who had been called in by the landlord.

E. E. Lytle, president of the Pacific Railway & Navigation Co., is absent from Portland on a business trip, which will include New Orleans and the larger Eastern cities. It was given out at the office of the company on Friday that in all probability work on the "Lytle" road will not be resumed until the president returns, which will be about six weeks.
The resumption will also depend on the state of the weather in the mountains between Hillsboro and Tillamook. As it is understood that Mr. Lytle is in the East trying to arrange for the money to complete the road, it is not likely that work will start up before spring, even if he is successful, although an effort may be made before then to get the organization together before that.

A number of the business men have been receiving letters from the Portland business houses informing them that the O. R. & N Co. and the A. & C. R. railroad will not receive freight for Tillamook.

The cause of this is that freight has been accumulating to such an extent on the docks at Astoria, it is taking up too much room. The freight for Tillamook has been piling up there since last fall, when the steamer Sge H. Elmore was taken off the run and sent south with Svinnel Elmore's cannery supplies, which demoralizes the freight business between Astoria and Tillamook every time the steamer is taken off for that purpose.
How much freight there is at Astoria we do not know, but it must be considerable, as the two railroad companies will not accept freight for Tillamook. Then followed storm after storm during December, when the steamer was unable to get out but a few times. Owing to the delay, merchants were without flour for over a week, and when the steamer did come in she had flour for one merchant, the other merchants thinking that they were being discriminated against. The merchants have run out of other articles and last week all the feed was sold out.
A subscriber writes:
"We are lost, or gone astray like the lost sheep of Israel, when we don't get the Headlight, as that is a means by which we are posted on the doings of the railroad prospects, and we wish to know about our old neighbors, their doings and health."

Better out the booze selling and the gambling out. Some few persons will go to jail. But, perhaps, it won't stop before they have served time.

Give the devil his due, the snap shot man succeeds every once in a while getting in a good lick of advertising for the county. But, somehow, one gets little credit—in Tillamook—for that kind of work.

Councilman Chase made the assertion on Monday night that it cost the city, for the amount of work that was done, $10 a day. If that is true, the city diads are certainly in a position to remedy it, by keeping tab on the amount of work performed and the number of hours put in by the new street commissioner. We think that this is a business way to proceed.

Good! Bully for Tillamook! It has a Czar for mayor! His honor, Mayor Johnson, went to the room of a visitor at the Allen House and told the party, so it is reported, that if he did not leave the city at once he would get his neck stretched. The autocrat of all the neckcrats is going to make a record for himself in this little kingdom of Tillamook.
Why, it's quite a joke.

The Hillsboro Independent says:
"The pardoning of Hembree, the Sand-lake murderer, by Gov. Chamberlain has caused a good deal of indignation from all parts of the state. The jury before whom he was tried stood 11 to 1 for conviction of one of the most diabolical murders ever perpetrated in this state.
The people of Tillamook feel very sore at the governor for letting Hembree loose, for the general verdict there and in Yamhill county is that he should have been hung."

Mayor Johnson has taken a wrong course in attempting to coerce the city council, for such autocratic tactics will not and should not prevail. Whatever little personal differences there may be between the mayor and Myers is a matter which does not concern the citizens.
Both should put their personal feelings aside and work together harmoniously.
We see no reason why they cannot if they are reasonable, sensible men and want to do what is right. The question uppermost in the minds of the business men and the citizens is to secure the services of the best night watchman. The city council thought Myers would fill the bill and elected him. Now the mayor wants to override the majority of the city council. People are not concerned one iota about any personal feelings between the mayor and Myers, and it is a mistake to force it upon the city. They would show good horse sense if they would bury hatchet. It is a well known fact that in previous city elections those who violated the law always opposed, those who were for the enforcement of law, and, probably, if the truth was known, this is the real cause to the opposition to Myers, for they know he will do his duty. If Tillamook City had had officers who had done this in years gone by it could have collected thousands of dollars in fines.

We are glad to see that Mayor Johnson is so optimistic about the water system, for he says "I conclude that the time has about arrived when the income from this water system will be sufficient to pay the greater part of the city's expense." The mayor having expressed his opinion, others have a right to express theirs. We think that the mayor will be an old man, with gray hair and whiskers, probably, of the same color, when this takes place. For this reason: Including this year's taxes for the water system, which will be nearly $3,000, the money paid the water system through taxation will amount to approximately, about $10,000, and there does not appear to be any let up to this extra taxation, only promises of doing so every year, but the levy for the water system continues to be made. But it depends upon whose goggles one looks at this matter, for another person can truthfully say, instead of the system helping to pay the city's expenses, the money that is raised by taxation to help out the water system is enough to run the city. Hence we cannot be so optimistic as Mayor Johnson with this fact confronting us.
