

Tillamook Land & Investment Company. Excellent facilities for handling Dairy Ranches, Timber Lands and City Property.

The Tillamook Lumbering Co. having a large amount of Fur Logs on hand, made arrangements with Frank Long to saw the same.

THE NEW BAKERY, Next to Mason Bros. Department Store. All kinds of Confectionery, Pies and Cakes.

Opened Up for Business. SAPPINGTON & CO. A Full Line of Groceries, Flour, Feed, Tinware, and Crockery.

The Best Hotel. ALLEN HOUSE, J. P. ALLEN, Proprietor. quarters for Travelling Men.

A. K. CASE, PROPRIETOR. Tillamook Iron Works General Machinists & Blacksmiths.

I have just opened up the most complete line of STAPLE & FANCY GROCERIES. Tillamook, all new and Fresh.

The Bugle Call. Tillamook High School News and Society Paper.

Tillamook, Oregon, March 6, 1908.

EDITORS: CICERONIANS—ELIZA DAWSON AND ELSIE SCOVELL. EMERSONIANS—ELMER ALLEN AND CARL DAWSON.

Marion Hare, of the senior class, is sick this week. This breaks rather a remarkable record for Marion.

When four of Mr. Pike's wives called to see him at the House of Representatives last Thursday evening they were refused admittance.

The high school girls have organized a Senate, for you know the Legislature would not be complete without one.

At the meeting of the Senate on Thursday evening, Miss Lister was elected president and Miss McKimens was elected clerk.

Rain, snow and the grippe are the order of the day. Dr. Boals was called to L. A. Hoyt's Monday, who is suffering with a stroke of paralysis.

Mr. G. H. Robison went to Pleasant Valley yesterday after another load of his household goods.

Mr. Gray, of East Creek, is visiting her daughter at Blaine. Eddie and Johnnie Creecy are clearing a piece of land to put in oats.

Mr. Gray, of East Creek, has been over on Boulier putting a new boiler in Mr. Gladwell's cheese factory.

Any one who is interested in selecting a college to attend would do well to call at the high school library.

The high school spring poet says: "Spring has come again, And we welcome it in: The farmers are planting their spuds."

The Tillamook High School building was built in 1903 at a cost of $8500. It is a two story building containing eight large, well-lighted school rooms.

The Emersonian and Ciceroian Literary Societies were organized by Prof. Whitney, the first year of the high school.

This year Prof. Rutherford started a business course in the high school, in addition to the regular Latin course.

The enrollment in the high school for the first year, 1904, was forty-five, including ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades.

John Creecy, Mr. Woods, Seth Moon, Carl and Forrest Ayer went to the Hub Monday.

Miss Rena Moon has returned from Tillamook, where she has been attending High School.

Mr. Gray, of East Creek, has been over on Boulier putting a new boiler in Mr. Gladwell's cheese factory.

Blaine has been rather dull this week, but will try and do better next time.

Good for Everybody. Mr. Norman R. Coulter, a prominent architect, in the Delbert Building, San Francisco, says: "I fully endorse all that has been said of Electric Bitters."

Marselles is shipping beans to Boston in British ships, which suggests that Faneuil Hall should speak and let the world know what is going wrong.

A lecturer says that one of the lessons of the flurry is that the people of the United States should improve processes and expand markets.

"Anything that is right must prevail," said Gov. Hughes to the woman suffrage delegation, and he suggested that a majority among the women themselves would help.

President Roosevelt rarely undertakes anything beyond his great powers of perseverance, endurance and recuperation, but he seems to be in very deep water concerning the removal of the United States troops from Goldfield.

The muckrakers assailing the American Navy are of the same class that raised a hullabaloo over the Panama Canal, and insisted that it would be nothing but a hole in the ground.

No Use to Die. "I have found out that there is no use to die of lung trouble as long as you can get Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. J. P. White, of Rushboro.

Best Healer in the World. Rev. F. Starbird, of East Raymond, Maine, says: "I have used Huxley's Arnica Salve for several years, on my sore, and find it the best healer in the world."

As Advertised. I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and found it to be all claimed for it in the advertisements.

SANDLAKE. Rain, snow and the grippe are the order of the day.

Mr. Seth F. Moon expects to leave with his family this week for his new home in California.

Mr. Elkins has slashed a large tract of good land for Mr. Bays, on the C. A. Smith ranch.

Mr. Gray, of East Creek, has been over on Boulier putting a new boiler in Mr. Gladwell's cheese factory.

TEA There's plenty of humbug in tea; not one ounce in a ton Schilling's Best.

BLAINE. R. O. Richards has moved back to his summer residence on Nob Hill and has begun making cheese.

Mr. Gray, of East Creek, has been over on Boulier putting a new boiler in Mr. Gladwell's cheese factory.

Blaine is now in the midst of civilization. The men met last Saturday and raised the new school bell.

Mr. Carl doesn't believe in burning for he is building a wood shed.

BLAINE. R. O. Richards has moved back to his summer residence on Nob Hill and has begun making cheese.

John Creecy, Mr. Woods, Seth Moon, Carl and Forrest Ayer went to the Hub Monday.

Miss Rena Moon has returned from Tillamook, where she has been attending High School.

Mr. Gray, of East Creek, has been over on Boulier putting a new boiler in Mr. Gladwell's cheese factory.

Blaine is now in the midst of civilization. The men met last Saturday and raised the new school bell.

Gene Rowland has been plowing a piece of ground down at Ralph Bundy's for oats. Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ayer spent the week with Mrs. Ayer's mother. The Jones boys have been cutting wood for the school house the past week. We hear that the bears are getting quite plentiful around Blaine. They ran some of Mr. Cady's cows in the river last week. John and Dee Moon have finished grubbing for R. O. Richards. The new bridge across East creek has been completed. Mr. Rowland has completed his sheep shed. Prof. Walker has been putting new seats in the school house. Mrs. Mills, of Boulder, has been visiting Mrs. Cady the past week. While Mr. Seth Moon and family was at church Sunday their many friends gathered at their home and had the table groaning beneath its weight of good things when they returned. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Seth Moon, Rena Ray, Roy and Inez Moon, Mr. and Mrs. Carl, Attie, Alvis, Carl Harley, Leona, Jennie and Gladys Carl, Mr. and Mrs. Rowland, Rex, Mary and Andy Rowland, Mr. F. Welsh, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Moon, Mr. J. T. Moon, Mrs. L. P. Gray, Nettie, Max and Perry Grey, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ayer, Sewell Ayer, Mr. and Mrs. Woods, Allie, Roy, Ray, Jesse Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Creecy, John and Ed Creecy, Mr. and Mrs. P. Coulson, Fred, Robert and Crystal Coulson, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Richards, Noah Richards, Grandpa Coulson, Mr. and Mrs. Hollett, Chester Leona, Harold, Fred, Hurschel, Walter and Thelma Hollett, Mrs. Cady, Mrs. Mills, Mabel Cady, Stella Yarnell, Ed, Bailey, Ben Comer, Hugh Welsh, Will Yarnell. They all were nicely entertained by music and before the company dispersed they all had their picture taken. Mr. Editor, you should have been there. We would have shown you a good time. Blaine has been rather dull this week, but will try and do better next time. Good for Everybody. Mr. Norman R. Coulter, a prominent architect, in the Delbert Building, San Francisco, says: "I fully endorse all that has been said of Electric Bitters as a tonic medicine. It is good for everybody. It corrects stomach, liver and kidney disorders in a prompt and efficient manner and builds up the system." Electric Bitters is the best spring medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter; as a blood purifier it is unequalled. 50c. at Chas. I. Clough's drug store. Marselles is shipping beans to Boston in British ships, which suggests that Faneuil Hall should speak and let the world know what is going wrong. A lecturer says that one of the lessons of the flurry is that the people of the United States should improve processes and expand markets. The advice is always in order. We are doing pretty well as it is, with exports and balance of trade running higher than ever. "Anything that is right must prevail," said Gov. Hughes to the woman suffrage delegation, and he suggested that a majority among the women themselves would help. The governor appears to have met the crisis with due discretion. President Roosevelt rarely undertakes anything beyond his great powers of perseverance, endurance and recuperation, but he seems to be in very deep water concerning the removal of the United States troops from Goldfield. The muckrakers assailing the American Navy are of the same class that raised a hullabaloo over the Panama Canal, and insisted that it would be nothing but a hole in the ground, were more than a billion would be wasted. These sensationalists quit when they run against facts. No Use to Die. "I have found out that there is no use to die of lung trouble as long as you can get Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. J. P. White, of Rushboro. "I would not be alive to day only for this wonderful medicine. It loosens up a cures lung disease even after the case is pronounced hopeless." This most reliable remedy for coughs and colds, laryngitis, is sold under guarantee at Chas. I. Clough's drug store. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Best Healer in the World. Rev. F. Starbird, of East Raymond, Maine, says: "I have used Huxley's Arnica Salve for several years, on my sore, and find it the best healer in the world. I use it too with great success in my veterinary business." Price 25c. Unequaled as a Cure for Croup. "Besides being an excellent remedy for colds and throat troubles, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is unequalled as a remedy for croup," says Harry Wilson, of Waynetown, Ind. When given as soon as the croupy cough appears, this remedy will prevent the attack. It is used successfully in many thousands of homes. For sale by all Druggists. As Advertised. I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and found it to be all claimed for it in the advertisements. Three of the family have used it with good results in summer. -H. E. Howe, publisher of the Wisconsin, Wis. For sale by