Editorial Snap Shots.

So the "special interests" newspaper has fallen into line to do Tillamook out of representation in the state legislature.

* * *

The wind has dropped out of the new boat and the steam has blown off on the railroad. Wanted, a few more promoters, of the "sure thing" and "guarantee" order,

* * *

Really, it would be too funny for the snap shot man to get a licking for asking a question. We have heard and seen a good many men who would like to muzzle the Headlight.

* * *

Someone seems to have circulated the report that those who signed the petition for a bridge across the Wilson river, instead of one across the north fork, are wanting to do away with the road from Jenkins' bridge up. This is not so.

* * *

Tillamook City has a big bonded indebtedness and needs money to pay the interest and principle. So if the people in the country will vote for saloons and come to the city and spend their money for booze, why, see how easy it will be for the city.

* * *

The pupils of the district school in this city have petitioned Prof W. R. Rutherford to consent to remain the principal of the school. It is to the best interest of the school that he remain, for there is nothing like hanging on to a good principal when we have one. Mr. Rutherford has been figuring upon spending a few more years in college. but has not fully decided when he will do so.

* * *

It is strange, so awfully strange, that no one knew anything about the gambling that was going on in the gambling joint. But here's the funny part of it. One of our informants is a personal friend of Mayor Johnson and City Attorney Talmage. Isn't it funny. But what is the use of going off half cocked, Mr. Mayor? The same lawless faction brought the administrations of other mayors into disrepute.

* * *

This is the conversation which Sheriff Crenshaw overheard by two Oregonians while stopping at an hotel when outside last week:

"I've never been out of the state"

"I can beat you there. I have; once. I went over to Tillamook for a short visit."

The sheriff smiled and kept mum, for fear that the Oregonians might take him for a foreigner if they knew that he came from Tillamook.

The aspirants for office in Multnomah had a novel banquet in Portland. The republicans who were defeated in the primary election dined and, we suppose, wined the winners. That is a right kind of a spirit, and better than the "knife," which will greatly help to bring about harmony in that county And with Senator Fulton opening up headquarters in Portland to assist in the election of H. M. Cake for United States Senator, it begins to look as though the republicans are getting back to first principles and will sweep the State in June with a big majority.

Fearing that the snap shot man may never have seen a "Merry Widow Hat," one of our subscribers sends us this paragraph to give us the necessary information, taken from an Eastern paper:

"Last night a man, name unknown, walked down Turner street. In front was a women wearing a "Merry Widow" hat the size of a bicycle wheel. The man failed to notice the hat, and when he was near the women the latter turned around. The sharp and braided edge of the hat struck the man across the eyes. with a howl of rage and pain the man grabbed the hat, tore it from the maiden's head, threw it on the ground, stamped on it, and then kicked it into the street, after which he dissappeared down an alley." Do you blame the man? Hey.

Mr. A. G. Beals, republican nominee for joint representative, secured his nomination by strict compliance with the direct primary law, and not at the hands of a few scheming politicians who are seeking to rob Tillamook of its representation in the state legislature. The nonpartisan Chamberlain movement would ask you to cast aside this fact; the clean, able record of Mr. Beals; the second term precedent; the recognized right of the people of Tillamook County to name her representative; the pledge taken by Mr. Beals to support the republican voters' choice for U.S. senator—a pledge which as effectually eliminates any possibility of corrupt practices in the election of a U S. senator as does Stasement No. 1. This is all to be ignored.

* * *

As our representative in the last legislature, A. G. Beals discharged his duties faithfully and efficiently His record is clean. He introduced and secured the passage of several important measures. He was the author of the Beals timber bill. This bill passed the House with but three dissenting votes, and only lost out by three votes in the senate where it met with the opposition of a powerful lobby in the employ of the timber barons. Had this measure been enacted, Tillamook County would have been saved the $35,000 or $40,000 is is about to expend to have its timber cruised. If there was nothing else to the credit of Mr. Beals but the authorship of this bill, it would entitle him to re election.

One of our business men received this letter from Ralph Ackley, which goes to show how difficult it is to get enterprises started here, even when an opportunity does present itself:

"Our friend, Mr Vaughn, has returned to the city and was in the office this morning. He seems to have found things very unfavorable down there in the way of buying into the new electric company He seems to appreciate the fact that Tillamook has a great future before it and he is not afraid to invest his money there if it wasn't for the mossbackism displayed by some of our citizens. He says they seem to be afraid of a stranger for fear he is a grafter and that the farmers generally are opposed to new capital coming in. In fact, he was disgusted with the reception he received. He seems to have placed confidence in you and was very much pleased at the attention that he received at your hands. I am glad you treated him nicely, but am sorry that he left with that impression of our business men and citizens as it only tends to give Tillamook a black eye. However, I shall labor against this disadvantage and do all I can to get people to go there. I have calls daily about Tillamook but as yet the transportation facilities seem to be the main drawback in getting them in."

Good Liniment.

You will hunt a good while before you find a liniment that is equal to Chamberlain's Pain Balm as a cure for muscular and rheumatic pains, for the cure of sprains and soreness of the muscles. In case of rheumatism and sciatica it relieves the intense pain and makes sleep and rest possible. In case of sprains it relieves the soreness and restores the parts to a healthy condition in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. It is equally valuable for lame back and all deep seated and muscular pains. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by all druggists.

Senator Fulton can surely find no little consolation in the great majority with which he carried his own county, Clatsop. At least his neighbors and those who knew him best personally showed how popular he was among them. When a man has lived in a community for over thirty years, and been very active in politics nearly all that time, and can poll about seven votes to another candidate's one, it is pretty strong proof that he has qualities that merit friendship and adherents.—Oregon Mist, St. Helens.

But how will the Clatsop republicans vote in the June election, for Chamberlain, who was in the conspiracy to defeat and succeeded in defeating Senator Fulton in the primary election or for H. M. Cake? It is plain to see that democrats are chuckling over Senator Fulton's defeat. The funnies part of the matter is: After falsely accusing Senator Fulton of wrong doing, which they failed to substantiate, the malicious, malignant hate who attacked the senator's reputation and personal character, now want Senator Fulton's friends to give their support to those who conspired to bring about his defeat. It is awfully funny, isn't it?
