How Brave Men Can Calmly Meet Death.

WRECK OF THE BIRKENHEAD.

The Way This British Vessel Went Down Off the Cape of Good Hope.

When the hospital of the old pensioners at Chelsea will perhaps be noticed in the colonnade a simple memorial tablet, placed there by order of the late Queen Victoria to record the heroic constancy and discipline of the officers and soldiers who lost their lives in the wreck of the transport Birkenhead off the Cape of Good Hope on Feb. 26, 1852.

LEARNING TO SWIM.

The Fat Man Who Was a Model of Patience and Perseverance.

Persistence in undertaking is a laudable virtue, but it can be a bit overdone sometimes, as in a case described by Y. L. Molloy in "Our Autumn Holiday on French Rivers." Mr. Molloy and his friends, longing for a good dive, went to a swimming school on an island in the Seine.

While we were dressing, says Mr. Molloy, we asked the two swimming masters for an extra towel. "Pardon," they replied, "we must attend to our monsieur."

Then we saw that there had come upon the platform a short and absurdly fat man dressed in bathing costume, swimming sandals and oiled cap. "Let's see him go in," said we. "What a splash he'll make!"

The swimming masters received the new arrival at the middle of the platform. There he balanced himself on his stomach on a wooden stump two feet high. The masters seized him by his hands and feet and with slow and deliberate movements made him strike out with the action of swimming.

"He'll be awfully hot to go into the water after that," said I. But he did not go into the water. The swimming lesson over, he moved toward the dressing room, saying: "I have done better today."

"Ah, yes," answered one of the masters. "Your progress is admirable." The fat man beamed with complacency and went in to dress. I called the swimming masters aside. "Does 'our monsieur' practice often like that? He must have great perseverance."

"Perseverance! He has worked like this for five years, and he has never been in the water!"

"I have done better today." "Ah, yes," answered one of the masters. "Your progress is admirable." The fat man beamed with complacency and went in to dress.

CONTEST NOTICE.

Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, Portland, Oregon, July 24th, 1908. A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by THOMAS C. KING, contestant, against homestead entry No. 1454, made June 19, 1907, for Sw 1/4 Sec 14, N 1/2 Sec 14 and Sw 1/4 Sec 14, Township 1 North, Range 2 West, Willamette Meridian, Oregon, in which it is alleged that he is well acquainted with the tract of land embraced in the homestead entry and knows the present condition of the same; also that said Thomas C. King died on or about March, 1904; that said Thomas C. King, according to the best knowledge and belief of applicant, was at the time of his death a single man, and that he has no knowledge of such heirs, except that he has been informed that at the time of the death of said King two or three brothers survived him, and that said brothers resided in some of the Southern States; but applicant has not been able to learn any or either of the names of said brothers, nor of their residences or post office address, that between the time of making said entry upon said lands and the death of said King, and since the death of said King, applicant has made diligent search for said lands according to the law and that since his said death up to the present time, he has cultivated or improved the said lands, or any part thereof, to any extent whatever; and that he is the best knowledge and belief of applicant, said alleged absence from the said land was not due to his or their being employed in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps of the United States, or a private soldier, officer, seaman or marine, during the war with Spain, or any other war in which the United States was engaged.

Said parties are hereby notified to appear and respond and offer evidence touching said contest, before W. H. Cooper, U. S. Commissioner, Tillamook, Oregon, and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a.m., on October 14th, 1908, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Portland, Oregon.

The said contest having, in a proper affidavit, filed June 30th, 1908, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.
