YOKOHAMA THEATER.

Plays Last All Day and Sometimes Two Days. ... leaving Yokohama I went to the theater, which certainly was unlike anything I have ever seen before.

The Suffocated Duck. ... one thing I'm glad of," said Caneton rouennais is dying.

... a duck. It's the duck of a famous duck which you kill in a restaurant. When you order Caneton rouennais at a fashionable restaurant you may be sure that it is not suffocated for you as cruelly as though it were a Nero.

... a Great Industry. ... of the thousands of people who are an "old iron" man poking around a heap of rubbish realize that business in this country has enormous proportions. In the last year over $25,000,000 was in dealing in old metal, and the trivial sums paid to search the alleys for articles to the many dollars paid for machinery and factories.

... Inconsistent. ... Asiatic Lloyd of Shanghai a string of verses by one ... the burden of which ... in the next column Richard's name appears in an ... stating that the poet is ... as witness at marriage ... dress, 2 teals.

... His Principal Occupation. ... The art photographer had visited the farm. "I want to make an exhaustive study of this particular bit of landscape," he said, "and would like to have your hired man retain his present position on the fence there. Can he sit still?" "For days at a time," replied the farmer.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

... Not Paying For Holes. ... "Yes, sir," said the druggist, "we have all sorts of porous plasters. What sort do you want?" "Well, er—which kind has the fewest holes in it?" asked Stimjay. "I want to get my money's worth."

Stumping Competition.

That competition is at least the backbone if not the life of trade is illustrated by the big city department stores, especially those located in the same district, where rivalry runs high and the efforts to attract trade are studied with particular care in time of depression.

Too Particular.

The finical customer at the fish market pointed at a sign in the window with this inscription upon it: "Anjovis."

The Elephant at Bay.

Twenty years of experience tells me that a whole regiment of lions cannot produce the same moral effect as one twelve foot African tusker when he cocks his big, sail-like ears, draws himself up to his full height and looks at you, letting off at the same time a blood curdling scream, while in all probability others invisible to you are stampeding on all sides with the din and vibration of an earthquake.

The Too Faithful Dog.

A party of young Australians wanting a fish dinner filled a bottle with dynamite, attached a waterproof fu and dung it into a pool in a creek. One of them had a retriever who had been taught to retrieve anything done into the water, and the bottle had hardly touched the surface before Watch was after it. They yelled at him to leave it alone, but he paid no attention and soon was swimming shoreward with the fizzing bomb in his mouth.

The Strainer.

It was the first time she had ever used a telephone, and the drug clerk detected the fact by the nervous way in which she held the receiver. "Dear me!" she exclaimed timidly. "Why are all those sivelike holes in the moutpiece?" "They are there for a purpose," replied the drug clerk solemnly. "What purpose?" "Why, so you can strain your voice."

He Would Return.

"Fifty dollars is the price," said the magistrate, "and I hope, sir, never to see you here again." "Never to see me here again? Why, you're not resigning, are you?" "And with a nonchalant laugh Tooring-Karr threw a crisp fifty dollar bill to the clerk, entered his waiting sinety horsepower racer and set out to break another speed law.—New York Press.

Reversal of Form.

"Scranley, have you abandoned the lecture platform for good?" "I have, Horrocks. I married a gifted and eloquent woman, and I'm the audience now."—Cleveland Leader.

A Paradox.

"So you think you see an opportunity," said his friend. "See an opportunity?" said the enthusiastic person. "Yes, sir! And I tell you, it's out of sight!"—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Just Trying.

"You look rather weary, old man." "Yes. I've had a trying time this past week." "Sick?" "No, on a jury."—Philadelphia Press.

THE OLD BROKEN RECORD.

How dear to this heart is the phonograph's singing! What fond recollections my memory stir! Sweet Jane does the winding and turns on the music, while I sit and tell her the tunes I prefer.

My stock of canned music I hail as a treasure. For often when callers appear on the scene and topics are scarce it is truly a pleasure to bring out our dear little talking machine. The time passes quickly, and every one's happy. The phonograph pleases till Jane's remarks. Forgets about winding the works of the treasure. Which crawls out a tune that goes something like this:

A Sad Case.

"We've been pretty bad off at times eh, Stumpy?" "Sure we have!" "Well, it ain't a circumstance for how them swells, some of 'em, has to live. Yestiddy I heard one of them real sersly wimmin say she an' her husband had been livin' in their trunk for two years!"

Her Own Affair. "What do you think you are going to hatch out of that doorknob and that piece of brick?" sneeringly asked the old rooster.

A Nautical Insult.

Gerald—Wally, how do you ought to demand satisfaction of that Smith fellow. He insulted you lawst night. Horace—Deah me, what did he say? Gerald—Why, at the club, when somebody asked what your private signal was, Smith said he wasn't sure, but he thought it was an absent dog by Jovel—Puck.

How It Goes.

Barnes—Howes says he had the time of his life last night. Sheed—That accounts for it. Howes is terribly down in the mouth this morning. Looks as though he hadn't a friend in the world.—Boston Transcript.

Before Taking.

"But I thought," complained the sister, "that you gave your customers thirty days' time?" "We merely permit them to believe that so they will look pleasant," replied the photographer.—Houston Post.

Handicapped.

Gyer—Huggins is charged with having three wives. Myer—So? What does he say? Gyer—Say! What chance would a man with three wives have to say anything?—Chicago News.

A Paradox.

"So you think you see an opportunity," said his friend. "See an opportunity?" said the enthusiastic person. "Yes, sir! And I tell you, it's out of sight!"—Chicago Inter Ocean.
