I feel that the country is indeed to be congratulated upon the nomination of Mr. Taft. I have known him intimately for many years and I have a peculiar feeling for him, because throughout that time he worked for the same object, with the same purposes and ideals.

I do not believe there could be found in all the country a man so well fitted to be President.

He is not only absolutely fearless, absolutely disinterested and upright, but he has the widest acquaintance with the nation's needs, without and within, and the broadest sympathies with all our citizens.

He would be as emphatically a President of the plain people as Lincoln, yet not Lincoln himself would be freer from the least taint of demagogy, the least tendency to arouse or appeal to class hatred of any kind.

He has a peculiar and intimate knowledge of and sympathy with the needs of all our people—of the farmer, of the wage earner, of the business man, of the property owner.

No matter what a man's occupation or social position, no matter what his creed, his color, or the section of the country from which he comes, if he is an honest, hard working man who tries to do his duty toward his neighbor and toward the country, he can rest assured that he will have in Mr. Taft the most upright of representatives and the most fearless of champions.

Mr. Taft stands against privileges and he stands pre-eminently for the broad principles of American citizenship which lie at the foundation of our national well being.

ENEMY OF TARIFF.

Labor World Sees Danger in Bryan Plan of Tariff for Revenue Only.

(From the Labor World.)

Workingmen and producers generally should not delude themselves with the idea that, if Mr. Bryan shall be elected [illegible], his plans for revision of the tariff will present no menace to the [illegible]. Mr. Bryan is the professed enemy of the tariff system. He would impose duties, if at all, for revenue purposes only. On articles competing with what he chooses to call trust-made goods he would have no duty at all. The apparent deficit in import duties [illegible] revised schedules he estimated would be more than made up by [illegible] imports. Of course, his hope [illegible] at the great protection [illegible]ch happen to be Republican [illegible] like Pennsylvania, New [illegible] Illinois, Indiana, West Virginia. It does not seem to matter [illegible] every dollar's worth of foreign [illegible] the competitive class com[illegible] United States on a revenue [illegible]de basis necessarily by so [illegible]es the demand for home [illegible] displacing just that much [illegible] labor. What he wants to do [illegible] and avenge himself upon [illegible] manufacturers who do not [illegible] him in politics and who will [illegible] of him at the polls, says an [illegible]

[illegible] Mr. Bryan is gunning for [illegible] industries and Republican [illegible] his proposed tariff law [illegible] force it would fall alike [illegible] sections of the country, the [illegible]ces between one State and [illegible] in the degree of hardship [illegible]

[illegible] of workingmen saying that [illegible]ey intend to vote for Mr. [illegible]se for the past ten months [illegible]d hard times. But what [illegible]at do? How is a tariff for [illegible]oring the protection idea [illegible] going to open the shops and [illegible] will the election of Senators by direct vote start the wheels of [illegible]? Or the publication of campaign contributions? Or the further [illegible] of the railroads? Or the [illegible]on of the House, so that [illegible] may be powerless? Why [illegible] country now to the markets [illegible] when we have not sufficient to consume what we ourselves manufacture? Under Republican [illegible] have just had ten years of prosperity. Under Democratic administrations we have never [illegible]ity for any period, long or [illegible]

[illegible] Disaffect the Farmers.

[illegible]e of Bryan's desperate attempts to curry favor with the farmers [illegible] by the manner in which [illegible] received at Crookston, Minn. [illegible] Congressman Halvor Stev[illegible] event went off as follows: [illegible] speech at Crookston was a disappointment. He actually lost [illegible] for Democracy. Thousands of people were there to hear him, [illegible] till ten o'clock in the evening [illegible] he appeared. The address [illegible]row appeal to farmers, a [illegible] trying to prejudice them [illegible]publicanism. It didn't take [illegible] once was there the slightest [illegible] of applause. He spoke to [illegible] disappointed audience."

[illegible] of Education.

[illegible] battle of 1896 the Republican party again stood for the [illegible] of the integrity of the na[illegible] fight was against odds pro[illegible] great industrial depression, [illegible] the most sophistical argu[illegible] Republican party main[illegible] campaign of education among [illegible] earners and the farmers, [illegible]tely led to the complete [illegible] this second financial heresy [illegible] threatened the integrity of [illegible] structure.—Hon. Wm. H. [illegible] City, Mo.

BOUTELL ON BRYAN.

Is His "Shall the People Rule?" Simply "a Local Issue?"

Congressman Henry Sherman Boutell of Chicago, commenting on Mr. Bryan's speech in Iowa, says:

Mr. Bryan's question, "Shall the people rule?" implies that somewhere in this country the people do not rule. The only States where the people do not rule are the States that are expected to give overwhelming majorities for the Democratic ticket. Perhaps Mr. Bryan thinks that his question is purely "a local issue." If he is sincere, I challenge him to make a speech in Vicksburg, Miss., on "Government by the People." Let him repeat one of his famous anti-imperialist speeches, simply changing three words, substituting "Mississippi" for "Philippines" and "black brothers" for "brown brothers." Let him suggest that we have as chairman of his meeting John Sharp Williams, leader of the Democrats in Congress, and as vice-chairmen the other members of the Congressional delegation from Mississippi.

And after he has made his speech in Vicksburg, if he shall have escaped the rule of the people in that community, I dare Mr. Bryan to repeat his oration on popular government in Charleston, S. C., with Senator Tillman as chairman of his meeting. Mr. Bryan's sentiments have a purely geographical sincerity. His epigrams and startling conundrums are especially designed to meet local demands. Of this nature are all his views on tariff and taxation.

Mr. Bryan's proposition that every time a trust is formed a tariff schedule should be repealed, and every time a trust is dissolved a new duty should be added, is too funny even for comic opera.

If on March 4 next Mr. Bryan should become President, with a Democratic Congress in both houses, and should actually place upon the statute books the financial and economic vagaries delivered by him in his speech of last Friday, it would plunge the nation into bankruptcy and bring on industrial chaos. If he should begin by repealing the duty on sugar to punish the sugar trust, he would upset the national finances by losing $60,000,000 a year in revenues, and would stir up a revolution in Louisiana, Utah, Colorado and Michigan. Then, if he should repeal the duty on cotton goods, because some hustling manufacturers of New England or the Carolinas were dumping goods in China in rivalry with England and Germany, he would divert other millions from the treasury and invite still further industrial ruin.

But, of course, Mr. Bryan would do none of these things, any more than he will invade the solid South and summon the cohorts of Democracy to the defence of the Constitution with the battle cry "Shall the People Rule?" Mr. Bryan simply does not mean what he says. What he utters with Chadbandian unction in the North he repudiates with Pecksniffian duplicity in the South.

Business Men Honest.

The business men of our community as a whole are honest and their methods are sound. The President has never said otherwise. Indeed, it is chiefly in the interest of the great body of honest business men that he has made his fight for lawful business methods.—Hon. Wm. H. Taft, to Merchants and Manufacturers' Association, Boston, Mass.

Gratitude to McKinley.

The highest claim of William McKinley for the gratitude of his countrymen is that, in spite of the abuse and contumely that was heaped upon his head for this policy, he placed our country in the forefront of nations as a civilizer and uplifter of unfortunate peoples.—Hon. Wm. H. Taft, at Cleveland, Ohio.
