Why We Ask for a Portion of Your Trade.

The reason why we ask for a portion of your trade is—

BECAUSE--
 First Class Goods at Honest Prices is our motto. We don't buy bankrupt stocks or shop worn goods at any price, but the best goods possible in every line.

BECAUSE--
 We don't mark our goods up for the benefit of our sales.

BECAUSE--
 We know your money will go farther here and give better satisfaction than elsewhere.

BECAUSE--
 We are willing at all times to make good anything that goes wrong.

The Wise Shopper.
 It takes some cleverness for the average buyer to determine values, and some experience to be able to pass by a bargain article. If you are not apt to be misled by prices you will find the bargain article at this store.

More Style and More Wear than any same Price Shoes.
 When you buy shoes here you pay only for the quality and the wear.
 The Style is thrown in. The cost of making good shoes is in the material and workmanship. Try a pair of our shoes and you will be pleased.

We are giving CLEARANCE PRICES on many lines and kindly ask you to visit our Store and get our prices before buying.

Mason's Department Store.

Paul Erickson, who went to the Siletts last week to buy some land, was taken down sick with appendicitis. Dr. Bools was sent for and left on Friday, and on Tuesday he returned with the sick man, after a long and tedious drive from Salmon river and over the Slab creek trail. Erickson is quite seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Martiny, who were married in Portland, will return to the city on Friday, where they will be congratulated by their many friends.
 The Dago who cut his throat a few weeks ago has recovered sufficiently to be turned loose at the end of this week, but it is thought that he may attempt to take his life again, for he is considered to be crazy.

Teacher's Institute.
 Tillamook county teacher's annual institute will be held at Tillamook City, Nov 11, 12, and 13.
 Every teacher in the county should attend the entire session.
 We have been fortunate in securing Mr. L. R. Traver, of Monmouth, Ore., and Mr. L. R. Alderman, of Eugene, Or., as instructors. These men are well known to the Oregon teachers, and are among the active instructors of the state.
 Mr. James Goldsworthy, principal Tillamook High School, has also kindly consented to aid in the instructing.
 Programs will be mailed teachers the last of the week.
 W. S. BUEL, Supt.

The UP-TO-DATE DEPARTMENT STORE.
 Where Customers Receive Good Value for their Money.

Homer Mason's Department Store is one of the best dry goods stores in the City of Tillamook, because it is well stocked with first class goods which will bear thorough inspection and sold at a smaller profit than stores in other towns. Mason does not keep a shoddy lot of goods and palm them off on the public as first class and at a big profit. He has established a reputation for fair dealing, and on that account his store is largely patronized by those who want good goods, goods that will wear well and will give the best of satisfaction. Mr. Mason calls attention at this time to his splendid stock of goods, and invites the public to inspect them. He has some fine dress goods for ladies of excellent material, shirt waists in pretty designs, ladies' winter underwear, and a remarkable fine stock of shoes, in fact, Mason's Department Store contains a stock of ladies' goods which is a credit to the city, which is giving the best of satisfaction to his numerous customers from all parts of the county. Just now he is making a specialty of gentlemen's shoes and clothing, and those who are wanting clothing that will wear well and fit well should inspect his splendid samples.

THE BIG LITTLE DEPARTMENT STORE.
 Stocked with First Class, High Grade Goods.

The Tillamook Lumber Manufacturing Company closed a deal to day in which it bought a strip of land next to the mill site for $1500 and Dr. Sharp's property for $3,000. The property was brought so that the new saw mill could be erected east to west and the building and machinery placed upon a gravel foundation.

The Port of Tillamook Commission met on Wednesday in the office of the Secretary, Mr. Claude Thayer, when a special election was called for the 7th of December, at which time a new set of officers will be elected from Hequartton, Tillamook, Fairview and South Prairie precincts. When the new commissioners are elected active steps will be taken to widen and deepen the channel in the slough so as to give Tillamook City a deep water harbor.

Carl A. Patzlafl's Department Store, or more commonly known as the "Big Little Store," is well known all over the county as a most excellent store to trade at for excellent goods, hence ladies are attracted there because they like to buy goods which are reliable and as represent to them. Mr. Patzlafl aims to do the square thing, as all know who have done any trading with him since he has been in business in Tillamook County. He is a shrewd buyer, and buys the best of merchandise and of the latest styles, colors and designs. The "Big Little Store" is noted for first class goods and where no inferior articles are palmed off on the public. Mr. Patzlafl aims to give his customers their money's worth. And commencing on Saturday he will give an honest discount on some of the fall and winter line of goods, which makes it a splendid opportunity right now to do some trading, and thereby save money. Mr. Patzlafl says that he will not tag or remark any of these goods, but will treat his patrons fair and honest, for he has grown bigger and better each year by dealing honestly with his customers.

On Monday Joe Bush assuming a threatening and abusive mood at the Larsen House and threatened to shoot some of the inmates, and sought a gun for that purpose, but was prevented from doing so. Mr. J. F. Ramsey, who has that hotel leased, went to District Attorney Cooper and swore to a complaint that Bush was not a fit person to be at large, when Deputy Sheriff Aschim took him in charge. Unless something is done by his relatives to look after him he will in all probability be sent to the asylum.

Deputy Assessor Chas. A. Johnson has resigned that position, and with his wife removed to Garibaldi. He was a most obliging deputy in the Assessor's office, occupying that position for nine years at a meager salary of $50 a month. However, he leaves the Assessor's office with the reputation of having served the public faithfully and has left a record to that effect by the manner in which he did his work. We are sorry to see him leave, but hope that the next job he tackles it will bring him more money. G. H. Johnson, who was assessor in Michigan, will fill the vacancy.
