We are visiting and preaching among old friends and relatives. There is a good many talking of coming to Oregon with me when I return. If I should stay here until March, when the railroads give cheap rates, I am quite sure I could bring a number with me, but I fear I will get too homesick to see wife and babies to stay that long. And Tillamook is good enough for me. Love to all my friends."

A torneys Want their Pay.

C. W. Talmage and S. S. Johnson, who are attorneys and doing business under the firm name of Talmage & Johnson, and Ralph R. Duniway, filed four suits in the circuit court against L. T. Byram, Paul Erickson, Frank Hadley and Phoebe A. Snodgrass, claiming $400 from each for professional services. On the 1st February, 1908, W. S. Howell instituted suits in the United States circuit against the defendants, also against G. W. Sappington, in which he sought to have forfeited to the government the timber claims of these parties. Talmage & Johnson succeeded in inducing the defendants to sign a contract, in which they were each to pay plaintiffs $500 to conduct their cases. As the cases were thrown out of the U.S. on a demurrer, the attorneys asserting for the balance of what the claim is now due them for professional services, viz., $490 from each of the defendants.

To Kill the Port.

Suit has been filed in the circuit court by Charles Kaut against the Port of Tillamook, and as the sheriff is made a party to the suit, Coroner W. G. Hawk served the papers on Wednesday. The suit grew out of the opposition to the enlargement of the Port of Tillamook, in which Tillamook, Hoquartton, Fairview and South Prairie precincts were included in the Port of Tillamook. The plaintiff prays the court that a perpetual injunction be issued enjoining and restraining the Port of Tillamook to act as a board of commissioners, also from attempting to levy and collect any taxes upon the property within the original Port of Tillamook and to restrain the sheriff from collecting the tax levied by the Port. The complaint claims that the election was illegal in a number of instances, that no attempt was made to comply with the law of 1907, that it was at a legal meeting of the old Port, which ordered the election, that it is unconstitutional, etc. Those who are made parties to the suit are: Port of Tillamook, a quasi municipal corporation, Claude Thayer, secretary; M. F. Leach, George Williams, Rollie Watson, D. Fitzpatrick and Mike Aplinsalp, members of the new Port; the County Clerk Holden, Assessor Hare and Sheriff Crenshaw.

Obituary.

Mrs. Adelaide Webb was born July 2, 1834, in Wisconsin, and at the age of six years she moved to Fayette Co. Iowa with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Dimond.

When quite young she was converted and became a member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church and was a faithful and consistent member during her life. She was married to Marvin Webb on Sept. 1, 1864. There were ten children born of this union, four sons and one daughter surviving their mother.

In the fall of 1877 they emigrated to Germantown, Kansas, where they made their home for 18 years. In Sept. 1895, she moved with her husband and family to Battle Creek, Neb., where they made their home for three years.

In Nov. 1899, they came to Oregon. She resided at Sandlake for five years and then moved to Cloverdale, where she resided two years. While she lived in those places she made many friends who will mourn her death.

She died on Sunday, Jan. 17, 1909, at 9:30 a.m. at her home near Tillamook, Oregon.

She leaves a loving and faithful husband, four sons, one daughter, an aged mother, five brothers and one sister besides numerous relatives and a host of friends to mourn their loss. She was a kind loving and faithful wife and mother, a true friend to all and was very much loved and respected by all who knew her.

She was laid to rest in the Tillamook L.O.O.F. cemetery on Tuesday, January 19, 1909, the funeral services were conducted by Rev. Parson, of Pleasant Valley at her home.

"In Memory of Mother."

Gathered round a narrow coffin,
Stood a mourning funeral train;
While from this life she's been redeemed,
Tears are falling like the rain.

Hopes are crushed and hearts are bleeding,
Drear the fireside now and lone,
She the best loved and the dearest,
Far away to Heaven hath flown.

Long, long will we miss thee, mother,
Many days for thee we'll weep;
And through many nights of sorrow,
Memory will thy vigils keep.

Her lifeless form is resting now,
Beneath the cold cold sod;
And her loving spirit seems to say,
"I am happy now with God."

A TRUE FAITHFUL FRIEND.

Chamberlain Elected Senator.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 19.—Republicans in the Oregon Legislature today surrendered to Governor George E. Chamberlain, Democrat, and elected him United States Senator for the six year term beginning March 4, 1909, succeeding Charles W. Fulton. Chamberlain received 19 votes in the Senate, 12 of them Republican, and 36 in the House, 26 Republican.

His seating in the United States Senate will be contested on the ground that he received but 29 free votes in the House, or two short of a majority. His five additional votes in the House were cast for him by Republicans under protest, who declared they were constrained to do so by their Statement of Oppledge, and that they were not exercising their constitutional free choice.

These protests were entered on the House journal for use later. In the Senate, protests of two Republicans were entered on the Journal, but they did not impair Chamberlain's majority in that body, since 16 constitute a majority.

The detailed vote was:

	Senate.	House.
Chamberlain	19	34
Fulton	7	12
Cake	3	14
Bean	1	1

The choice of the majority of the Republican members clearly was C. W. Fulton, which some of them made evident in explaining their vote. The votes cast for Cake were given by Republicans who were elected on Republican voters' choice pledges. Most of them voted their preference for Fulton. Some of these protests entered the Journal. In the Senate, Coffey of Multnomah and Cole of Umatilla, so protested and voted for Cake. In the House, Beals of Tillamook, Bonebrake of Benton, Buchanan of Douglas, Carter of Wasco and Mann of Umatilla did the same. Others voting for Cake, who said he was not their personal choice were Applegate of Douglas and Speaker McArthur.

Bills Paid By Check Are Seldom Disputed

There is a reason. The check you issue in payment, the stub to correspond, and the books of the bank, together with the payee's endorsement is a strong chain of evidence to contradict. The check itself is a receipt and is returned to you by the bank.

Better have a checking account and pay bills but once.
