Tillamook Mercantile Company, Inc.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in
STAPLE and FANCY GROCERIES, HAY, FLOUR, FEED and GRAIN.

Next week we shall present in this paper a very complete list of Low Prices on high class merchandise that will interest every Gentleman, Lady, Boy and Girl in Tillamook County.

We announced last week there had been heavy advances made in the Portland market on Flour, Feed, Grain and Hay, and that we would advance our prices to correspond with the advance on these articles.

We purchased an immense stock of these goods and the raise on the unsold portion of these goods amounts into hundreds of dollars. Every business man is justly entitled to these advances and usually takes them; but we are going to take only one half of this advance and give the other half to the people.

During the past week Sugars have declined 20c. per hundred pounds and we have reduced our price accordingly, quoting dry Cane Granulated $5.45; Fruit Granulated $5.70.

Dried Fruits.

For the past three weeks we have been making bids and receiving offers on dried fruits of all kinds—from the Portland market to Southern California—and we are pleased to announce that we have succeeded in securing an immense quantity of Dried Fruits and will soon be prepared to sell Dried Fruits at as low a price as you could purchase from any Portland wholesale house—had the consumer this opportunity. If we were to state the amount of this purchase either in tons or its worth in dollars, you would say we would never sell it all at Tillamook, and that it was an unwise purchase. However, we made the purchase and we are going to make a PRICE that will close out EVERY POUND of it within the next 90 DAYS.

We told you in this paper last week that we should labor to benefit the public rather than try to injure the people, and we shall endeavor to fully demonstrate our assertion before the year 1909 shall have half passed away.

We have received quite a benefit in the matter of freights during the past few weeks; but so far as freights are concerned it has not benefited us a single farthing, for we have given it all to the people.

One two or three dollars differential per ton on freight makes a very marked distinction on a ton of Hay, Grain, Feed, Salt and merchandise purchased by consumers in ton lots. These same rates makes quite a noticeable difference one could make on a case of oil, a sack of sugar, salt, a sack of feed or an article taken for use in quantities of 100 lbs. These same freight differentials would make on an average of only one tenth of a cent per lb. deducted from a 16 oz. can of baking powder, or one fiftieth of a cent deducted from the cost of a pair of hose or one thousandth of a penny deducted from the price of a yard of lace, and it would be almost impossible (so far as freight is concerned) for a merchant to make a noticeable reduction; but whenever a merchant's facility for buying enables him to secure goods at 1/2 to 2 cents per lb. less on articles usually ranging in price from 3c. to 9c. per lb., or say 3c. to 5c. per lb. less on articles costing ordinary and ranging in price from 10c. to 50c. a lb. it makes a saving in buying of $10.00 to $100.00 per ton, and furnishes an opportunity of offering from two to five or ten pounds of goods more for $1.00, which makes the same marked difference in the end on a single dollar's worth of goods offered to the customer through the facilities of buying as it would in the former case by offering goods often sold by the ton, coupled with the facilities of buying and a freight differential.

We shall receive this week a large assortment of China and Plain Ware, also Kitchen furniture.

It is the desire of this house to confine its business exclusively to Groceries, Flour, Feed and Crockery; however, should necessity require, we shall add general lines in the near future.

Look for our Quotations next week in this paper.

Our Spring Hats have come, glistening with newness. We never had such a variety before—we never spent so much time nor took so much care in selecting the styles. The weather continues to be wet and stormy, being one of the wettest and coldest winters experienced in Tillamook for a number of years, with little building going on and the roads being cut up on account of the constant downpour, giving them no chance to dry up, as in previous winters for several weeks.
