DAGOS CAUSE TROUBLE.
Arm Themselves and Force Everybody on the Railroad to Quit Work.
Considerable excitement and fear was caused on Wednesday by the Dagos who are working on the Pacific Railway and Navigation Company's railroad between the Wilson river and the Miami. For several weeks the Dagos have been quitting work on account of the wages the contractors were paying. Wednesday they demanded that their wages be raised from $1.85 to $2 a day, which was granted, and not being satisfied they demanded $2.25 a day, which was refused. They struck work, organized and armed themselves with fire arms, and coming down the track forced all crews to quit work, even the surveyors who were working near the Wilson river, stopping work on the entire line for the day. It was fortunate that the different crews quit work as they did, otherwise there might have been serious trouble, for the Dagos were in a threatening, ugly mood, and quite a number being armed, this caused some fear. As an instance of this, when a gang of 160 came down the track to the Wilson river they found Ed. Lindsey and Walter Oliver surveying, when the leader, brandishing a big gun, told them to quit work. There were about sixty men on the dump and in the woods around them several armed men were concealed, and it suddenly occurred to Lindsey that he had some surveying to do in the neighborhood of the new saw mill. As soon as they quit work the armed Dagos came out of the brush. It was only part of the Dagos who wanted to strike, but the others were forced to do so on account of threats. Sheriff Greenhaw was called to the scene of the trouble, and with the assistance of eleven deputies he went through the camp and arrested four of the leaders, bringing them to the city Wednesday night and locking them up in the county jail. This took the Dagos by surprise, only one appearing ugly. As there is another of the leaders that the sheriff failed to arrest last night he left again this morning for Bay City, where he has eleven deputies to meet any trouble which might arise today, as the contractors are paying the men off. Those who have been arrested will be charged with riot while carrying guns and knives.

A bill for $500 for the Water Commission was laid over pending a report from that body.
As several arc lights were not burning during the past month the recorder was instructed to notify the Electric Light Company to keep the lights burning in future.
The Ways and Means Committee submitted a report in the matter of the road and poll tax collected within the corporate limits, and it was decided to sue the county for the whole amount, as the county court was only allowing the city half of the road and poll tax. An agreement was entered into with City Attorney Holmes whereby he is to be paid the sum of $75 for conducting the suit in the circuit court and $125 if the case is taken to the supreme court, the city to pay the filing fees. This is for taxes for 1908, and previous to that time Attorney Holmes is to be paid a contingent fee of 35 per cent on all money the city may be able to force the county to pay for previous years.
Reports of the City Recorder and City Treasurer were read and referred to the ways and means committee.

ANOTHER PIONEER GONE.
Death of R. D. Peckham on Wednesday.
We are sorry to announce the death of R. D. Peckham, which occurred at his residence in this city on the 6th inst., after an illness of six weeks.
Mr. Peckham was born in the state of New York in the year of 1829, being at the time of his death in his 80th year. When a young man he moved to Wisconsin, residing there until 19 years ago, when he came to Oregon, and shortly after to Tillamook, where he lived until his death.
He leaves a widow, and several relatives, living here and other parts of Oregon and the east.
Mr. Peckham was an upright and honorable citizen; identifying himself with only those affairs which were clean, decent and uplifting. He had some peculiar traits of character, but most fortunate indeed was the person who had gained his confidence, for he ever after proved himself a loyal friend and wise counselor.
The Headlight joins the public in its expression of condolence to his relatives and friends in the death of Mr. Peckham. The remains were buried this afternoon in the Oddfellows' cemetery.
Mr. F. G. Pritts, Oneonta, N.Y., writes: "My little girl was greatly benefited by taking Foley's Orino Laxative, and I think it is the best remedy for constipation and liver trouble." Foley's Orino Laxative is best for women and children, as it is mild, pleasant and effective, and is a splendid spring medicine, as it cleanses the system and clears the complexion. J. S. Lamar, Tillamook; Hawk & Miller, Bay City.

Birthday Party.
On Wednesday last Mrs. W. B. Alderman entertained a number of friends in honor of her mother's, Mrs. Elizabeth Mapes' birthday, who was 74 years of age that day. Memory from an ever ready store of experience, such as is possible for those whose life paths cross, provided food for the pleasant interchange of thought and put the gathering in the right humor to enjoy the appetizing lunch which the hostess had prepared.
Quite a number remarked how well Mrs. Mapes was looking. It has been only a little while since she was able to get out of doors for the first time since fall. Hers is now a sheltered life, and yet while she cannot actively enter the outer world, her interest in others as well as the joy of home relationships, suggests that at evening it shall be light.
Among those who came to add their wish for many happy returns of the day were, besides Mrs. Alderman, hostess, and Mrs. Mapes, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Olsen, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Poorman, Rev. T. Robinson, minister Presbyterian Church; Mrs. McNair, Mrs. Shirk, Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. Watt.
During the spring everyone would be benefited by taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. It furnishes a needed tonic to the kidneys after the extra strain of winter, and it purifies the blood by stimulating the kidneys, and causing them to eliminate the impurities from it. Foley's Kidney Remedy imparts new life and vigor. Pleasant to take. J. S. Lamar, Tillamook; Hawk & Miller, Bay City.
