

THE GATEWAY TO SUCCESS

Success is assured to you if you spend less than you earn and bank the difference.

Wise old Ben Franklin said:

Be honest,
Work hard,
Save some,
And success is sure.

We believe most of you are honest and work hard, but how many are regularly saving something? Not as many as can do so we are sure.

Open an account to-day and we will keep your money safely for you until needed.

The steamer Sue H. Elmore came in on Tuesday with the following passengers: J. L. Polhus, Mrs. McIntyre, J. Regan, R. S. Wagner, F. Elliott, Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. Hoxhurst, Mr. Kallinberger, Mrs. Doe and child, G. Lenher, Mr. Parsons, Mr. Berry, J. H. Jones, L. Jones, W. C. Rogers and Ed. Keys.

A. Bencheidt has sold his farm on Trask river to W. B. Alderman for $14,000. This farm contains 70 acres of the finest dyked tideland in Tillamook Co. Mr. Alderman is an expert judge of land, has been successful in all of his real estate investments, and we predict that he will turn this property at a handsome profit. The sale was made through F. R. Beals.

The mill crew of the Tillamook Lumber Mfg Co. started work at six o'clock this morning and will not quit until seven in the evening. It may be necessary to put on a night crew in a week or so to keep up with the orders. The plainers were put to work today on lumber for the concrete building. The material for the dry kiln came in this week.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Webb, at Sandlake, at noon, Wednesday, May 19, when their daughter, Miss Elsie Webb and Mr. William J. Galoway were united in marriage by Elder R. Y. Blalock. The young couple are prominent people of the south part of the county, who have many friends who wish them a long and happy life.

The Hembree murder case, which was appealed to the supreme court, will not come up for hearing until the October term of that court. The plea is made by Hembree's attorneys that in granting a change of venue the case should have been tried in Yamhill and not Polk county, that the trial judge erred in admitting evidence as to another crime having been committed, and that there was no evidence to prove that Hembree committed the murder.

Prof. W. R. Rutherford, who has been engaged principal of the public school, came in last week and visited the school, and the pupils appeared glad to see him back again. Mr. Rutherford made quite a success of the school previous to going to Stanford University, and his return as principal is a good thing for the school, and as he is so favorably known throughout the county as a successful instructor quite a number of pupils from other districts will attend the high school in this city next fall.

Lieut. Parks, U.S.A., of Vancouver Barracks, with a party of 18 men, reached this city yesterday on the noon express from Portland, and will go into camp at once at a point near Young's River falls; from whence he will conduct a series of topographic surveys over the section of country lying between Fort Stevens at the mouth of the Columbia and Tillamook Bay, and ranging inland from 15 to 50 miles. Another detail of 12 men are expected down in a few days to join the group now here. The party has a complete outfit for camping purposes and a full line of instruments incident to the important work to be done.—Astorian.

Last Saturday Mrs. Sarchet's Sunday school class of the Presbyterian church went for an afternoon picnic into the country. There were ten in the party. All wore their Sunday school badges and pins and walked. Some of them fished in the Trask along the way, with better success than those who only return to tell the story. Luncheon time found them in a sheltered spot, with sunny openings, where they found grass upon which to spread the baskets which held the good things for them to eat and make the lemonade. The opportunity of having a good play by themselves and with their teacher to share it with them made the trip the more pleasant for all. But they were not altogether unnoticed. Some people in passing by that way heard the voices and caught glimpses of bright faces through the trees that bordered the stream and were as happily surprised as though they had been the little people of the wood themselves. The class returned about six in the evening.

The pastor of the M.E. church will begin a series of sermons on the ten commandments next Sunday evening, beginning with the first commandments. All strangers are especially invited to attend these services.

The baccalaureate sermon to the graduates of the Tillamook High School will be preached next Sunday morning in the United Brethren church by Rev. V. E. Hovey, pastor of the Christian Church, and for which special music is arranged.

The steamer Argo came in on Wednesday, and her passengers were Al. Domes, L. H. Sherry, Frank Hart, H. N. Parker, F. D. Arrington, Mrs. J. C. Wahlen, G. V. Nelson, Mrs. O. P. Conorse, J. C. Smith, Frank Down, J. C. Peggmore, G. B. Johnson and W. Mascowitz.

Frances G. Bailey v. Charles A. Bailey is a divorce suit filed in the circuit court, the cause of action being desertion of his wife and family in 1903. Mrs. Bailey is also worth $8 per month from defendant for her own support and $6 for each of her children.

A crew of surveyors belonging to the United Railways is surveying on the Wilson river, and is camped near what is known as McNamers camp, and a general impression prevails that the company will soon be building into Tillamook city with the electric line.

There are a great many strangers in the county, and they are increasing every week. For the most part they are looking for business openings and investments and there is every indication of a large influx of persons into the county as a result of the railroad being built into Tillamook, which will open up one of the best sections of Oregon.

NEW FALL STYLE AMERICAN LADY CORSETS.

Corsets have never been so Important a factor in Women's Fashions before.

Today, if you want a suit or dress to look anything near right the Corset must be one of this season's long models.

The change merely makes the hips less pronounced and the curves of the back much more marked and attractive.

On the whole, they're just the most comfortable corset you have worn.

There's no change in the style except the bust is much lower. The new models start at $1.25 and go up to $2.50.

American Lady Corsets (as illustration), except the bust is much lower, $1.50.

Other new low bust models up to $2.50.

1000 MEN TO DO WORK.

Construction of Tillamook Road to be Rushed.

HILLSBORO, Or., May 21.—J. W. Sweeney, contractor for completion of the Pacific Railway & Navigation Railroad between this city and Tillamook, while in town today went out to the front to look over the situation. He says he has a large outfit coming up by train from Drain, and another going through to the Coast Range overland. He expects to have 1000 men and teams at work within the next 30 days. Mr. Sweeney will build his own camps and institute regular messhouses and sleeping accommodations for the men.

It will take Sweeney 30 days to organize his office and superintending forces, and he then expects to make a big campaign of construction before the winter season approaches. The tunnel work can be prosecuted all next winter without trouble, as supplies can be laid in prior to the approach of inclement weather. This line will open up the greatest untouched timber belt in the Pacific Northwest, and will enter a vast domain already well settled, as timber districts go.

Play by Academy Dramatic Club.

St. Alphonsus Academy students will give a splendid entertainment at the Academy Hall about the middle of June or perhaps a week later. The ability and earnestness of the young people guarantees a full house and a delightful good time for all who attend. Jenkins' Orchestra will furnish the music on the occasion. Other vocal and instrumental selections will be rendered by the music pupils. "The Hero of Fontenoy," a drama in a prologue and four acts, will be the leading feature of the evening. All friends and patrons of the Academy are invited to attend. Tickets will be on sale for 50c and 25c, at both Clough's and Lamar's drug store.

Pleased with their Visit.

The Nehalem High School returned on Sunday from their excursion to Tillamook, where they went to present the drama, "Brother Josiah," at the opera house on Saturday night. All agree that the trip was most satisfactory in every way. Everyone is enthusiastic in their praise of the Tillamook people for their hospitable spirit, generous assistance and liberal patronage. At a meeting of the student organization on Monday, it was voted unanimously to extend a vote of thanks to the Tillamook Dramatic Club, the Tillamook High School and others too numerous to mention who gave generous assistance.

DEAD BODY OF FORD FOUND

Searchers Stumbled on Corpse After Giving Up Search.

EUGENE, Or., May 21.—The body of A. A. Ford, the old soldier who was lost in the mountains near the head of Fall Creek, was found about 100 yards from the cabin where he was traced to. The body was so badly decomposed it could not be brought out, and was buried where it was found.

Ford had been missing since April 28. The horses were all found alive, but very weak. He was 78 years old. The searchers, despairing of finding the body, had given up the quest last evening. They prepared to cook a meal on the trail before starting on the return journey, and two of the party went to get wood for the campfire, when they came upon the body of the missing man. Pack horses had lingered about the body and one of the animals had trampled upon a hand of the dead man.

Coroner W. T. Gordon thought best to impanel a jury and make an investigation of the facts concerning the death of the late Albert A. Ford, and it was done Saturday afternoon. The jury consisted of W. P. Cheshire, D. L. Cartmell, A. M. Hendricks, Ed. Nye, John Jackson and J. W. Cherry. All the witnesses were examined, who knew anything about the circumstances of the death and the finding of the body and the jury after hearing the evidence, brought in a verdict in accordance with the facts: that Albert A. Ford came to his death about April 30, or May 1, 1909, from exposure and exhaustion in the Cascade mountains, about 45 miles east of Eugene; that he was 73 years of age. No one was charged with being to blame in the least for the death.

The deceased was a resident of Tillamook for about 15 years previous to removing to Eugene, and was well known in this county, where his two sons, Guy Ford and Earl Ford, and two daughters, Mrs. Gus Nelson, of Bay City, and Mrs. Royal Stillwell, now reside.

Memorial Exercises.

Memorial services will be held at the L.O.O.F. cemetery, weather permitting, on Sunday, June 30. Should the weather be unfavorable the services will be held in the Presbyterian church, and the Rev. Thos. Robinson will deliver the address to the old soldiers and others.

All the children are expected to attend and take flowers to decorate the graves. Music will be furnished by Tillamook City's most excellent musicians and singers.

Many of the brave, noble band have passed away, but a few are left to meet with us to decorate the graves of the fallen comrades. They will meet at the G. A. R. hall over Mason, Pennington & Co.'s store and will march from there to the cemetery. All who have teams are asked to take those who are not able to walk. A general turnout is desired, and all are invited to attend and honor the nation's dead. COMMANDER CORINTH POST.

YOUNG WOMAN COM-

MITS SUICIDE.

Lillibelle Bays Takes Carbolic Acid and Dies This Morning.

A distressing case of suicide took place last night about ten o'clock, in which a young girl foolishly took her own life without apparently much cause. Lillibelle Bays, daughter of W. N. Bays, is the young woman, and she is about 18 years of age.

She resided with her parents at Blaine, in this county, and had attended school in District No. 32, where she had just passed successfully the eighth grade examination. She had previous to that clerked in Haltom's department store in this city. Wednesday evening she attended the prayer meeting at the Rev. R. Y. Blalock's residence, and left for home in company with her sister, Miss Bessie Bays, Manual Borba and Oscar Johnson. She was most cheerful all the evening and there were no indications that anything was troubling her. When about half a mile from home she left her sister and the two young men and went home. This was about ten o'clock. When she arrived home her parents had retired for the night and the house was in darkness. She went to a locker and took a bottle of carbolic acid and drank a part of it, and replacing the cork, placed the bottle on the stove. She then sat down in a chair, and her parents hearing a peculiar gurgling noise arose to see what was the cause, when to their horror and surprise they found that their daughter had taken poison, for the bottle on the stove told what had happened. When found the young woman was in a semi-unconscious condition and grew worse. Dr. Bonals was sent for, but she died at two o'clock this morning, a few minutes before the doctor arrived.

At first it was thought that the young woman had taken the poison accidentally, but there appears to be a general opinion in the neighborhood that she did so with suicidal intent. She appeared to be in the best of spirit when she left her sister and the two young men, and they could not account for her rash act when apprised of what had happened.
