At the annual school meeting on Monday, H. T. Botts was re-elected director and Alva Finley re-elected school clerk. M. W. Harrison, A. T. White and James Walten were appointed a committee to audit the accounts. There were only five persons present—three directors, the clerk and the Headlight man. *
Mr. W. H. Parker came in on Saturday to visit his sons, Harvey and Clarence Parker, who are in business in this city, and to look over the county. Mr. Parker was formerly publisher of the Forest Grove Times, which is to be merged with the News. This will give Forest Grove but one newspaper, and was brought about by the business men agreeing to support but one newspaper in that city, thus exploding the idea that a long felt want existed in having two or three newspapers but in where there is only room for one. *
For first class shoe repairing see H. Simpson at Browne's Shoe Store. *
Mrs. M. J. Durfee, widow of the late H. F. Durfee, and her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Warlick, left for the East on Tuesday. They came here to look after their property, but had a strenuous time in preventing the bunco sharks from doing them out of their money and property. *
Two passenger coaches will be sent in on the next trip of the barge from Portland, and as the bridge on the Wilson river will be completed in a few days, the track on this end of the Pacific Railway & Navigation Co.'s road will be in shape that cars will be able to run between Tillamook City and the Miami river. *
Some of the persons who will act as fire wardens this summer are: Edgar Munson and Henry Lowry, South Prairie; G. H. Benson, North Wilson; H. H. Parsons and R. Reed, Kelchis; C. F. Alexander, Miami; Oscar Stanburg, Scott Oby and Taylor Thomas, Trask. There will be twice as many fire wardens on duty this year in different parts of the county. *
The new launch Frolic, built in this city by H. Eadus, will be completed this week and will be launched probably on Saturday. Mr. Eadus will be the master of the new vessel and she will be put on the run between this city and all points on the bay, and as a large number of visitors are expected in Tillamook this summer there will be plenty of launches to accommodate them. Glenn H. Johnson, of Bay City, will be the manager of the Frolic. *
The new saw mill belonging to the Tillamook Lumber Manufacturing Company is sawing out over 40,000 feet of lumber daily, which is being taken away almost as fast as it is cut. Owing to the local demand, the mill company had to postpone cutting the spruce logs belonging to G. W. Kiger for ten days. The mill is giving steady employment to a large number of men, which helps the city with a pay roll, and as soon as possible the company will stock up a large lumber yard with all kinds of dimension lumber, both dressed, undressed and kiln dry. *
