Four horses were seriously injured on the Whitney place belonging to J. R. Hicks by a defective cattle guard on the railroad, and one of the animals is not expected to live.

The surveyors who have been working on the Wilson river, surveying over the Coast range for the United Railways electric line, reached this city on Tuesday with the survey.

Roy H. Ogden, better known as "Bull Moose," skipped out of the county, much to the regret of the hotel men. It is supposed that he left on the Argo and left the steamer at Astoria.

Morris Schnal, the popular price clothier, will open, on or about the 1st September, with a full line of Clothing, Gent's Furnishings, Boots and Shoes, in part of R. L. Wade's store.

The weather in the Willamette valley up to a few days ago was so cool that people saw no necessity of coming to the coast, which, probably, accounts for so few campers coming here thus far this year.

Attorney H. T. Botts is well enough to be out again, and his large number of friends are glad to know that he is making rapid recovery. He will spend about a week at Bayocean park camping with Mrs. Botts and friends.

A tabernacle, 60ft. by 90ft., which is to give seating accommodation for 1000 persons, is being erected south of the school house for the revival meetings to be conducted by Rev. French E. Oliver, D.D., which commences Sunday morning next.

Master Fish Warden H. C. McAllister, who inspected the salmon hatchery on the Trask river last week, where he found everything in first class shape, informs us that the next improvement at the hatchery will be to erect a residence for the superintendent.

Eugene Jenkins met with an accident with his auto on Friday on the Wilson river. In getting too far out of the way to allow some parties to pass one of the wheels lost its footing and the machine toppled over. Although it shook Eugene up some his family was not hurt nor was the machine damaged.

F. R. Beals has sold M. J. Reading's farm and personal property to Jos. Blaser for $5,000.00. This farm is situated on the Netarts road near the Tillamook River bridge. Mr. Blaser contemplates making extensive improvements on his purchase, when he expects to be able to carry 25 or 30 cows.

Dr. French E. Oliver, the noted evangelist, will commence a series of revival meetings in this city on Sunday morning next in a tabernacle especially built for that purpose. Dr. Oliver is a powerful speaker and all should make it a point to hear him. Prof. W. R. Oliver will be the musical director at the meetings and a large attendance is expected.

Mr. Clarence A. Parker, one of the popular proprietors of The Spa, was married to Miss Mabel Reddaway in this city on Tuesday, the Rev. D. L. Shrode officiating. The groom formerly resided in Forest Grove, and since coming here he has made many friends. The bride is the daughter of Mr. David Reddaway.

The happy couple will spend the summer at Happy Camp at Netarts.

A fire alarm was turned in about six o'clock on Tuesday evening and the hose company quickly responded and ran the fire appliances out to the west of town, but as the fire was in Wilbur Stillwell's house west of the Trask river the hose company could do nothing to save the property. The fire caught in the roof and completely destroyed the house, but they managed to save most of the furniture. Stillwell did not carry any insurance.

The passengers who left on the Sue H. Elmore on Saturday were Mr. Moran and wife, C. Meyers, Mrs. J. M. Duff, K. W. Strath, A. C. Adkins, Dr. E. Enna, Oscar Spdul, J. C. Haussberger, W. A. McNair, Geo. McNair, L. D. Skidmore, D. E. Wheeler, F. Wortman, E. L. Hubbard, M. L. Hubbard, Ross Clements, C. R. Day, H. C. McAllister and wife, T. Wilson, Roy Wilson, Capt. Larsen, Mrs. Larsen, Miss Larsen, O. C. Leader, Jas. Lightfoot.

L. J. Arstall, the Tillamook bank check forger, accused of holding up J. J. McDonald on the Liberty road, south of Salem last week, was given a preliminary hearing in the Municipal Court in that city and was bound over to the Circuit Court for trial. While the officers claim that Arstall admitted his guilt when first arrested, he now declares that he is innocent. He has retained Attorney P. H. D'Arcy and will fight for his freedom.

The steamer Argo came in on Saturday with a full load of freight and her passengers were C. J. Thomas and wife, C. P. London, Sherman Wiselad, W. C. Wellman, Mrs. Fanny Root, Miss Grace Moore, R. Powell, C. V. Smith and F. Sticker. She left on Monday with over 1100 cases of cheese, but was unable to take lumber as she could not land it on account of the low water at the dock at Linton. Amongst her outgoing passengers were Louise Mann, Mrs. F. W. Talbot, A. Rask, M. Lund, C. Martin.

Mr. Jesse E. O'Neil, the popular young druggist at Clough's drug store, was married on Sunday at high noon to Miss Blanche Smith, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith, parents of the bride, in this city. Rev. D. L. Shrode tied the nuptial knot in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. After the ceremony the happy couple received the congratulations and best wishes of their friends, and after partaking of the usual wedding feast the happy couple left in a automobile to spend their honeymoon in Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. Lee M. Travis with their daughter and son, Mrs. Leon Edmunson and daughter and Miss Vera Cecil, left Eugene early on Saturday morning in a automobile to visit the editor's family. While coming down a grade south of Hebo the driver, not being familiar with a curve, ran into the bank and struck a log, turning the machine over and throwing all the occupants out. At first it was thought that Mr. Travis' baby was badly hurt, but with the exception of a few bruises the party escaped without any injuries. The machine was injured some, but when pulled onto the road it was found that the machinery was intact, and fixing a few small injuries, the driver brought them to the city the next morning.

Miss Grace M. Moore came in on the steamer Argo on Saturday from Roseburg to become the bride of Mr. Eugene F. Conner, who is in charge of the office at Nehalem for Contractor Sweeney. Mr. Conner was on hand to meet his future wife, and the necessary license having been obtained from the county clerk's office, they went in search of a preacher to tie the knot. This was no easy task, as most of the preachers were either out of town or could not be located. Cupid, however, was not going to be defeated in that manner, for the Rev. V. E. Hoven, pastor of the Christian church, was eventually located and the happy couple sent for, and on their arrival the reverend gentlemen soon made them husband and wife and stopped all their fears of having to remain single until the next day. They left on Sunday for Nehalem.

The revival meetings which have been held by the Christian church at the tent, closed on Tuesday evening.

W. H. Sales has been arrested for fishing without a license and will have a hearing on Saturday.
