Sheriff Crenshaw, who returned from Salem in his auto, Saturday, says that Tillamook county, has got the Willamette valley skinned for good roads. He made the run to Salem from here with the insane person and prisoner in a little over six hours. The roads in the valley were so full of dust and chuck holes, that he took the electric cars from Salem to Portland and return rather than drive his machine over them.
