

Will start Voting on Baby Contest
Nov. 1, close Nov. 30, 1909.

STAR THEATRE.

THURSDAY, FRIDAY & SATURDAY.
 IN THE SULTAN'S POWER.
 THE PULVERIZER.
 BLUE LEGEND.
 SUNDAY AND MONDAY.
 A BRUISED HEART.
 CARNIVAL AT NIECE, 1909.
 THE LOST HARRIS.
 FATHER'S GLUE.
 TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY.
 THE WAY OF MAN.
 BONDSMEN'S FATE.
 CURED BY GYMNASTICS.
 First Show, 7:30 P.M. Second Show, 8:30 P.M.
ADMISSION, 10 Cents.

TILLAMOOK JOTTINGS.

For Furnished Rooms and Lodgings inquire of Lawrence Sanders at the Tillamook Hotel.

A. J. Burdick moved to Nehalem on Tuesday, where he bought a dairy farm containing 60 acres.

A marriage license was issued to Ed. Brunersreuther and Miss Lillian Schollmeyer, both of Nehalem.

Preaching at the Presbyterian church at Bay City next Sunday morning and in this city in the evening.

Mrs. W. Eberman won the dinner set at Mason, Pennington & Co's. department store on Wednesday.

Mrs. J. R. Thorall and children, of Garibaldi, are visiting friends and relatives in this neighborhood.

Rev. A. B. Calder will preach on Sunday next at Onion Peak at 11 a.m., Nehalem at 2:30 and at Balm at 7:30 p.m.

For sale, Team Wagon and Harness, in good condition. Team weighs 1,150 and 1,200 pounds. Enquire at the Headlight office.

For rent, large, airy, well furnished bedrooms, with electric lights, bath, telephone and stove. Call or phone E. G. Ford.

Attorney Webster Holmes returned from Salem the first of the week, where he had two cases to argue in the supreme court.

Harvey Williams and wife returned to the county from Portland last week, where he had undergone an operation for appendicitis.

L. Laborwitch and wife came in on the Sue H. Elmore from Portland for the purpose of opening up a lady's outfitting department.

The heavy rain with some heavy lightning on Tuesday night, was a forcible reminder that the rainy season commenced in good style.

Trotting for salmon appears to be a very successful sport, for most of the trollers have been catching as many salmon as they could pack home.

C. N. Johnson, of Beaver, brought to this office some fine samples of potatoes. They were Puritans, and Mr. Johnson informs us that they do well in this country.

Strayed or stolen from the pasture of Mrs. A. L. Donaldson, one medium size black cow, stub tail. Finder please inform Mrs. A. L. Donaldson and receive reward.

For furnished rooms and lodgings inquire of Lawrence Sanders at the Tillamook Hotel.

A. J. Burdick moved to Nehalem on Tuesday, where he bought a dairy farm containing 60 acres.

A marriage license was issued to Ed. Brunersreuther and Miss Lillian Schollmeyer, both of Nehalem.

Preaching at the Presbyterian church at Bay City next Sunday morning and in this city in the evening.

Mrs. W. Eberman won the dinner set at Mason, Pennington & Co's. department store on Wednesday.

Mrs. J. R. Thorall and children, of Garibaldi, are visiting friends and relatives in this neighborhood.

Rev. A. B. Calder will preach on Sunday next at Onion Peak at 11 a.m., Nehalem at 2:30 and at Balm at 7:30 p.m.

For sale, Team Wagon and Harness, in good condition. Team weighs 1,150 and 1,200 pounds. Enquire at the Headlight office.

For rent, large, airy, well furnished bedrooms, with electric lights, bath, telephone and stove. Call or phone E. G. Ford.

Attorney Webster Holmes returned from Salem the first of the week, where he had two cases to argue in the supreme court.

Harvey Williams and wife returned to the county from Portland last week, where he had undergone an operation for appendicitis.

L. Laborwitch and wife came in on the Sue H. Elmore from Portland for the purpose of opening up a lady's outfitting department.

The heavy rain with some heavy lightning on Tuesday night, was a forcible reminder that the rainy season commenced in good style.

Trotting for salmon appears to be a very successful sport, for most of the trollers have been catching as many salmon as they could pack home.

C. N. Johnson, of Beaver, brought to this office some fine samples of potatoes. They were Puritans, and Mr. Johnson informs us that they do well in this country.

Strayed or stolen from the pasture of Mrs. A. L. Donaldson, one medium size black cow, stub tail. Finder please inform Mrs. A. L. Donaldson and receive reward.

HALTOM'S

39 cents.
EXTRA SPECIALS.
 "Seco" Argentine
 Silk in all new Fall colors. Regular 50c
 a yard sale, yd.
39 cents.

We are simply overloaded with Fall Stock. Everyone knows that we expected to be in our new store in the concrete block by October 1st. We bought our fall stock with the expectation of having ample room for them in the new building.

49 cents.
SALE OF SHEETS.
 Full Size Sheets,
 extra quality sheet-
 ing. Regular value
 75c. each. Sale each
49 cents.

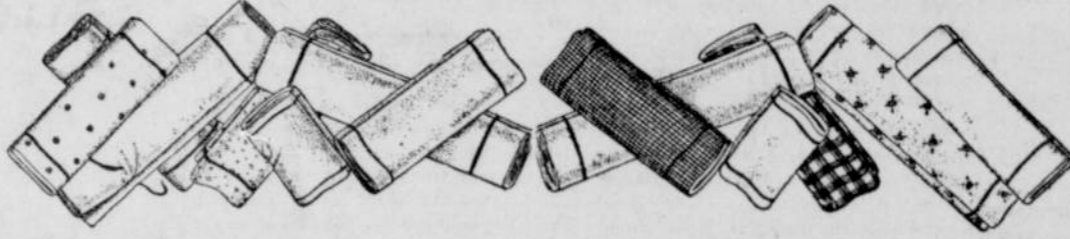

These goods are now arriving in enormous quantities on every boat and we have opened, and crowded goods into the shelves of our old store until we cannot find room for anything else, but goods still continue to arrive. We must make room, and in order to do so are offering many bargains in lines of goods on which we are overstocked or have no room for. Get in on this. It is to your advantage to trade here exclusively for the next month. Bear in mind that our Bargain offerings are from absolutely new stock, not shelf worn or moth eaten stuff. You can always rely on our word in these publications. We want you to read them and then investigate for yourselves as to the truth of our statements.

E. T. HALTOM.

American
Lady
Corsets.

Cuts in Prices in Piece Goods.

Ladies' Home
Journal Patterns.

Domestics.

12c Outing Flannels in stripes and checks, sale yd. 9c.
 50c. Red and Blue Checked Linen Table Cloth, 58 inches wide, sale yd. 43c.
 83c. Bleached Linen Table Cloth, 72 inches wide, handsome design, sale yd. 67c.
 15c. Princess Percales, new patterns, sale yd. 12c.

Dress Goods.

New All Wool Henriettas, 36 inches wide in Navy, cardinal, brown and black. Regular value 75c. Sale yd. 57c.
 Heavy French Serge in navy, cardinal, green, etc. 48 inches wide. Value 75c. Sale yd. 57c.
 Heavy all Wool Serge in Navy, Mode, Black and Grey. 48 inches wide. Regular Value $1.25 Sale yd. 98c.

8c. A 15c. Unbleached Turkish Towel, 8c. good quality, large size. Sale, each

9c. A 15c. Rosedale Pillow Slip, made of good quality sheeting, size 42 by 36. Sale each 9c.

These Ladies attended our Bedding Sale last week. See how happy they are. This good work will continue all next week. Get your bedding supplies from us and be happy too.

A $1.00 Pillow for$.63	A $1.50 Comfort for$1.19
A $1.25 " " "83	A $1.75 " "1.33
A $1.50 " " "1.19	A $2.25 " "1.83
A 75c. Sheet for49	A $1.00 Blanket for73
A 15c. Pillow Case for9	A $2.00 " "1.49

Important News!
Welcome News!
Pleasing News!
 THE FLOSHEIM SHOE.

Is making its opening bow to Tillamook's residents at the "Home of Values." Don't fail to see our window display and ask for the "Florsheim Shoe."

The Home of Values

THERE'S COMFORT IN

The Gotzian Shoe

"FITS LIKE YOUR FOOT-PRINT"

For Sale by MASON, PENNINGTON & Co.

The passengers who came in on the Sue H. Elmore last week were Mr. Chapin, H. Olson, E. Nelson, A. Peterson, G. R. Roling, Messrs. McCoy, Wheeler and Skidmore.

Sid Travis and Clyde Craver were down on the bay trolling for salmon on Sunday, and when at Dick's point they saw a deer at the water's edge, when Travis shot it.

The Pacific Railway & Navigation Co. commenced condemnation proceedings in the circuit court against C. T. Latourrette and Nannie A. Steinhilber and Theodore Steinhilber.

On the evening of the 16th inst. at the M. E. parsonage, Edward Brunersreuther and Lillian Schollmeyer, both of Nehalem, were united in marriage by the Rev. J. F. Dunlop.

Ira Diamond brought a large quantity of large ripe strawberries to the city on Monday from Sandlake, where they were grown, which found a ready sale at $2.40 a crate, or 20c. a box.

The Sue H. Elmore left on Sunday, her passengers being Mrs. Harold, W. Byers, B. Seoudh, Mrs. Howard Edmunds, L. P. Wheeler, L. L. Tomlinson, L. T. Skidmore, Howard Brooks and wife, and James Walton.

See Sturgeon's for anything in Ladies' and Children's Headwear. A complete line of material for making to order, as well as Trimmed Hats and Untrimmed shapes. Prices always reasonable.

The Board of Equalization, composed of County Judge Goodspeed, Assessor Hare and County Clerk Holden, is in session this week, with but little doing by way of the taxpayers looking after the assessment of their property.

The Argo's passengers when she left on Sunday, were J. J. Powell and wife, L. G. Freeman, Mrs. J. W. Campbell, Solomon Whitehouse, Adolph Hoven, P. P. Downs and wife, P. E. Jager, C. Gunderson, R. McAfee, B. R. Dickson and wife, Ruth and Mildred Dickson.

Ervin Carter and wife came in from Lents last week, after being away from the county for several years, and since leaving Garibaldi beach, where he used to reside, he has done some successful sparking, for Mrs. Ervin Carter accompanied him to Tillamook.

Gust Nelson and Peter Nelson, partners doing business under the firm name of Nelson & Co., sued Hiram Eadus and Irene Eadus in the circuit court for $509.78, being the accounts of several of the business men of Bay City for merchandise furnished the defendants.

The announcement of the marriage of George W. Phelps, of Netarts, to Pearl Evelyn, daughter of Mrs. Alicia Phelps, reached this office. The wedding took place at Kansas City, Mo., last Thursday, and the happy couple will at home at Netarts after the 1st November.

H. Sours has the contract to paint the Tillamook Building Company's new concrete building, and as he is an experienced painter and decorator, and his work is giving great satisfaction, it is safe to say that he will make a good job painting the best and largest business building in the city.

The steamer Argo brought in the following passengers last week: Harvey Williams and wife, George Watt and wife, H. K. Ballard and wife and family, M. P. Dunn, A. A. Courtney, S. M. Kerron, Chas. Penheimer, W. G. Bowers, Mrs. Tillotson, Mr. Laborwitch and wife, H. M. Davis and wife, S. M. Kerron, O. G. Vallien, Mrs. Thompson, O. A. Wells.

The government has entered into a contract with the Tillamook Building Company to have the post-office moved to the new concrete building. The lease is for five years, and the office is to be moved the first of November. The building company will have to furnish the office with cabinets, and with light and heat.

James Walton left on Saturday to go to Salem in his automobile, where Mrs. Walton is visiting relatives. He had not gone far on his journey before the machine began to balk, first by bursting a tire and then refusing to budge one way or the other, and Mr. Walton had to put up for the night at Oceanway Hotel. Rollie W. Watson went out to him the next morning and help him out of his dilemma, and returning to the city Mr. Walton went out on the Sue H. Elmore.

Last Wednesday a very pleasant surprise was given Mrs. Dungey on the anniversary of her seventy-fifth birthday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dan Goodspeed. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Bewley, Mr. and Mrs. McNair, Rev. and Mrs. Dunlop, and Mr. Cobler of Tillamook, and Mr. and Mrs. Cone, Mrs. F. Hicks, Mrs. Elizabeth Goodspeed and Mrs. Hicks of Bay City. A sumptuous dinner was served at noon which was greatly enjoyed by all. The last course served being birthday cake and fresh strawberries, the strawberries being raised on Mr. Cobler's fruit farm. A delightful afternoon was spent telling of past experiences on the frontier.

The marriage of Emily D. Sheldon to Chester W. Hopkins was solemnized at the home of the bride's sister, 527 Everett street, Portland, Or., Thursday night, October 14. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. E. Snyder, pastor of Piedmont Presbyterian Church. The bride was becomingly attired in lavender chiffon broadcloth and carried bride's roses. Only the immediate relatives and families were present. Mrs. Harriet D. Robinson, of Detroit, Mich., mother of the bride, attended. Autumn foliage and quantities of Caroline Testout roses formed effective decoration. Mr. Hopkins is a well known business man, formerly of Grand Rapids, Mich. Mrs. Hopkins, who is very popular, has been much entertained the past fortnight. They will be at home at 297 San Rafael street after November 1. The bride lived in Tillamook a few years ago, residing with her sister Mrs. Lem Parker at Hobsonville.

First Bank & Trust Company, BAY CITY, ORE.

Paid up Capital.....$25,000.
 Offers every facility for safe banking and respectfully solicits your business.
 Acts as trustee for corporations, individuals and estates. Confidential trust relations carried out faithfully.
 Interest at current rates on time deposits.
 Mail business given prompt attention.
 Fire and burglar proof safety deposit boxes just installed for convenience of customers at reasonable rental.