So the steamers have a hard job to handle all the freight for Tillamook.

Wonder what the "concrete lake" croakers think about the post office being moved to "concrete lake"? Say, won't that jar them?

As there is no doubt whatever that the supreme court of Oregon is illegally constituted, it must be, then, that it is illegal decisions that it is rendering.

In the East and Middle West it has been cold and snowing. On Monday last a large quantity of large ripe strawberries, grown in Tillamook, were sold in this city.

It will be in order for the Tillamook Building Company to give a dance in their splendid new building and hall to the progressive citizens, but it wouldn't be in order to invite the "concrete lake" croakers.

Mark Twain in his jocular manner compares marriages to tragedies. Perhaps they are when an industrious, hard working young man marries a young woman who knows nothing whatever about housekeeping or cooking, and who has been allowed to gad, gossip, dress and have what is called a "good time." Or when a young woman falls in love and marries an indolent or drunken young man with the idea that she is going to "reform" him. It is then that the tragedies of home life become apparent, and, as a last resort, divorce proceedings. Young men and young women take warning.

There is some comment going on about Senator Bourne going to control, at the next election the country press. We do not think the senator will attempt to do anything of the kind, and if he did so we are convinced that he would meet with failure. Most of the country editors pride themselves that their editorial columns cannot be bartered away to anyone. Invariably, whenever newspapers fall into the hands of politicians or business men to enhance their own interests, to the detriment of their opponents and competitors, it only acts as a boomerang. If Senator Bourne or any other aspirant for political honors are wanting to advertise their candidacy it is their privilege to use the country newspapers if they are willing to pay advertising rates. There is no danger of the country editors selling their editorial columns to political aspirants, but should they do so the people would soon catch on.

The regular monthly meeting of the C.W.B.M. was held at the home of Mrs. Phelps last week. The meeting was postponed a week from the regular day, so as to have it on the same day that the great national convention at Pittsburg was held. The meeting proved very pleasant and instructive. One new member added. The next meeting to be held next month will be at the parsonage. All ladies interested in missionary work are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

S. Schiffman was tried in Justice Sappington's court on Wednesday charged with keeping milk where the sanitary conditions were such that it made the milk impure and unwholesome. This is the first case of this character to be tried in this county, the complaint having been filed by Deputy Dairy and Food Commissioner Catterlin. The case was tried before a jury, which failed to agree and was discharged. Schiffman's place is at Nehalem. The jury was composed of W. Newcomb, Homer Mason, R. F. Zachmann, Carl Patzlar, Geo. Wilt and D. Billings, and it is reported that the jury stood four for conviction and two blanks.

A meeting of the city council was held on Monday evening, with Mayor Coates and Councilmen Lamb, Wilt, Catterlin and Talbot present. The application for a franchise by the Pacific Railway & Navigation Co. to lay a railroad track along Water street was laid over until Engineer Davis came in, when the city council will be called together to discuss the matter with him. The application for a franchise by the Tillamook Lumber Manufacturing Company to lay steam pipes in certain streets went to its final reading and passed. A. W. Atterbury and others petitioned for a side walk and the necessary steps were ordered to have the side walk put in. John Langley was given the contract to haul gravel at 50c a yard.

Sheriff Crenshaw left on Tuesday for Astoria, going out over the trail by way of Necarney mountain, to bring back three Dagoes who had obtained merchandise at the Bay City store under false representation, for instead of going to work on the railroad after they had obtained the articles, they took passage on the Sue H. Elmore, and in that way undertook to bunco the Bay City merchants. Sheriff Crenshaw was advised after they had taken their departure and he had Sheriff Pomeroy, of Clatsop County, meet the Elmore on her arrival at Astoria, with the result that three of the five Dagoes were arrested and taken to jail and will be brought back and have to face the music of standing trial on a charge which will send them to the penitentiary if found guilty.

A suit was filed in the circuit court last week in which Hiram Eadus and Irene Eadus have sued Glenn H. Johnson, which grew out of financial troubles in connection with the launch Prolic, in which the defendant had, agreed to buy half interest, but had failed to do so. The plaintiffs now pray the court for a decree against the defendant that a restraining order be granted the plaintiffs restraining the defendant from disposing of his personal property which may be held trust or otherwise to the defendant, for a decree against defendant for an accounting of the partnership, for a termination thereof, for a decree against the defendant for such sums as may be found due to the plaintiffs, and that the court appoint a receiver to receive and disburse the accounts, for a decree against the defendant for the payment of certain notes, for a decree assigning the launch in such a manner and to such parties as the court may direct, and that the action as laid by the defendant be dismissed.

Serious Runaway Accident.

A serious runaway accident on Monday befell Orley Kellow near Hebo, which came near proving fatal, and as it is there was grave doubt as to whether he would pull through, so serious were the injuries received. Kellow was driving a team attached to a wagon, which became scared from some cause and ran away, when he was thrown out and the wagon passed over him. When Kellow was picked up he was unconscious, and remained so for two hours after the accident happened. Doctors were sent for and Drs. Roals and Brown attended to the unfortunate man's injuries, which included a broken shoulder blade, a dislocated shoulder and a number of bad bruises about the chest. Although seriously injured, the doctors think that he will recover, notwithstanding that it was a close call.

Bulgarian Workmen Duped Out of their Wages.

Chris Nichola, the Bulgarian foreman at railroad camp No. 6, at Garibaldi, successfully worked the get rich quick scheme last week upon a number of his country men, who mourn the confidence placed in him. The men were paid off in checks last week, and Nichola obligingly offered to cash them for the men. Having every confidence in him they readily consented, little dreaming that their hard earned wages would "shidoo" by doing so. Checks to the amount of probably over $2,500 were entrusted to Nichola, and on Saturday he went to Bay City and cashed about thirteen hundred dollars worth of checks, and finding that he could not cash them all there he came to Tillamook City and cashed the remainder. He went first to the Tillamook County Bank, but failed to get them cashed there. Sunday he spent the day at the camps at Garibaldi, telling the men that he had not succeeded in getting the checks cashed, but he would do so the next day. Monday he left, telling the men that he would take the Henrietta and go to town and get the checks cashed, but instead of doing so he boarded the Sue H. Elmore just as she was leaving. He seems to have left some unpaid store bills at Bay City.

Ross to Serve Five Years.

SALEM, Or., Oct. 19.—The Supreme Court today rendered an opinion in the case of the State vs. J. Thorburn Ross, affirming the decision of the Circuit Court for Marion County, Judge George H. Burnett presiding, except as to that part which says Ross shall be imprisoned in the Multnomah County Jail until the fine of $576.853 54 shall have been paid. In other respects the judgment of the trial court is affirmed, and Ross must serve five years in the Penitentiary for wrongful conversion of State school funds, amounting to $288,426.87.

The Art of Saving.

I believe that if somebody could invent unique ways of saving money the public would have an assured future. Men, women and children would regard saving as a game and play it with all their heart. There are penny savings banks where newsboys and bootblacks carry their tiny savings, but other children regard their penny bank at home with unfriendly eyes. There are working girls who put away their five cent pieces and fatten their small bank accounts by walking instead of riding and making other petty sacrifices. But the majority of working girls spend as fast as they can earn and declare that they cannot help it.

One reads of a man who began his career by regarding every dollar as a worker and getting all the profit he could. With that quality conceit in his head saving became a pleasure, and he won riches without realizing that it was a struggle. I know of more than one woman who receives each night from her husband every dime he has received in change through the day, for he is careful to avoid spending such a piece of money. These, with her own savings in the same direction, make a respectable weekly showing.—Kansas City Journal.

Only Seeking Information.

The average New York boy is not a wonder of wit and wisdom, but most of them know a good thing when they see it. Also the contrary. Not long ago one of them saw a sign in front of a Sixth avenue place. "Boy Wanted." He was looking for something of that kind and walked in. There was nobody in sight, and he stood gazing. Presently the proprietor, a most grouchy person, appeared.

"What do you want here?" he inquired with scant courtesy.

"Well," replied the boy, disturbed by the man's manner and hesitating, "do you want a boy here?"

"That's what the sign says, don't it?" snapped the man.

"Yes," responded the boy, getting his second wind.

"Then we want a boy."

"Aw right," grinned the boy, backing away. "You git one. You can't have me," and he wiggled his fingers at the man and went out quickly.—New York Herald.

Tire Themselves Getting Ready.

Washington Irving tells a story of a man who tried to jump over a hill. He went back so far to get his start for the great leap and ran so hard that he was completely exhausted when he came to the hill and had to lie down and rest. Then he got up and walked over the hill. A great many people exhaust themselves getting ready to do their work. They are always preparing. They spend their lives getting ready to do something which they never do. It is an excellent thing to keep improving oneself, to keep growing, but there must be a time to begin the great work of life. I know a man who is almost forty years old who has not yet decided what he is going to do. He has graduated from college and taken a number of postgraduate courses, but all along general lines. He has not yet begun to specialize. This man fully believes he is going to do great things yet. I hope he may.—Success Magazine.

The Paper They Were Written On.

The average author would probably laugh at the statement that at one time in the world's history manuscripts, simply as such, irrespective of the nature of the text, were immensely valuable. In ancient times manuscripts were important articles from a commercial point of view. They were excessively scarce and were preserved with the utmost care. Even the users were glad to lend money on them when the owners were obliged to offer them in pawn. It is related in an ancient tome that a student of Paria, who was reduced by his debaucheries, raised a new fortune by leaving in pawn a manuscript of a body of law, and a grammarian who was ruined by a fire rebuilt his house with two small volumes of Cicero through the ready aid of the pawnbroker.

Highest Cross in the World.

The highest cross in the world is said to be that which caps the loftiest peak of the Harz mountains. The cross is in reality a tower, and it commands a magnificent view of the country around. The height of the tower is 120 feet, and it stands on a mountain 1,731 feet above the sea level. A stair of 200 steps leads to the top of the cross, but there is an elevator of which people may avail themselves who for any reason wish to avoid the long climb.

Passing Events.

Time is a sort of river of passing events, and strong is its current. No sooner is a thing brought to light than it is swept by and another takes its place, and this, too, will be swept away.—Marcus Aurelius.

Vengeance should be left to women.—Petraech.
