The gasoline schooner Oshkosh will take out a load of spruce lumber for Geo. W. Kiger on her next trip from the lumber company's saw mill.

Be sure and take dinner with the Ladies' Guild, Saturday, Dec. 11, in the building recently occupied by Jones & Knudson. Baked beans a specialty.

It must be that Peary and Cook monkeyed with the North Pole, for we never experienced such severe weather before at this time of the year in Tillamook.

R. F. Zachmann has bought the building from C. E. Reynolds, opposite the concrete building, and will occupy it for his plumbing business about the new year.

Frank Long, et al., under the firm name of Frank Long & Co. vs. F.
W. Berger is a suit filed in the county court to recover $262.41 for material furnished.

Clough has decided to close out his large stock of fancy decorated china and the prices he makes you will make you think he is going some. Come in and look it over.

Reports received from Clatsop Beach state that quite an amount of wreckage from the steamer Argo, including a portion of the vessel's hull, is strewn along the shore at Columbia Beach.

A. Benschmidt left on Monday for California, with a view of selecting a place to locate. Thus this city is continually losing some of the best citizens because conditions are not congenial to them here.

Try this. Put your barn shovel in water each time after using. It will last twice as long and you will always have a clean shovel to work with. We sell barn shovels. Need one? Get it from King & Smith Co.

Clough got stuck on buying Fancy Box Stationery in lovely decorated boxes this year, and the line is so large he must sell them cheap to get rid of them. Don't wait too late before selecting your box.

This year, like years before, we are showing the nicest and largest line of Fancy Dishes and China Ware in the county. They are arranged in good order, which makes selecting easy. King & Smith Co.

Our Pyrographic Goods have arrived and is now on display. We have almost everything that is made in the line that you could wish or ask for. Step into Clough's and inspect our line. No trouble to show goods.

The Ladies' Guild will hold a baazar in the building recently occupied by Jones & Knudson, Saturday, Dec. 11, where fancy and useful articles will be on sale. Dinner will be served at noon and lunch in the evening.

In looking through Clough's drug store it is a matter to be regretted that he has no more room to display his immense stock of Xmas Goods. His line covers a large selection of gifts suitable for every one. Mr. Clough requests buyers to take their time and look careful and you will surely find a suitable present.

CHRISTMAS

is rapidly approaching—only twelve more buying days remaining and the last six of them will be days of such tremendous activity that this great store will be taxed to the utmost capacity. We take this opportunity to urge every one to consider this condition and make full use of the advantages the present week affords for satisfactory and comfortable Christmas shopping.

Three Tons of DELICIOUS CANDIES.

Haltom's Candies are as pure, sweet and dainty as can be. They must be so. Consult any candy authority you know on the wholesomeness of Haltom's candies, and you will find him frankly and honestly vouching for their absolute purity.
Don't miss a pound of Haltom's 35c. to 50c. candies at 15 cents.

The clock at Mason, Pennington & Co.'s, stopped on Wednesday at 8 o'clock, 2 minutes and 19 seconds.
Mrs. Chas. Burke was awarded the set of dishes, as she held the nearest ticket, which was 8 o'clock, 1 minute and 59 seconds.

Every lady and every home should avail themselves of this opportunity to secure one of the Pure Aluminum Saus Pans that we have put on special sale. Regular 35 cents pan, special 10 cents. We do this to get people acquainted with Aluminum Ware. Free, we give an Alluminum Souvenir whether you buy or not. King & Smith Co.

Weather conditions in Tillamook for more than a month have been unusually stormy and cold for this time of year, and the cold snap and snow the first part of this week was a surprise to some of the oldest settlers. It did not remain long, however, for Monday night it turned to rain. There is about a foot of snow in the mountains, and the snow ranches down to the fish hatchery.

Memorial services for Nellie Hunter, who was drowned when the life boat capsized after being rescued from the wrecked steamer Argo, and whose body has not been recovered, will be held at eleven o'clock on Sunday next at the Christian church.

Everybody needs a Fountain Pen these days. Clough carries a large assortment of Waterman Ideal and Moore's Non-Leakable, both kinds are reliable and fully guaranteed.
We recommend the Moore's, and would be pleased to show you the new feature of an non-leakable fountain pen.

A sad misfortune happened to Clarence, Smith, once a resident of this county, but now of Astoria.
Two months ago he was paralyzed and he went to Portland to a hospital and improved some, then went to the Springs, but did not get any benefit, and now is at Astoria, at Nehalem Hotel, and when he goes out has to go on crutches, and also has to have someone to steady him to keep him from falling.

While buying our Cut Glass this year Clough selected from three different lines, Crescent, American and an Imported line. The imported is the cheapest, and if you call Mr. Clough will tell you how to tell the difference.

Jones-Knudson Furniture Co. is now located in their new concrete building. This is one of the most modern structures in the city, and is one of the permanent improvements made this summer. The building is a credit to the city as well as to Messrs. Jones and Knudson, who showed considerable enterprise in erecting such a substantial building.

In the case of Gottlieb Wyss vs.
Tillamook County, for damages was settled Wednesday morning in the circuit court at McMinnville.
The case was caused through Wyss' brother falling off a defective bridge and injuring himself so badly that he died. Wyss secured a change of venue to Yamhill county. All Tuesday afternoon was spent with the case and the jurors had not reached a verdict at noon Wednesday, when they were dismissed.

Before another jury could be empaneled Wyss agreed to settle for $600.

If you need a Bible, and most every body does, come into Clough's and look at his selection. There is no need of your sending away for them. Our prices are right.

AS THE TWIG IS BENT

The tree is inclined, just as the little folks taught good habits by precept and example will be inclined to do right and live right when grown.

The SAVINGS HABIT is a good one. Get your child a pass-book and a Home Savings Bank, if he has not one already, and incline him toward right methods in a financial way.

Every child should save a part of the pennies, nickles and dimes coming into its possession. Spending all he earns, makes a spendthrift; hoarding all he earns, makes a miser; let's have the happy medium and teach the child to save some as well as to spend, and thus make for more thrifty boys and girls and a more happy and prosperous future.

We will help you. One dollar opens an account with which we furnish free a Home Savings Bank and pay four per cent interest on the amount deposited.
