The advent of the new year was ushered in with the blowing of whistles and the ringing of bells, and from all indications 1910 will be the year in which the county will have railroad connections.
Rev. Thos. Robinson, of the Presbyterian church, will exchange pulpits with Rev. C. Roosa, of Cloverdale on Sunday. There will be services both morning and evening on Sunday in the Presbyterian church in this city, to which all are invited.
Rev. A. B. Calder, of Bay City, will hold the second quarterly meeting in the Methodist church next Sunday, preaching both morning and evening. The sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered at the close of the morning sermon. All are invited to attend these services.
A telegraphic message from California announced the death of the wife of Bert Morse, who was taken there a few weeks ago for the benefit of her health. The deceased was a daughter of Mrs. Dodge, and the cause of death was consumption. She had one child and the remains were buried in California.
C. E. Reynolds has bought out F. W. Christensen, and is now running the moving picture show at the Gem theatre. As Charley has some of the traits of a showman and a good story-teller, he ought to do well, now that he has doffed the undertaker's garb, for instead of burying people he has started in to amuse the public.
The Sue H. Elmore left here Sunday afternoon with the following passengers: R. C. Nelson, H. Goldstone, Mrs. Dugree, Blanche McNair, Mrs. A. Watt, C. B. Higley, A. Davis, C. E. Dooley, H. R. Donabough, R. Bunn, Fred Webber, Freda Morgan, Bertha Twiss, Ed. Hadley, wife and child and Lizzie Van Patten.
On Saturday evening a musical recital will be given by Mrs. Jo-pupils, assisted by local talent. One feature of the evening's entertainment will be a quadrille by little ones, and another is a monologue by Ray Chapler. The performance will commence at eight o'clock, and the opera house will be heated for the occasion.

Deputy Sheriff Aschim returned with A. C. McKeen, the man who claimed to be an organizer for the Owls, who, after inducing over one hundred person to become members and collecting $5 initiation fee from each, suddenly left the county for California. He wanted the preliminary hearing put off until the 20th, which was granted.
The awarding of the dishes on Wednesday at Mason, Pennington & Co.'s drew the largest crowd in the history of that store. The clock stopped at 3 o'clock, 6 mins. and 30 sec. Mrs. W. E. Noyes held ticket 3 o'clock, 5 minutes and 56 seconds. These tickets each being 34 seconds from the time the clock stopped and being tied, each were given a set of dishes. Mrs. M. Millage held second nearest ticket and was awarded a set of six hand painted plates. In addition to the set of dishes which we give away every Wednesday at 2:30 p.m., we will give to the person holding the second nearest ticket a set of six hand painted plates.—Mason, Pennington & Co.
At the residence of the bride's parents, 920 Yakima Ave., Tacoma, Wash., on Christmas day, Miss Helen Shaver, only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Shaver, was united in marriage to Mr. William Herbert Cooper, of Portland. Mr. Cooper is a young man well and favorably known in Tillamook, and is a son of Deputy District Attorney and Mrs. W. H. Cooper. He is a graduate of the Tillamook High School, after which he attended the University of Washington, where he obtained his degree of Ph.C. from that institution last July. His young friends in this county will be pleased to hear of his marriage and to congratulate the happy couple.
The Ladies' Guild of the Presbyterian Church held its annual meeting at the church on Wednesday afternoon and elected the following officers: President, Mrs. H. W. Alderman; Vice President, Mrs.

Bales; Secretary, Mrs. F. S. Whitehouse; Treasurer, Mrs. C. I. Clough. Mrs. Alderman was presented with a cut glass dish in appreciation of her services as president of the Guild the past year. The business having been transacted the members were invited by Mrs. Sarchet to take a dainty lunch at The Spa. Those present were Mesdames Alderman, Clough, Whitehouse, Riefenberg, Wallis, Poorman, Mason, F. C. Baker, W. F. Baker, Boals, Brodhead, Haberlach, Hoevet, B. D. Lamar and Sarchet.
Lutis King, a former resident of Marshfield but now of Tillamook, arrived here enroute to Roseburg, where he goes to claim the estate that his father has promised to give him and his sister, Miss May King. The details of the offer were told a week or so ago and the press accounts of it were the first intimation to reach King and his sister, who had thought their father was dead. They have been residing with their mother and step father, Mr. and Mrs. Cook. King has but a faint recollection of his father, and since he has learned that the latter is alive in the Soldiers' Home at Roseburg, is almost anxious to see his parent, as the latter is to meet his children.—Coos Bay Times.
The party given by the Swastika Club on New Year's eve at Todd's hall was quite a success. After the guests had arrived slips of paper, having parts of quotations, were distributed, and by matching them partners were secured for the games which followed. First was a progressive, followed by several guessing games. Then the guests were given slips of paper on which they were required to write a telegram using each letter of the word "Swastika" for the words of the telegram. Several were worthy of mention, but Mr. Shrode was accorded the honor of writing the best one. Mrs. Poorman favored the company with a vocal solo. So pleasantly was the evening spent that before they were aware the old year had passed and the new year was at hand. After new year greetings were exchanged refreshments were served at The Spa, when the company returned to their homes, hoping the new year would have many such successes in store for her.
