Mrs. Emmett Bales gave a party to a number of her lady friends on Friday afternoon, which proved another of those pleasant afternoons the ladies of the city have been having the past winter, and which have become enjoyable social events. Mrs. Bales, assisted by Miss Hansen, who is visiting in this city, entertained the guests in a charming manner. The afternoon was spent in games and a social manner. Mesdames W. B. Alderman, Fred Poorman and Fred C. Baker taking the prizes. A most dainty lunch was served to the delight of all present.
Opera House, Friday and Saturday, May 13-14. The greatest play of them all, "Forgiven," by the Dramatic Club, McCowell's direction. New faces, new specialties between acts and one long laugh. This will be an evening well spent with a story that will elevate and entertain. Husbands should bring their wives, mothers, have your daughters see it. It's a good lesson. Seats are now selling at Lania's drug store, usual prices. Remember the big bowery dance given by the ball team after the show Saturday night. Don't miss it, a good time guaranteed to all.

Tillamook has extended an invitation to Mr. L. W. Hill to visit this county, which was wired this morning as follows:
